FRANCE DIRECTS WAR IN MADRID, ITALY CHARGES

Lays Defeats to Staf Sent from Paris.

BY EDMOND TAYLOR.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

ROME, April 7.—Premier Mussolini's press today leveled grave charges at France, bringing to a more dangerous heat the European war of propaganda over the real war in Spain.

France is accused not only of sending war supplies to Spain and recruiting volunteers for her in violation of the London nonintervention accord, but even of furnishing officers for an all French general staf under a French general. It is alleged the staf now commands the Spanish loyalist field forces.

The charges are made in an article by Virginio Gayda, most authoritative of Il Duce's press spokesmen, in the newspaper Giornale d'Italia which usually is regarded as speaking for the government.

Hits "General Staf."

"It is precisely in these recent weeks," said Gayda, referring to the period marked by Italian reverses in the Guadalajara sector in Spain, "that the Spanish 'Red' [loyalist] forces have been reorganized under French command and with arms coming in great part from France.

"The French general is the center of a French war organization which was transferred to Spanish territory. Twenty-five French officers of the general staf who surround him prepare the plans and direct Spanish operations. As a result, for instance, the French general staf now is preparing and recommending a Red offensive at Siguenza." [87 miles northeast of Madrid.]

In the original Italian statement this part of Gayda's indictment is ambiguous, it being not clear to the hurried reader whether the "general staf" refers to one created by the Spanish loyalists from French officers fighting with them or whether it really is an emanation of the French general staf.

It doubtless means the former.

Checks Results of French Guns.

What is unmistakable, however, is Gayda's accusation that Edouard Daladier, French minister of war, is receiving reports on the performance of the new 155 millimeter [6.1 inch] French guns sent to Spain and used extensively in the Guadalajara battle.

This allegation, if true, naturally establishes the complicity of the French government in the shipment of war materials to Spain.

Further charges contained in the Gayda article are that French fighting planes are at present in Spain in great numbers; that a school for training Spanish pilots exists in France, that the whole general staf of the Spanish air force is now in Paris; and that two contracts have been signed by envoys of the Valencia government and with the knowledge of the French air minister for fifty-five fighting planes.

Has Diplomats Worried.

This blast of Gayda's, the culmination of a press campaign over the last ten days, has diplomats here both puzzled and worried.

In view of the recent insinuations by Dino Alfieri, Italian minister of propaganda, that Italy might free herself from the international accord for nonintervention in Spain if other signatories did not cease violating it, these precise accusations of violations in the Italian press were interpreted in some quarters to mean that Italy is getting ready to denounce the accord and send new forces into Spain, thus creating the danger of a European conflict.

[The Spanish embassy in London yesterday said it had confirmed the reported landing of 10,000 Italian troops at Cadiz, Spain, on March 22, 23 and 24, as aid for the rebels. Italy has denied sending any troops to Spain.]

Tomorrow, Gayda announced, he will expose alleged soviet Russian violations of the accord.

Britain to Protest Bombing.

LONDON, April 7.—(AP)—The British destroyer Garland sped to the Spanish rebel island of Mallorca tonight to present an imperative demand for explanation of aerial attacks against the destroyer Gallant.

There were indications that the government later would make strong representations to Gen. Francisco Franco at his Salamanca headquar-

EX-GOV. LOWDEN AND MOLEY WAR ON COURT PLAN

Drive to Save Rights Opens in Chicago.

Asks Quicker Rulings

A bill designed to speed up Supreme court decisions on the constitutionality of major acts of congress passed in house by vote of 122 to 14. Details on page 6.

BY JOSEPH ATOR.

The campaign to bring home to citizens of the middle west the full meaning of President Roosevelt's proposal to pack the Supreme court opened in Chicago yesterday with speeches by Frank O. Lowden, ex-governor of Illinois and Nestor of the American farm movement, and Dr. Raymond Moley, organizer of the original brain trust.

Former Gov. Lowden, in a radio address last evening, warned against centralization of government, which he said would be the inevitable result of destruction of an independent judiciary. Hand in hand with centralized government would come destruction of the rights of the minority, he pointed out.

Warning to Farmers.

He had a special word for farmers, reminding them that they are only one-fourth of our population, and that for every voice from the farms for high agricultural prices fixed by the government three from the cities would demand cheaper food.

Dr. Moley spoke as one of the progressives who see danger in the President's plan and believe it will fail to bring about the liberal reforms which they seek. Those reforms cannot be accomplished without constitutional amendments, he said, and he outlined an amendment program which he asserted can be passed. He spoke at the luncheon of the Chicago Association of Commerce in the Palmer house.

Massmeeting Tomorrow Night.

The campaign against the court packing scheme will be carried on tomorrow evening at a massmeeting of citizens arranged in the Auditorium theater by the Chicago Citizens' Court Defense committee. Floyd E. Thompson, Democrat and former chief justice of the Illinois Supreme court, is head of the committee.

The principal speakers at the massmeeting will be Senator Edward R. Burke of Nebraska and Representative Samuel B. Pettengill of Indiana. Both are Democrats.

Democratic women took a leading part yesterday in the meeting of the women's division of the court defense committee at which plans were laid to bring out attendance for the protest meeting. Among them were Mrs. Edward J. Fleming, former Democratic member of the Cook county board, and Mrs. William A. Sauer, club leader and lifelong Democrat.

Plan Counter Offensive.

Partisans of the President will stage a counteroffensive on behalf of his court plan Saturday night at a massmeeting at the Chicago Stadium. Principal speakers there will be Secretary of the Interior Ickes and Senator Alben W. Barkley of Kentucky.

"There is a popular misapprehension as to the functions of the Supreme court," said Mr. Lowden, whose speech was broadcast over a national network. "It does not review legislation, as is often alleged. The congress is at liberty to pass any law it wills.

"That law remains on the statute books unchallenged until some citizen who feels himself aggrieved under its operation claims that the law in question is in conflict with his constitutional rights.

How Laws Are Examined.

"Then, and only then, does the court concern itself with such a law. It lays the law alongside the provision of the constitution in question and decides whether such a conflict exists. If the decision is in favor of the citizen who claims the protection of the constitution, the court has no alternative but to declare the law of congress void."

No President has ever possessed the powers which President Roosevelt already wields, yet he seeks other and vaster powers in his attack on the Supreme court, Mr. Lowden said.

"The President," he said, "confessed in a message to congress that

PURPLE MARTINS LOOK IN TO LET FLOSSMOOR KNOW SPRING IS HERE

Any lingering doubt that spring is really here vanished yesterday so far as residents of Flossmoor are concerned. Bright and early in the morning three pairs of purple martins awoke Mr. and Mrs. Kendall M. Shankland, who live on Park drive in the suburb. For several years these martin scouts, who come in advance to look over the housing situation for the flock, have made their first stop at the Shankland home. Incidentally, say bird lovers, if you have a martin house in your yard now is the time to chase out the sparrows and get it ready for the summer tenants.

JACK SITS DOWN AND BITES MULE BROUGHT IN TO BREAK STRIKE

New York, April 7.—(AP)—Jack, 24 year old army mule, scored the first victory in his afternoon "sitdown" strike today when Fort Totten officials admitted their inability to make him work after lunch time and were forced to import a strikebreaker to do the p. m. chores.

Cyclone, a mild mannered oldster of 26 years, was brought here by boat from Fort Slocum, New Rochelle, after Jack's refusal to do a lick after noon precipitated something of a crisis at the 62d Coast Artillery post.

Jack's immediate reaction to what he evidently believed was a violation of his sovereignty of the Fort Totten corral, was to attack Cyclone with all four hooves and bite a sizable chunk out of the newcomer's flank.

Believe Killer Molded Mask on Dying Girl

New York, April 7.—(AP)—The gruesome possibility that the Easter eve slayer of Veronica Gedeon and two other persons may have tarried at the bloody crime scene to make a sculptor's death mask of the beautiful 20 year old model arose tonight as the search for Robert Irwin, sculptor suspect, turned toward Pennsylvania turnpikes.

Pieces of plaster of paris and a dirty washcloth were found in the apartment where "Ronnie," her mother, and a lodger were killed, also a tiny strip of adhesive plaster stuck to the girl's lifeless neck, and a carton of salt in Irwin's old rooming house.

Combined, these clews led investigators to confer with Alexander J. Ettl, sculptor and art supplies dealer for whom the missing former Divinity student worked.

A Model Even In Death.

Recounting his interview with the police tonight, Ettl demonstrated the making of a death mask and said the newly discovered clews indicated "Ronnie" had served as a model even in death.

The dirty washcloth, he said, bore traces of the soft brown soap artists put on a mask-model's face to prevent sticking of the plaster of paris of which the mask is made—plaster of paris like the apartment crums.

The sculptor even suggested the girl's death might have been accomplished by closing up the nostril holes customarily made in the mask process so the subject can breathe. Police said the girl died of strangulation.

Salt Used for Hardening Purposes.

Salt, of which police found a sizable carton, is used to make the plaster of paris harden quickly, he stated.

Police received a telephone report that a man resembling Irwin was hitch-hiking near Stroudsburg, Pa., yesterday.

A motorist who gave him a ride between Stroudsburg and Dingman's Ferry, it was stated, quoted the hiker as remarking:

"There are just two fundamental interests of man—sex and God. God is the stronger." Irwin said that to an interviewer two weeks ago.

Police would not confirm whether the clews pointing to the making of a mask constituted the find that led to the search for Irwin.

Ettl told police Irwin "ordered dry clay flower in January, and in February six boxwood modeling tools, and on March 4 twenty-four pounds of plaster. His last visit was early last month."

Tells of Police Visits.

"Police have been to see me several times since the murder," he said. "They came first on Tuesday after Easter to see what I knew of him.

"Day before yesterday they asked me for samples of sculptors' soap. They had questioned me particularly about that before. They said the stuff was found in the Gedeon apartment.

"I suggested the murderer may have made a mask of one of his victims, probably 'Ronnie,' and pointed out that adhesive was found on her neck."

NOT HAMMOND SUSPECT.

Ned Silvestri, commercial artist at 1214 West Madison street, who employed Robert Irwin in 1929, went to Hammond yesterday to view a young man in St. Margaret's hospital who was reported to fit Irwin's description, but it was not Irwin. The patient, who gave the name Edward Boyd, said he had recently been living at the Monarch hotel in Chicago. He entered the hospital Sunday, saying he had taken poison.

Through her attorney, Norman Becker, Mrs. Sweeney filed suit for divorce yesterday in the Circuit court. Two previous suits were dismissed following reconciliations. They have eight children.

DRIVE 500 IDLERS FROM HERSHEY CANDY PLANT

Lewis Declares Ford Is Next to Get C. I. O. Attack.

Detroit, Mich, April 7.—(AP)—John L. Lewis, head of the Committee for Industrial Organization, asserted tonight that unionization of the Ford Motor company's employés is the next objective of the United Automobile Workers of America.

Lewis made his assertion in an address at a union rally in the Coliseum at the Michigan State Fairgrounds, adding that the organization of the Ford workers would not be undertaken until "this problem is before us."

The labor chieftain spoke a few hours after Henry Ford had said at Ways, Ga., that "we'll never recognize the United Automobile Workers' union or any other union."

Thinks He'll Change Mind.

"Mr. Ford issued a statement saying he will never recognize the U. A. W. A. or any other union and that he will deal only with individual members," Lewis said.

"I have no doubt that Mr. Ford will do that as long as his employés permit him to pull that policy and no other. I have no doubt, however, that Mr. Ford will change his mind."

"Henry Ford, for all his millions, is merely a man as you and I," Lewis continued. "After all he owes an obligation to the men who have helped him to create this great industry of his. And he owes to the citizens of the United States an obligation to uphold the law."

The labor leader referred to a recent assertion by the automobile magnate that labor unions were financed by international bankers by saying:

"That shows how great a man Henry Ford is not when he gets away from the automobile business. I can say for the C. I. O. and the U. A. W. A. that they haven't seen any of this money except on the balance sheets of our great modern industries."

Ford Defies Unionization.

Ways, Ga., April 7.—(AP)—Henry Ford today announced a short-lived sitdown strike in his St. Louis assembly plant and said his company had no intentions of recognizing the United Automobile Workers' union as a bargaining agency.

"We'll never recognize the United Automobile Workers' union or any other union," the 73 year old manufacturer said at his winter home here.

Ford announced the St. Louis strike after talking by long distance telephone with his son, Edsel, president of the company, in Dearborn, Mich.

The elder Ford said he learned a few men struck last night in the St. Louis plant and were "escorted out" of the plant involved.

"But we don't hold any grudge against them and would rehire them," Ford added. "We would regret taking any action because we know the men are simply being duped by the leaders and coerced."

Feels Workers "Have Lost."

Ford said he felt workers participating in recent strikes "have lost."

"They're being organized and have had their freedom taken away," he said. "They'll pay money to the unions and get nothing in return.

"We make no concessions," he said. "Our men know what we can do and what we can't do. We'll deal with them individually."

Hershey, Pa., April 7.—[Special.]—Several thousand angry farmers and loyal workers of the Hershey Chocolate corporation drove 500 or more sitdown strikers from the factory in a hand to hand battle today.

M. S. Hershey.

The floors and walls of the ivy covered factory were spattered with the blood of combatants, who wielded hammers, pipes, clubs, and bull whips indiscriminately on each other. Heads were cracked. Legs and arms were fractured. One nonstriker fell, stabbed in the abdomen with an ice pick. Several fell, knocked cold from head blows.

The spectacle of spilling blood in a labor dispute was new to this picturesque community, which has grown into one of the country's show places under the lavish philanthropy of its founder, Milton S. Hershey, multimillionaire candy maker.

About Fifty Injured.

About fifty persons were injured in the hand to hand fighting that ensued before the strikers were overpowered by force of numbers. Women joined sides in the fighting. Some of them were hurt as they added their screams and blows to the battle of the men folk.

Following surrender of the strikers, whose force was variously estimated from a few hundred to 1,000 men and women, they were compelled to march out of the building with raised hands and, Indianlike, run a gantlet of missils from unfriendly townspeople.

Chunks of coal, part of a truck load of ashes, stones and whatever weapons came to hand were hurled at the evicted sitdowners as they ran in frantic flight through a narrow lane of their enemies.

The farmers were aroused to battle pitch by the strike, which started last Friday, because it paralyzed their market for some 800,000 pounds of milk daily.

From Six Rich Counties.

They flocked into Hershey from six surrounding counties where their lands compose one of the most prosperous farming centers in the United States. These agriculturists, mostly Pennsylvania Dutch, suffered little from the depression, their rich lands carrying them through.

In an amiable mood, but desirous that something be done about their milk market, the farmers joined nonstrikers in demonstrations Monday and Tuesday. They returned today and participated in a parade in which it was estimated there were 12,000 marchers.

The strike was called Friday by the United Chocolate Workers' union, an affiliate of the Committee for Industrial Organization, as the initial test in the union's drive to organize that industry. Several hundred of the Hershey corporation's 2,400 workers began a sitdown, contending the company had failed to respect seniority rights and equally divide time between shifts.

The management had signed an agreement on March 17 recognizing, among other things, the chocolate workers' union as the bargaining agent for its members. On March 9 the company had granted an increase of 12 cents an hour for men and 7 cents an hour for women to the basic pay of about 56 cents an hour.

Mr. Hershey was a pioneer if not the first among American industrialists to make bonus payments to his employés. His counsel once stated the candy manufacturer preceded Henry Ford with this consideration. Quarterly dividends for his employés were said to run as high as 25 per cent of their wages.

The union remained unsatisfied, however, and, after the sitdown started, added a demand for a closed shop. When the company agreed not to reopen the plant during negotiations the union called strikers out of the factory, but they reëntered the building yesterday with negotiations still deadlocked.

Townsfolk Join Parade.

Almost all business in Hershey being paralyzed by the strike, many of the residents and folk from neighboring towns joined the crowd of farmers in the parade through the streets. The marchers cheered as they passed the home of Mr. Hershey, who looked down upon the demonstration from his quarters above the golf club house be built for the town.

Led by the drum corps of the American Legion, the procession moved to the huge sports arena built last fall by Hershey for the hocky team which recently won the eastern hocky league championship.

There the crowd waited, entertained by fancy skating while an ultimatum was sent to the strikers to evacuate the plant by 1 p. m. The order was delivered to the closed conference in which leaders of the nonstrikers, the union, and company executives sought to break the deadlock.

Speakers urged the crowd to go to the plant and see that the strikers left regardless of the result of the conference. Then a spokesman announced the strikers had consented to evacuate. Mixed jeers and cheers greeted the announcement and there were many good natured shouts of "let's go over there anyway."

Hear Report of Refusal.

As the crowd began to disperse, laughing, singing and shouting, Foster Wagner, spokesman for the strike opponents, rushed red-faced back from a telephone call and screamed: "Listen, everybody! Come on down to the factory." There were reports the strikers had refused to leave.

Quickly arming themselves with sticks from parade banners, horse whips, clubs or whatever they could find, the crowd moved on the factory. Its mood changed; the assemblage had now become a mob, its leaders ready to hurl the strikers out by main force.

Some of the strikers were reported to have jeered the vanguard of farmers and told them to "come in and get us." Others said they had little warning of what was coming until the crowd arrived. Whatever the strikers' expectations, the farmers lost no time in falling on the plant in grim determination and battering down the doors.

Several dozen young men and women strikers were on the roof of the plant, a favorite spot in the daylight. With no avenue of escape they were trapped and manhandled as they came down into the plant.

An injured striker, Benjamin F. Bishop of nearby Palmyra, described the battle scene while doctors attended his injuries.

"I've been with the company seven years and I never thought I'd live to see anything like it," he declared. "We weren't given a fair deal by those men who broke into the plant.

Had Planned to Leave.

"We wanted to leave the factory. We thought that was agreed on. We had intended to leave last night, then again this morning. Later it was understood we were to stay and that something would be done about it.

"Suddenly we heard some fellows shout 'Here they come.'"

John Loy, business manager of the Chocolate Workers' union, who was one of those injured, would talk only briefly in the hospital where his head was being swathed in bandages. He said, however, he had "no idea what our next move will be."

The Hershey corporation is a 20 million dollar enterprise which nets about 5 million a year, virtually all of which is poured into its founder's philanthropies in an around this "industrial Utopia."

Hershey a Poor Boy.

The town, which Mr. Hershey started in a cornfield 34 years ago, sprang from the dream of a man who knew how to make candy bars. He was born a poor boy in the township and now, 79 years old, after making many millions, he is once more without a personal fortune.

In 1923 he placed over 60 million dollars in a trust fund for the Hershey Orphans' school, so that now the nearly 1,000 boy inmates virtually own the town. The industrial school in connection with the orphanage occupies most of the aging industrialist's interest. There he and his wife, who had no children of their own, are "raising our boys as only proud and happy parents can."

Where Farmers Routed Sitdown Strikers

Farmers, mostly Pennsylvania Dutch, gathered from six sich agricultural counties around Hershey when striking workers of the chocolate company refused to leave the plant, thus paralyzing the farmers' market for milk. This region is one of the most prosperous farm centers in the United States. After hand to hand fighting the farmers succeeded in ousting the strikers.

CUTS AND BUMPS PREDOMINATE AT HERSHEY BATTLE

Hershey, Pa., April 7.—(AP)—Cuts and bruises predominated in the injuries received today at Hershey where hundreds of farmers drove sitdown strikers from the plant of the Hershey Chocolate corporation. John Lepperd of Swatara was stricken with a heart attack and Ralph Sponaugle of Hershey was stabbed in the abdomen with an ice pick.

Among those less seriously injured, were:

Warren A. Allen, Hershey, laceration on the head.

28 DAY STRIKE AT REO SETTLED BY GOV. MURPHY

Lansing, Mich., April 7.—[Special.]—Hard on the heels of the settlement last night of the big Chrysler automobile strike, Gov. Frank Murphy today announced an agreement in the 28 day old strike affecting 2,200 employés of the Reo Motor Car company.

The executive said the Reo settlement substantially follows the Chrysler truce and that sitters would evacuate the plant immediately.

The Chrysler agreement, after which the Reo settlement was patterned, provided for recognition of the union as the bargaining agency for its members, the union promising to refrain from supporting strikes or permitting its members in the plant to strike for one year.

The only remaining major strike in the automobile industry is the one affecting more than 10,000 employés of the Hudson Motor Car company at Detroit.

OHIO GOVERNOR'S OFFICE OCCUPIED BY HUNGER SQUAD

Relief Ends in Week as Legislature Wrangles.

Columbus, O., April 7.—(AP)—Approximately 30 men, headed by Ben Gray, Ohio leader of the Workers' Alliance, a WPA organization, occupied Gov. Martin L. Davey's office tonight after parading with signs appealing to the governor to see that they did not "starve."

The group asserted they intended to remain in the executive's office until their demands for "adequate relief" are met. A dozen women, one bearing a baby in her arms, joined the demonstrators.

Supper on Governor.

John M. Caren, the governor's secretary, said the governor would furnish their supper.

Ohio's relief provisions expire April 15. Future arrangements have been snagged in controversy between the governor and legislature.

Gov. Davey has ordered the National Guard to feed the needy from army kitchens after that date. Other officials have protested this move.

Push Benson Charges.

St. Paul, Minn., April 7.—[Special.]—Following assertions yesterday that Gov. Elmer A. Benson was "inciting people to riot," charges that the Farmer-Labor executive failed to perform his duties under the law to "quell and quiet the mob," were made in a resolution introduced today in the upper chamber of the Minnesota legislature. It will pass tomorrow.

The governor's part in encouraging the People's lobby which staged a sitdown Monday night in the senate chambers, was condemned as an "attempt to influence legislation by mob rule and violence."

Demand He Punish Violators.

Demands were made on the governor that he take steps to punish those who violated the law.

The resolution charged that 1,000 persons became a lawless mob, took charge of a tax committee meeting and threatened violence to senators unless they agreed to support measures on Gov. Benson's "must" tax program.

While there was no serious talk of impeachment, the report was current that the senate resolution was drafted deliberately as a possible basis for such action.

200 HOLD PLANT IN CATERPILLAR TRACTOR STRIKE

Peoria, Ill., April 7.—[Special.]—Some 200 sitdown strikers held the big plant of the Caterpillar Tractor company in East Peoria tonight following a strike which threw the concern's 11,500 workers into idleness.

The strike was called last night in an effort to obtain a written contract between the management and the Amalgamated Association of Iron, Steel, and Tin Workers of North America, a unit of the Committee for Industrial Organization.

M. BLOCK & SONS REOPENS UNDER A. F. L. CONTRACT

The M. Block and Sons factory, manufacturers of sheet metal cabinets, at 1024 West Van Buren street, was reopened yesterday after having been closed for more than three weeks because of a dispute over representation of employés between the American Federation of Labor and the Committee for Industrial Organization. Philip A. Weinstein, attorney for the company, said that all employés are now members of the A. F. of L. and that the plant reopened under an A. F. of L. contract.

SENATE SLAPS AT SIT STRIKES AND HITS EMPLOYERS

While Mr. Roosevelt Is Kept in Clear.

Senator McNary.

Washington, D. C., April 7.—[Special.]—By a vote of 75 to 3, the senate this afternoon condemned the sitdown strike as "illegal and contrary to sound public policy." The resolution adopted also condemns "the so-called industrial spy system" and employers who refuse to obey the Wagner labor relations act.

The resolution, sponsored by Majority Leader Joseph T. Robinson of Arkansas, thus administers two slaps to the employers and only one to the sitdown strikers, against whom the demands for congressional action were originally directed. Moreover, it is a concurrent resolution, which requires action by the house of representatives, but not by the President, so that Mr. Roosevelt will be relieved of the necessity of committing himself on the ticklish matter.

McNary Tries to Force Hand.

Senator Charles L. McNary of Oregon, the Republican leader, sought in vain to induce Senator Robinson to make it a joint resolution, which would require the signature of the President.

"I realize that this is simply a declaration of policy, but were it a joint resolution it would bring about not only the declaration of the congress but of the administration and the government as well," said Senator McNary. "It would have all the moral force that could be marshaled."

Senator Robinson made it quite clear that he was not going to put the President in the position of having to indicate his position on the sitdown strike by signing or refusing to sign a joint resolution. He offered the explanation that congress had the right to make a declaration of policy independent of any other authority.

No "Implication of Veto."

"I do not mean to imply that the President would veto a resolution such as has been proposed by the senator from Oregon," he said.

"Neither do I mean to say that the President would approve it. But since it is merely an expression of the policy of the congress it is not necessary to have it signed by the President."

The resolution adopted today was the result of a promise which Senator Robinson was forced to make Monday to southern senators to prevent the adding of an amendment condemning the sitdown strike to the Guffey coal bill, which the President must sign.

It was learned that Vice President Garner, Senator James F. Byrnes [D., S. C.], and other administration leaders in the senate opposed the form the resolution finally took and expressed amazement that Senator Robinson, representing the President, should be so reluctant to condemn the sitdown. The Vice President contemptuously referred to the Robinson proposal as a "coca cola resolution," the point being that he wanted something straight and with some power in it.

Borah Votes Against It.

Senator William E. Borah [R., Idaho] was one of the three senators who voted against the resolution. He had argued that sitdown strikes were local affairs over which congress has no jurisdiction.

The other two senators who voted against the measure were Lynn J. Frazier [Radical, N. D.] and Ernest Lundeen [Radical, Minn.], both being motivated, apparently, by their approval of the sitdown strike. Senator Frazier introduced into the record an article by Dean Leon Green of the Northwestern university law school holding that the sitdown strike is legal and declared that the word "illegal" should be stricken from the resolution.

During the debate on the resolution Senator Robert F. Wagner [D., N. Y.] argued that the "unfortunate strikes" in Michigan never would have occurred if the employers had obeyed the "collective bargaining" provisions of the Wagner act.

Senator Arthur H. Vandenberg [R., Mich.] voted for the resolution, but questioned the wisdom of asserting on the part of congress that it is "contrary to sound public policy" for employers to ignore a law which several Circuit Courts of Appeals have held unconstitutional and enjoined.

Governor in Tears

[Associated Press Wirephoto.]

Clyde Tingley of New Mexico forced to shed tears with relief strikers ousted by gas.

Santa Fé, N. M., April 7.—(AP)—Six persons, arrested after a sitdown siege of Gov. Clyde Tingley's office was broken up by a tear gas barrage, were granted jury trials late today by District Judge David Chavez Jr.

Judge Chavez fixed bonds at $1,000 each on charges of unlawful assembly and refusal to disperse.

Those held were leaders of about 30 members of the "Liga Obera," Spanish-American workers' organization. Gov. Tingley charged that the sitdown had been planned by communist organizers.

YOUNG FIDDLER'S RADIO HOPES END IN PHONE HOOKUP

Home Town Hears of Him by Long Distance.

Down in Cobb, Ky., the telephone interrupted supper last night in R. B. Hollowell's home. He's the mail carrier for rural route 1. R. B. said he'd be glad to go out on route 2 and tell Preston Perkins, who lives on it and carries its mail, that Chicago was calling. No trouble at all, he said—it wasn't much over a mile.

That's how Preston Perkins heard that his boy Douglas had wandered into the Palmer house lobby with his fiddle at 2:45 a. m. yesterday and said he was looking for a job fiddling for the radio, even if he had just turned 13. Douglas said he'd hitchhiked 400 miles to Chicago, and then he fiddled and sang.

Handy Folk, These Perkinses.

Well, Douglas' dad said he could hear long distance as plain as anything. He hadn't worried about Douglas, because the Perkinses can always take care of themselves, but Douglas' ma hadn't slept very well since he didn't come home from school last Monday afternoon. If Douglas could get a job on the radio, his dad said, that would be fine. If he couldn't, just let him know and he'd send the money for Douglas to come home.

Preston Perkins chuckled when he heard that Douglas had 75 cents more, from his fiddling, when he got to Chicago than when he started.

Douglas' dad didn't know his boy had taken his fiddle, and harmonica, and Jew's harp to school that day. Even so, if the team hadn't got mired down while he was delivering the mail, he'd have been to the school to carry Douglas home in time to keep him from running away.

Douglas Takes to It Natural.

Douglas always took to the fiddle, his dad said. It was three, maybe four years ago that Herb Hall, the colored boy, threw the fiddle away. It didn't have any strings on it. But Douglas' dad took it home and fixed it up, and Douglas learned to play it.

Well, sir, Douglas became just about the best fiddler in Caldwell county in less time than it takes to tell it. And they're good fiddlers around Cobb, too.

Douglas and his dad began going to the contests. They never thought a boy like that could carry off the $1 first prize, but he did—at Eddyville, Cadiz, and Princeton.

Fiddling Begins at Home.

Douglas always had time, though, to be in the family orchestra with his sisters: Nell, 10, who plays the trumpet, and Ruth, 16, who plays the piano. Thomas thought that at 19 he was too old for an orchestra, and Evelyn was too busy teaching at the Friendship Consolidated school. She's 21 now.

Cobb is a town of less than 100. Yes, Douglas' dad did believe it was named for Irvin S. Cobb's family. There are 300 boys and girls from Cobb and neighboring communities in the consolidated school. Douglas told every one of them to listen in, because he would be playing on the radio from Chicago. They're all listening, Douglas' dad said, every night, and they'd think it very strange that Douglas is sleeping in the Juvenile Detention home here when he should be fiddling.

SEARCHERS FIND WRECKED PLANE WITH EIGHT DEAD

McNary, Ariz., April 7.—(AP)—Weary searchers found only burned and broken bodies late today at the spot high in mountain wilds southeast of here where a luxurious skyliner crashed Saturday with eight aboard.

Bodies of Pilot Glen Moser and Co-Pilot Joe Wolfolk, half burned, were still strapped to their seats in the smashed and charred wreckage.

The other six bodies, all burned beyond recognition, were beneath the wreckage. The ship was en route from Burbank, Cal., to New York City.

Brother and Sister Die.

Pasco, Wash., April 7.—(AP)—Flying to the bedside of their sick father in Viola, Idaho, Spencer Gray, 42, Seattle attorney, and his sister, Mrs. Evans V. Buncker, 30, were killed when their airplane crashed today.

Army Airman Killed.

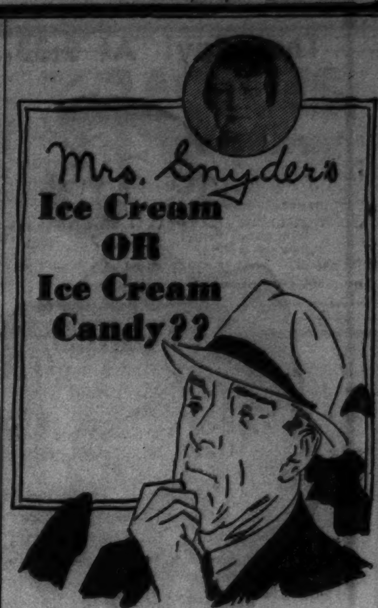
Galveston, Tex., April 7.—[Special.]—Second Lieutenant A. E. Livingston was reported killed today when an army plane towing a target for gunnery practice crashed into the Gulf of Mexico. Livingston, 29 years old, a reserve officer from Barksdale field, Louisiana, was flying alone.

Chicago Firms Fined for Ten Hour Labor Violaiton

Springfield, Ill., April 7.—(AP)—The labor department reported today the Gartner & Bender Co., and the National Tea company, both of Chicago, had been fined $100 and costs each on a charge of violating the ten-hour labor law.



"Which was it I was told to get I tell you I do not know. When I left the house I heard her say: Mrs. Snyder's Ice Cream . . . . and I wonder did she add Candy, too? I'll fool her good and make her smile, I'll have a quart of one and a pound of the other. I won't be wrong."

ITALY CHARGES FRENCH GENERAL GUIDES MADRID

ters, for the Gallant incident added to numerous others with rebels at sea and to British fear that other European nations may yet be dragged into the Spanish civil war.

Rebel warplanes, which apparently came from Mallorca, dropped fifteen bombs alongside the Gallant yesterday in two attacks off the eastern coast of Spain. They were finally driven away by the destroyer's anti-aircraft fire.

Hit Acts of German Warships.

A Spanish government charge that German warships were aiding rebel vessels off Spain and the reported sinking yesterday in the Bay of Biscay, of the Panama freighter Andra served to increase tension here.

The Almirante Cervera was blamed for the Andra's fate, at a time when the ship was leaving government held Santander after landing her cargo. The fate of the crew was lost in a thick fog which settled down over the bay.

Interference with the British freighter Thorpehall yesterday added also to British impatience. The Thorpehall first was molested in the Mediterranean, and again in the Bay of Biscay.

Send New Note to Franco.

The government dispatched a new note to Gen. Franco, reminding him that he had not yet replied to protests against bombing of the British destroyers Havock and Gipsy in February.

Meantime, Scandinavian foreign ministers agreed to meet at Helsingfors April 20 to consider what they regarded as a rebel threat to neutral shipping of any country. Norway has had many ships halted and searched. Holland already has placed warships in the Mediterranean.

FASCISTS SMASH LOYALIST LINES IN NORTH SPAIN

Field Strewn with 876 Dead After Battle.

Gen. Emilio Mola.

VITORIA, Spain, April 7.—(AP)—Fascist rebel troops battered through Basque loyalist lines on the mountainous northern front today in a fierce offensive still aimed at Durango, key city, sixteen miles south of Bilbao, important government held Biscayan port. "Terrific losses" were inflicted on government militiamen, a rebel communique said. Basques were caught between two rebel columns surrounding Amboto peak, highest barrier on the Durango front.

Rebels occupied heights commanding three mountain passes, Amboto, Barazar, and Urquiola, and reported they found 876 government dead in one sector, bringing Basque casualties to 10,000 since the drive began last week. Retreating Basques left great quantities of military equipment which, rebel reports said, included enough raincoats to clothe all rebels in the sector.

Air Fleet Bombards Lines.

Front line defenses of Bilbao were twice bombed by rebel air raiders, an attacking fleet that included twelve tri-motored bombers and two dozen combat planes. Loyalist lines were subjected to heavy artillery fire. Some captured government fighters wore the insignia of three Asturian battalions, indicating the Basque forces had received reinforcements from Asturias, to the west.

Positions captured by the rebels under Gen. Emilio Mola included the Basaguren and Urieta peaks as well as Ollargan hills and Sumeltza pass. Two government planes were reported shot down.

Advance on Cordoba Front.

MADRID, April 7.—(AP)—Government militia scored a smashing victory on the Cordoba front today, reports from the salient 170 miles southeast of Madrid indicated. The attack carried them to the heights of Mount Chimorra, part of the range rising above the Cordoba-Penarroya highway.

Government planes bolstered the offensive with an aerial attack on Villaharta, three and a half miles away, objective in the drive to cut rebel communications with the city of Cordoba and isolate 15,000 rebel troops north of the mountains.

Three hundred prisoners were reported taken in the first wave of attack. A government detail buried 400 rebel victims of the assault. Government reports said rebels were in flight from Villaharta, and that quantities of war supplies had been captured in the government advance, including three German made tanks.

Rebels Weaken Madrid Front.

For more than a week reports have been received that the rebel generalissimo, Francisco Franco, has been withdrawing troops from the Madrid sector to reinforce other fronts. Government officers said they found the rebel ranks near Madrid considerably thinned.

Madrid police, after a search of the private archives of a former cabinet member and monarchist leader, Calvo Sotelo, whose death was one of the events leading up to the civil war last July, arrested 15 persons whose names appeared in compromising letters.

JOYRIDING JURY IN SECOND TRIAL OF ZINTAK CITED

Contempt Hearing Set by Judge Epstein.

The twelve jurors who acquitted Frank V. Zintak, ousted clerk of the Superior court, at his second trial for embezzlement were cited on contempt of court charges yesterday for taking a joy ride and making a tour of taverns during the trial. The jurors were directed to appear April 16 before Judge Benjamin P. Epstein of the Criminal court, who is conducting an investigation of the second Zintak trial, over which he presided.

While Judge Epstein was issuing the contempt citations yesterday Robert W. McKinlay, federal court receiver, was pleading not guilty to indictments charging bribery of a juror and conspiracy to obstruct justice at the first Zintak trial. This jury disagreed after it had been deadlocked for 41 hours. McKinlay entered his pleas before Chief Justice Michael L. McKinley in the Criminal court, and the cases were transferred to Judge Rudolph Desort, who set the trial for April 19.

Removed Before Trial.

Zintak, veteran Democratic politician, was removed from the clerkship last September and was indicted for appropriating $26,500 of public funds. He was tried twice on a specific charge of embezzling $10,500.

Testimony of the joy ride and tavern trip on the night of Jan. 30—while the jury was supposed to be locked up—was given last week before Judge Epstein. Three deputy sherifs who were in charge of the jury during the night of fun have been discharged by Sherif John Toman.

Attachments for contempt of court against two of these deputies, Edward Cohen and Harry Kirsch, were issued yesterday. They were allowed to sign individual bonds and the cases were continued to April 16. The third deputy, Daniel Miller, will also appear on that date under an attachment.

Rises to Deny Guilt.

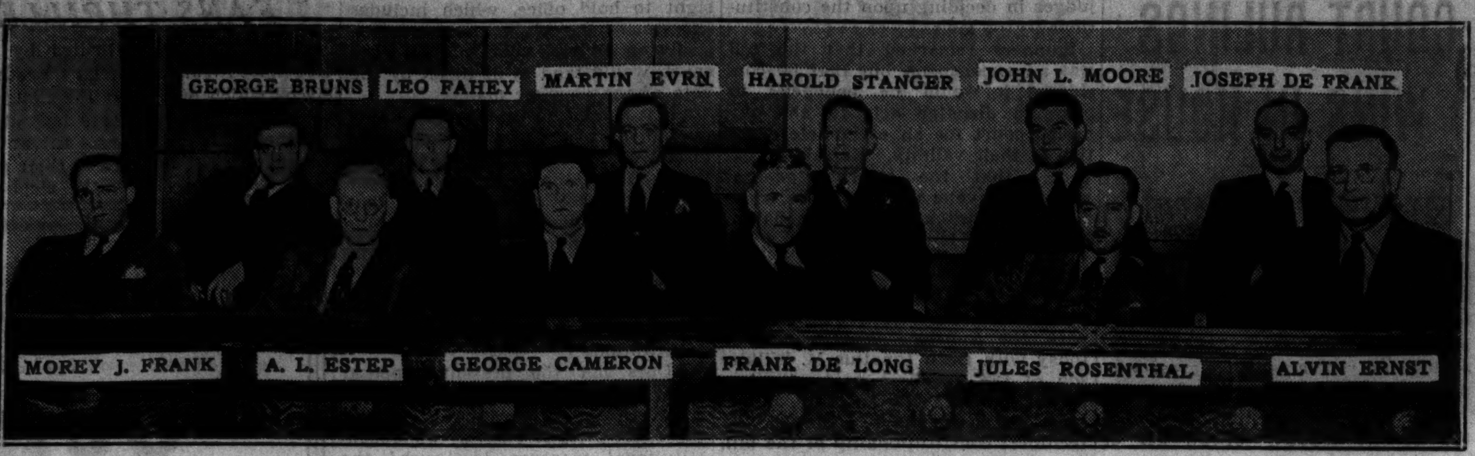
McKinlay is charged in the indictments with offering a four year political job at $2,500 a year to Gustave Anderson, 58 years old, 330 West 58th street, a juror at the first Zintak trial, which was held before Judge Robert C. O'Connell. Anderson testified he took a $25 bribe from McKinlay to hold out for a verdict of not guilty at the trial.

When McKinlay was arraigned yesterday before Chief Justice McKinley he rose on tiptoe and shouted his not guilty pleas. Judge McKinley at first assigned the case to Judge O'Connell. This was objected to by McKinlay's lawyer, Benedict Short, because Judge O'Connell had presided at the original trial. The case was then transferred to Judge Desort. McKinlay is at liberty on $5,000 bond.

Jurors Who Freed Zintak in Second Trial Are Cited for Contempt



The twelve men who freed the ousted clerk of the Superior court in his second trial for embezzlement. They were named in citation by Judge Epstein yesterday. He set April 16 as the date for their hearing. The charges grew out of the jurors' joyride and tavern tour during the trial.

WOUNDED POLICE SHOOT AND SEIZE FUGITIVE ROBBER

Policemen Robert McKee and Richard Nevell of the Englewood station were wounded in a pistol battle with a Negro robber, Laverne Walker, 19 years old, 231 East Garfield boulevard, early yesterday, but they captured the bandit after shooting him twice. All three were taken to St. Bernard's hospital, where it was said none would die.

Policeman McKee was wounded in the upper part of the chest and in his right hand. Nevell was shot in the right arm. The policemen shot Walker in the right leg and chest.

Walker, a parolee, had just held up Elmer Stonehouse of 9553 South Hamilton avenue at 63d and State street. They took his car and wrist watch. Policemen McKee and Nevell came upon Walker in front of 351 West 57th street.

Girl, 10, Found After 3 Day Flight, Disappears Again

Ex-Missionary to Japan Found Hanged to Car

Philadelphia, Pa., April 7.—(AP)—The body of Dr. Harvey Brokaw, 67 years old, former Presbyterian missionary in Japan, was found hanging today from the brake wheel of a freight car in the Reading railroad yards. He disappeared yesterday from a private hospital where he had been a patient.

EX-GOV. LOWDEN AND MOLEY LASH COURT SCHEME

some of the powers he has sought, placed in other hands than his, might 'provide shackles for the liberties of our people,'" said Mr. Lowden. "That is the very reason why, under the American system, such powers were not granted even to the best of men."

Moley Assails Type of Plan.

While he exhibited many of the same misgivings voiced by Mr. Lowden as to the results of the President's plan, if enacted, Dr. Moley attacked in particular the assertion that the plan is the best that can be accomplished because it is impossible to obtain agreement and speedy action on constitutional amendments which would prevent invalidation of some of the President's proposals.

The speaker suggested three points which he believed ought to be covered by such a group of amendments. The first and most important of his suggestions was a limitation upon the present power of the Supreme court to use the due process clauses of the fifth and fourteenth amendments to thwart genuine efforts by the national and state governments to stabilize economic life.

The guarantees of due process of law were originally intended to apply only to the methods and procedure by which laws were enforced, not to the substance of the laws, Dr. Moley asserted.

Urges Majority Rule Change.

A second amendment, he said, might well impose on the Supreme court a greater obligation to give weight to the assumption that by passing and signing a law, congress and the executive believed it to be constitutional. The only way in which such a restriction might be enforced on the court, he believes, is by the requirement of more than a simple majority of the court to declare an act of congress unconstitutional.

The third amendment which he suggested was one to set a retirement age for Supreme court justices. Such a limit, he added, should not apply to the present membership of the court.

"Packing Is Pushing"

(Story in adjoining column.)

[Associated Press Wirephoto.]

Dean Ignatius Wilkinson of Fordham law school intimated the "court pushing" plan is unconstitutional at committee hearing.

BILL TO SPEED COURT RULINGS WINS IN HOUSE

BY WILLARD EDWARDS.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., April 7.—[Special.]—Labeled by its sponsors frankly as an experiment in court reform, a bill designed to speed Supreme court decisions on the constitutionality of acts of congress was passed today by the house, 122 to 14.

The bill provides that whenever the constitutionality of an act of congress is drawn in question in any suit in a federal court, the attorney general is permitted to appear and present arguments on behalf of the government. The attorney general is given the same rights as a party in the suit.

The measure contains a major phase of the court program outlined by President Roosevelt in his message to congress which was featured by his proposal to add judges of New Deal sympathies to the Supreme court.

Bill Once Withdrawn.

But the President was averse to dealing with his suggestions one by one and the action of the house today was contrary to White House strategy. When the bill, introduced by Chairman Hatton W. Sumners [D. Tex.], of the house judiciary committee, was first brought up some weeks ago, it was suddenly withdrawn following a message from the White House.

Just as suddenly it was popped back into the chamber today by Sumners and promptly approved after two hours of somewhat desultory debate. Similar action by the senate will remove another of Mr. Roosevelt's objections to present court procedure and pave the way for concentration of all discussion upon the "pack the court" proposition alone.

If the lower court determines that a statute is not constitutional, the attorney general, in his discretion, may appeal directly to the Supreme court from the decision. Such an appeal shall have precedence over other cases in the Supreme court.

Value Is Questioned.

The measure was mildly attacked as giving a distinct benefit to one litigant in the case who would have the weight of the department of justice behind him. Representative Eugene E. Cox [D., Ga.], an opponent of the President's court plan, questioned whether the measure would aid judges in deciding upon the constitutionality of laws.

Sumners remarked that the bill was an experiment, but that he considered it would be beneficial in bringing disputed acts to the Supreme court for an early determination of their validity. He said he expected that the attorney general would intervene only in cases when the constitutionality of legislation was a major issue.

Law Dean Assails Packing.

The senate judiciary committee's hearing on the President's proposal to pack the Supreme court continued today with Dean Ignatius M. Wilkinson of the Fordham university law school assailing the measure. While most witnesses have conceded the technical constitutionality of the bill, Dean Wilkinson said it was not free from doubt on this score.

"It is an enlargement on a condition, and a condition which colors and characterizes and gives definite purpose to the whole plan. In other words, it is enlargement unless. . . . The opportunity is given the justice over 70 to retire, and it may be said that such a retirement is voluntary in a certain sense. However, the condition provided for continuance on the court is the appointment of a younger justice to sit with the older man during his service on the court thereafter.

Refers to Glass Attack.

"Senator Glass has referred to the new justices who would be appointed under the plan, as 'wet nurses.' Whether there be agreement in this characterization or not, it seems that it is an apt expression to epitomize the relationship between the new and the old justices. It seems clear, therefore, that fundamentally the operation of the plan aims to work an ouster by making uncomfortable, if not vexatious, the continuance on the Supreme court of justices who—let it always be borne in mind—under the constitution are given life tenure conditioned only upon good behavior.

"On the other hand if a justice over 70 elects to remain on the bench, his right to hold office, which includes necessarily the right to vote effectively on matters coming before the court, would tend to be offset by the vote of the younger man.

"It is submitted that congress may not do indirectly what it cannot do directly. If congress were to attempt to make the life tenure of justices so disagreeable and vexatious that any independent, honorable judge would be compelled as a practical matter in fairness to himself to retire or resign, I submit that such a measure would conflict with the provisions of the judiciary article of the constitution.

"Does not the present proposal tend in that direction? Is the plan a constitutional attempt to 'pack' the court or is it possibly an unconstitutional measure to 'push' the older justices of the Supreme court into retirement? Is the constitutional guarantee of life tenure to be deemed alone invaded by an express enactment compelling a judge to retire at 70? May it not be accomplished also by an indirect and concealed program?"

SEASON'S FIRST CIRCUS OPENS; FANS THRILLED

Circus fans were thrilled by the Hagenbeck-Wallace Sells Brothers circus which opened at the Coliseum in South Wabash avenue last night. All the old favorites were there: the beautiful white horses and their even more beautiful riders, the elephants and the lions, the man on the flying trapeze, the trained seals, the cowboys, and the clowns.

Chorus girls in the best Randolph street fashion did come as a bit of a surprise in this first circus of the season. And there was a Gypsy Rose Lee touch to an occasional act, apparently induced by the competition of the screen and the stage.

CITY IS STATE'S RIVAL FOR PHONE REFUND RESIDUE

Company Also May Enter Fight for $2,000,000.

City and state became rivals yesterday to obtain a fund of nearly $2,000,000, the amount which is unclaimed from the $20,000,000 refund which the Illinois Bell Telephone company was ordered to repay to subscribers three years ago by the United States Supreme court.

Mayor Kelly yesterday declared he would take steps to have the $2,000,000 paid into the treasury of the City of Chicago. He learned that Gov. Horner is back of a bill in the legislature which would have the $2,000,000 paid into the treasury of the State of Illinois.

Phone Concern May Enter Claim.

And W. C. Jones, attorney for the telephone company, left yesterday for Springfield to state the company's position in reference to the money. The company is considered as a possible third claimant. A hearing is scheduled for today before the judiciary committee of the house of representatives.

Mayor Kelly feels that the city is entitled to the money because all of it came from the pockets of Chicago citizens as a result of illegal charges made by the telephone company. The mayor said he could see no reason why the citizens of Cairo, Springfield, Kewanee, or Rockford should benefit financially because Chicagoans have failed to claim their money, as these cities would do if the money goes to the state.

Furthermore, the city of Chicago financed ten years of litigation which ended with the ruling in 1934 by the high court that the excess collections must be refunded to subscribers. When the lawsuit was finally won by the city, through its special counsel, Attorneys Benjamin F. Goldstein and George I. Haight, the accumulated excess collections, with interest, amounted to approximately $20,000,000.

Ordered to Advertise.

In June, 1934, the company began paying this money back to subscribers. Under a federal court order the company was required to advertise that the money was available to those who had paid the excess charges.

In a court report filed a few days ago the company stated it had refunded $16,815,063 and that a total of $1,979,829 remained unclaimed on that date.

The dog dashed immediatey to a space beneath the back porch where the boy was found asleep. James said he stayed away from home on Tuesday night for fear of punishment for losing his coat.

New York Lawyer Killed by Blast in Apartments

New York, April 7.—[Special.]—Samuel Witllin, 38 years old, a lawyer, was killed today by an explosion of gas in his apartment on the eleventh floor of an 18 story building just off Grammercy square. The fire department began an investigation. Among those listed as living in the apartment house are Judge William T. Keleher, Tommy A. Bissell, David Dubinsky, and William Baruch.

LARRY O'BRIEN IN A SAD STATE, WITH GESTURES

Earns $40 a Week as a Waiter; He's Unhappy.

Lawrence C. O'Brien, once a power in near north side Democratic politics, now works as a waiter, helps serve 25 cent meals, earns $40 a week, and is pretty unhappy about it. He is so unhappy, he explained yesterday, that he is about ready for the lake.

The white haired, florid jowled O'Brien did his explaining with shouts and gestures in the Superior court of Judge Donald S. McKinlay, where his wife, Mrs. Irene Loftus O'Brien, is demanding that he pay $1,000 he owes on a $65 a week support order for herself and their three children. The court, at previous hearings of the case has been treated to similar recitals of O'Brien's claims of poverty.

Bending Under His Load.

"They'll get no more money out of me," he orated yesterday. "I'll go to jail first. Why, I'm humpbacked from the load. No kidding, judge."

"If I were as excitable as you," remarked Judge McKinlay, "I'd send you to jail. You don't give any one else a chance to talk."

"Maybe you'd better, judge," replied O'Brien gloomily. "I'd be better off. I'm pretty near ready for the lake. This alimony is just a shake. What's better, the lake or jail?"

$40 a Week Is All, He Says.

O'Brien took up the matter of his wife's charges that he owns six taverns, a trucking company, and a beer depot.

"It's ridiculous about the taverns," he said. "I only work for the Gold Coast concessions, which owns them. I never tapped any of their tills as they say I do. All I get is my $40 a week.

"Why, we serve 25 cents meals and I wait table."

"I pay out $100 for this, and $100 for that, and doctors' bills, and school bills, and what not. Where the hell do I come in?"

O'Brien shouted down his own attorney, Harold Berger, to get out the last sentence.

Judge McKinlay suggested that O'Brien's remarks were becoming a bit tiresome. He refused O'Brien's offer to come and see how a tavern is run, selling nickel beer.

Attorney Berger ventured to interject that there had been some talk of a reconciliation.

"I don't want a reconciliation," roared O'Brien. "I've had enough."

Judge McKinlay indicated that he also had had enough for one day. He ordered that the case be set for hearing on the contested calendar, and continued the alimony hearing until that time.

RUSSIA FORCES 'WHITE COLLAR' MEN INTO MINES

MOSCOW, April 7.—(AP)—The government acted today to speed up production in the Donbas coal mining industry by ordering 400 office workers and technicians transferred to jobs in the mines.

The transfer is designed to end the lag in output, which has reached alarming proportions. An investigation showed that 60 per cent of hundreds of engineers sent to Donbas in 1933 had drifted out of the mines to surface and office jobs.

It also was disclosed that one mine of the Kiro coal trust had forty-five engineers, but only six men working in the pits. In another, thirty-one of ninety-seven technicians were on production jobs, the rest sitting behind desks.

MISTRIAL ENDS SUIT AGAINST HENRY G. HART

Judge Martin Gridley of the Superior court yesterday declared a mistrial in the $50,000 suit against Henry G. Hart, a State street store executive, and his wife, Selma A. Hart of Glencoe.

Judge Gridley acted after Mrs. Stella Reynolds Powers, 40 years old, a former actress, became excited on the witness stand and attempted to give testimony not pertinent to the trial. Mrs. Powers and her sister, Miss Mary K. Reynolds, both of 330 South California avenue, charged the Harts with fraud in the sale of a house at 525 Sheridan road, Glencoe.

Moving Forward

Marshall Field & Company presents here each day observations and opinions intended to be of interest and value to those it seeks to serve.

OUT OF THE EARTH

By CALEB

AS children of the earth, we pay too little homage to Mother Nature. The budding trees, the pale green shoots beneath our feet, and our greening lawns are out of the earth. These obvious products of the mysterious movements of nature we see—and accept.

But the fact that out of the earth comes everything about us, we rarely pause to appreciate. There was planted within and on our planet before we came, the antecedents of all our sustenance. First, beast ate beast, and at the base of this progressive economy of consumption were gentle creatures sustained by the fruits and waters of the earth.

Then came one of the greatest boons of all time. Men learned to till the soil, and the hunter found the agriculturist at his side. Next, the earth yielded up metals—and men lifted themselves to a higher plane of existence.

Rapidly, with a gathering momentum that has become wellnigh too great for our social and cultural welfare, the earth yielded up more and more contributions to our man-made economy. Coal made possible our great industrial revolution. Belts and pulleys replaced straining backs and weary muscles. Steam remade the world.

Next, the thick, offensive substance which oozed from the earth and contaminated the Kentucky and Pennsylvania waters on which it floated came to be known as oil. And in a few years, it became a golden harvest for mankind. It put the nation on wheels, and made many new industries possible.

What you wear, what you eat, what you sit upon, what you play with, what you work with—came from the earth.

If you walk through our store, and trace back to its veriest origin each thing that arrests your attention, you will find nature's contributions made it, or made it possible. Pause before any display and ponder that fact. It is small wonder that instinctively we turn gratefully earthward in the spring. Then we are conscious of the mysterious silent movements of nature in her secret processes of gestation.

VOTE FOR HOUSE GROUP TO STUDY LAKE POLLUTION

Step Taken After Kerner Reports on Survey.

BY STANLEY ARMSTRONG.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Springfield, Ill., April 7.—[Special.]—A further step in Chicago's fight to stop the discharge of sewage and industrial wastes into the southern end of Lake Michigan was taken today when the Illinois house authorized the appointment of an investigating committee to be composed of five house members.

Appointment of the committee was requested by Representative Elmer J. Schnackenberg of Chicago, Republican minority leader, after Attorney General Otto Kerner had reported to the house on the survey he had undertaken for it to determine the feasibility of proceeding in federal court to restrain Indiana cities and industries from polluting the lake.

Progress Already Made.

Mr. Kerner advised the house that when he started his survey in 1933 Illinois could not go into court with "clean hands" inasmuch as a number of Illinois industries were discharging wastes into the Calumet and Little Calumet rivers. While those rivers now flow away from the lake, they may be reversed by freshets after Dec. 31, 1938, when the diversion of water from the lake is to be materially reduced, he reported.

Since 1933, Mr. Kerner's report continues, considerable time has been spent in correcting the conditions on the Illinois side of Lake Michigan so at present there is little or no discharge of industrial wastes into those rivers. With the completion of the Chicago sanitary district's construction program, the major Illinois sources of pollution will be abated.

Calls for Prompt Action.

"But if the Illinois pollution has not been entirely eliminated and it hampers us now in proceeding to restrain Indiana cities and factories from dumping waste into Chicago's drinking water, we should have more specific a remedy," Mr. Schnackenberg said. "I move the appointment of a committee with instructions to investigate this phase of the subject immediately and report back at the earliest possible moment."

The attorney general's conclusion on his four year study of the water pollution problem is that more can be done by joint coöperative conferences between the states than by court action. He is convinced, he reported, that Indiana officials are "just as keenly desirous of correcting the situation as are we of Illinois."

CITY MANAGER BILLS LOSE IN COMMITTEE VOTE

Springfield, Ill., April 7.—[Special.]—By a vote of 13 to 12, the Illinois house committee on municipalities late today recommended the defeat of bills permitting cities in Illinois to adopt the city manager form of government. Representative Drennan J. Slater [R., Evanston], one of the sponsors of the bills, said the fight for them would be taken to the house floor tomorrow with a motion that the house not concur in the committee recommendation.

"Other cities have gone outside their boundaries for city managers," said Representative Arthur J. Quinn [D., Chicago] to Robert Garrigan, executive secretary of the Chicago City club, a sponsor of the bills, during the debate. "Do you think we in Chicago should do that?"

"If it would be possible to get President Roosevelt, wouldn't you want to get your manager elsewhere?'' replied Garrigan.

"No, I wouldn't," Quinn retorted without any hesitation. "There is no one who can hold a candle to the man we have in the mayoralty chair now [Edward J. Kelly]."

ILLINOIS SENATE REJECTS CUT IN PARK LEVY BILL

Turns Down House Slash to $7,600,000.

BY PERCY WOOD.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Springfield, Ill., April 7.—[Special.]—The state senate early tonight refused to concur in the house amendment reducing the Chicago park district's pegged levy bill from $9,000,000 to $7,600,000. Attempts now will be made, if the house stands pat for the cut, to iron out in a conference committee a compromise somewhere between the two figures.

Senator Harold G. Ward, Chicago Democratic leader, moved to nonconcur when the bill came to the upper chamber after passage by the house by a vote of 130 to 0 earlier today. The senate approved the measure at $9,000,000 and Ward insisted that this is the rockbottom figure with which the park district can continue its public services. Gov. Henry Horner's opposition caused the reduction.

Warns of Relief Burden.

Ward also declared that a reduction of the levy would result in 20,000 WPA workers now employed on park projects being put back on relief and therefore an added burden on the state.

Senator Robert M. Harper [D., Moline] moved to table Ward's motion to nonconcur but was defeated on a viva voce vote.

Gov. Horner has been quoted as saying he would veto any bill permitting the parks to spend more than $7,600,000 a year. Whether he would exercise this power on a bill calling for, say, a "peg" of $8,000,000 remains to be seen.

Chicago Democrats, who seem to control the senate through an alliance with Republican leaders, resent the governor's insistence upon a slash for the park bill and a further amendment limiting the "peg" to 1937 and 1938.

During passage roll call the house was treated to a show of personalities unequaled so far this session—and from two favorite debaters, Democratic Leader Benjamin S. Adamowski and Republican Leader Elmer J. Schnackenberg, both of Chicago.

COUNCIL MOVES TOWARD QUIZ ON HOUSING ISSUES

The city council yesterday took action toward investigating rising rents, a threatened housing shortage, tax collections from government housing projects, and allied subjects. Several hundred renters, many or them indigent, crowded the council chambers during the meeting.

At the suggestion of Ald. William A. Rowan [10th], Mayor Kelly appointed a permanent committee to determine what service charges, in lieu of taxes, will be made on three tax exempt government housing projects. Ald. John E. Egan [13th] was named chairman. This committee will meet at 10:30 a. m. today.

The committee on rules also was instructed to appoint a housing committee. This group will go into the questions of a housing shortage, will consider a plan to stimulate building and create employment by granting a real estate tax moratorium for five years on all new dwellings except hotels, and the problem of rising rents.

U. of C. Opens 4 Year Course for High School Juniors

Opening the way for pupils to enter the University of Chicago when they complete their second year in high school, the university senate yesterday approved a new four year course composed of the last two years of high school and the first two years of college work. The plan, backed by President Hutchins, will go into effect next fall. Twenty scholarships will be offered this spring to students now in their second year of high school. After completing the new four year course pupils will be given certificates similar to diplomas, after which they may continue work toward bachelor's degrees.

Mayor Kelly Appoints Dr. Frigard to Plan Board

Mayor Edward J. Kelly yesterday appointed Dr. John R. Frigard, 35 East Wacker drive, as a member of the Chicago plan commission. The mayor said Dr. Frigard's appointment was recommended by Col. A. A. Sprague.

LAYER-CAKE HEAT CAUSES COLDS
When your furnace starts and stops suddenly the heat in your rooms forms in layers. The hot air rises to the ceiling, warm air forms the center layer, and the lower third of the room is cold and drafty. Layer-cake heat makes it easy to catch and keep a cold.

COAL OR COKE GIVES STEADY, EVEN HEAT
A coal or coke fire circulates heat continuously. Even when you check the fire there's always some heat pouring into your rooms to keep the lower third from chilling off and becoming dangerously cold and drafty. And the price of coal or coke is so low, compared to other fuels, you can afford lots of heat.

Layer-Cake Heat is the result of the fire starting and stopping suddenly. It sends heat to your rooms for a few minutes, then shuts off abruptly. # MITCHELL LYNCH BILL IS TURNED DOWN BY HOUSE

Chicago Negro Charges He Was Betrayed.

Washington, D. C., April 7.—[Special.]—With Representative Arthur Mitchell [D., Ill.], only colored congressman, crying that he had been double-crossed by his Democratic colleagues, the house today, by a decisive vote, refused to consider a bill he introduced making lynching a federal offense and subject to heavy penalties.

So irate was Mitchell over the "deception" which he said had been practiced upon him that he told a brother Democrat in the cloakroom after the vote to "go to hell."

"Will Back" Stronger One.

However, many representatives, especially those on the Republican side who voted almost solidly against consideration of the measure, asserted that their vote was to be interpreted as a repudiation of the bill only because it was too mild in its terms. They asserted they would vote for another bill, more severe than the Mitchell bill, sponsored by Representative Joseph Gavagan [D., N. Y.], which will be brought up next Monday.

A combination of 172 Democrats, 74 Republicans, 7 Progressives, and 4 Farmer-Laborites defeated consideration of the Mitchell bill. In favor were 114 Democrats, 7 Republicans, and 1 Farmer-Laborite.

Scenes of some disorder accompanied the voting, and Speaker William B. Bankhead frequently called upon the sergeants at arms in a futile attempt to preserve decorum.

Fish Conducts Filibuster.

A filibuster conducted by Representative Hamilton Fish [R., N. Y.] preceded the vote on consideration of the Mitchell bill which had been reported upon favorably by the house judiciary committee.

By demanding quorum counts and raising various technical points of order, Fish delayed action until he finally requested the vote on consideration of the measure which resulted in tabling it.

When Representative J. Burwood Daly [D., Pa.] approached Mitchell, the latter refused to talk with him.

"I thought you were a gentleman!" remarked Daly, sharply.

"You can go to hell!" responded Mitchell.

The Mitchell bill provided that any state official who surrendered a prisoner to a mob which lynched the prisoner should be considered guilty of a felony and subject to a maximum fine of $5,000 or maximum imprisonment of five years or both.

At the county jail Miss Carlton attacked Sherif Fred Smith with her slipper and smashed some furniture. She was removed to a cell in city jail. Milligan and Miss Carlton were taken to Elgin later, where charges of leaving the scene of an accident were preferred against them.

In the wrestlers' car were Fred Kohler, 1715 Bryn Mawr avenue, Chicago, wrestler; Promoter Kear; Molihan, wrestling referee, and Jerry Meeker, George Mansor and Oki Shikina, all wrestlers. Meeker suffered a wrenched shoulder.

SLASHES WRISTS AFTER SINGER'S SUIT FOR DIVORCE

Less than twenty-four hours after he was sued for divorce Gerd M. De Longue slashed his wrists with a razor blade yesterday in his room at a downtown hotel. He was taken to the Presbyterian hospital, where physicians said he would recover. The divorce suit was brought by Mrs. Perle Louise De Longue of 7315 Clyde avenue, a radio singer. Samuel A. Ettelson, Mrs. De Longue's attorney, said De Longue is the son of a French count and was formerly assistant manager of the Chicago club. De Longue, who is 45, said at the hospital that he could not endure the thought of a divorce.

FAVOR 5 BILLS FOR OVERHAULING PAROLE SYSTEM

Chicagoans Appear Before Judiciary Committee.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Springfield, Ill., April 7.—[Special.]—Passage of a series of five bills designed to overhaul the parole machinery of Illinois today was advocated before the house judiciary committee by a group of Chicago judges and lawyers, headed by Frank J. Loesch, president of the crime commission.

Four of the measures already have passed the senate and, although the house committee postponed a vote on them until next Tuesday, sentiment among the members appeared to favor passage.

In brief, the series provides for the fixing of determinate sentences by the trial court; restriction of the parole board from reviewing findings of fact and the evidence in the trial court; open sessions of the parole board; permission to the board to examine prospective employers and sponsors of parolees, and the segregation of criminals convicted of sex crimes.

Would Make Law More Effective.

"These bills," said Mr. Loesch, who headed the drafting committee, "do not attempt to change the present law in any drastic sense, but rather to make the law more effective by the enactment of amendments which fill gaps in the present law. Their purpose is within the structure of the present parole administration to make more uniform the treatment of prisoners with respect to sentence and parole consideration and supervision."

"We do not say that these bills will cure crime, but they are a progressive step," added Judge Robert C. O'Connell of the Circuit court of Cook county, who aided in drafting the measures.

"The state believes their passage will be a helpful addition to the law," seconded Assistant State's Attorney Emmett H. Moynihan of Cook county.

Defense Agrees, Too.

"And so does the defense," agreed Public Defender Benjamin Bachrach.

Attorney Wendell Green, widely known colored lawyer, and Attorney Louis Geiman added their approval, and Judge John Prystalski of the Circuit court came forward as the last of the proponents to answer questions put by the legislators.

In opposition to the first bill were five Chicagoans speaking for the citizens' committee on parole. Their position is that abolition of the indeterminate sentence would permit a trial court to, for example, set a minimum sentence of eight years and a maximum of eight years and one day.

"Why legislate through hysteria?" demanded Father Ralph Gallagher of the school of social work, Loyola university. "We ask you to stop and consider before you pass this unthought legislation."

Aligned with him were Prof. E. W. Burgess of the University of Chicago; E. W. Puttkammer, president of the Chicago Academy of Criminology; F. Emory Lyon of the Central Howard association, and Mrs. Sarah B. Schaar of the Chicago Council of Social Agencies.

FACES LIE TEST

[TRIBUNE Photo.]

Mrs. Helen Clark arriving in Chicago to be questioned on the death of her husband.

Lie detector tests were given yesterday to Mrs. Helen Clark, 42 years old, of Rockford, at the Northwestern university crime detection laboratory. Her husband, Richard, 42 years old, a WPA worker, was shot to death in bed in his home in Rockford Tuesday night. A shotgun was alongside the body.

Mrs. Clark said she was in the rear of her home when she heard a shot and found her husband dead. Fred E. Imbau, who administered the lie detector tests, said they failed to indicate the truth or falsity of this story. Assistant State's Attorney Max Weston, who with Sherif Paul F. Johnson of Winnebago county brought Mrs. Clark to Chicago for the tests, said he believed it would have been impossible for Clark to have shot himself. They took her back to Rockford last night.

Mrs. Clark who is the mother of eight children by two previous marriages, had frequently complained about her husband's drinking, the prosecutor said, and she had had him arrested several times.

ALDERMEN FEEL LIKE GOLDFISH; VOTE PRIVACY

All but One Shy at Making Roll Call Public.

Chicago's aldermen may not be so badly overworked in the future. They voted yesterday to repeal the ordinance which required City Clerk Peter J. Brady to keep a record of their attendance at committee meetings and to make the record public at the end of each year.

The only aldermen of the 43 present at yesterday's meeting who seemed to have any zest for earning his $5,000 a year was James J. Cusack [5th]. His was the only vote against the repeal of the ordinance.

Cusack Shouts His No.

"I vote 'No' because the people of my ward are interested in the amount of work I do down here," Cusack shouted at his colleagues. "At the end of each year they can walk into the city clerk's office and find out whether or not I've been down here tending to business."

The face of Ald. Thomas J. Terrell [29th] flushed beneath a heavy coat of tan acquired on a recent fishing trip to Florida. So did Ald. J. M. Arvey [24th], chairman of the committee on committees and introducer of the repealer, who finished up the duties of 1936 with a trip to the Caribbean.

Unfair! Says Ald. Arvey.

"The ordinance is unfair to the aldermen," Arvey said. "Some aldermen come down here on a day when two committees of which they are members are meeting at the same time and then the record shows they were absent from one of them." It was recalled, however, that it has not been the practice to mark an alderman absent when he attends one of two or more conflicting committee meetings.

The aldermen nodded sagely and voted to remove the basis for their annual report card. Cusack was asked to reconsider, but insisted upon having his "No" vote recorded.

Two Committee Changes.

Although the council was voting its regular biennial reorganization only two committee changes were recommended by Arvey's committee and approved by the council.

Ald. James J. McDermott [14th] was shifted to the committee on railway terminals in an effort to inject a little energy into the committee's efforts to get something done about Chicago's outmoded stations. Ald. Frank E. Konkowski [26th] was shifted from the terminals committee to McDermott's former place on the license committee.

DIES OF BURNS IN BLAST.

Dale Linsecott, 29 years old, of Creston, Ill., died yesterday in the Presbyterian hospital from burns incurred June 29 when a gasoline tank exploded near his home.

Kills Wife and Self

Auburn W. Herron. Mrs. Auburn Herron.
[Associated Press Photos.]

South Bend, Ind., April 7.—[Special.]—Several hours before they were to face charges of illegal possession and sale of liquor, Auburn Herron, 39 years old, killed his wife and died by inhaling gas in their six room apartment. The killing was believed to have been done yesterday afternoon or night and the suicide early this morning. Other tenants of the building, smelling gas this morning, called the police, who on entering the apartment stumbled over Herron's body, then found that of his wife under a bed.

Cuts on Mrs. Herron's head indicated she had been clubbed to death. Herron was the father of three children by a former wife.

The couple were to have appeared in City court this morning to face the liquor charges. They were arrested on March 23 and had been released on $1,000 bonds.

MAYOR TO GIVE U. S. NEW PLEA FOR TRANSIT AID

Resume Talks Tomorrow on Proposed Projects.

BY WILLIAM BROMAGE.

Howard O. Hunter.

Discussions between Mayor Kelly and federal relief officials as to the amount of federal funds which Chicago may be able to get for modernization of transportation facilities will be resumed here tomorrow.

Howard O. Hunter, assistant Works Progress administrator in charge of the Chicago office, who returned yesterday from Washington, where he conferred with Administrator Harry L. Hopkins, said he would discuss with Mayor Kelly the possibilities of granting aid for transit improvements.

Mayor Kelly made a personal appeal two months ago to President Roosevelt for 40 million dollars to help pay for a proposed downtown subway and an elevated superhighway from the loop to the west side, two of the major projects in the mayor's program for transit rehabilitation.

Estimate Cost at 80 Million.

The subway and elevated highway, it is estimated, would cost in the neighborhood of 80 million dollars. Part of the cost of the improvements would come from the city traction fund. A substantial amount—probably in excess of 25 million dollars—could be realized from the traction fund for the work.

Hunter said tomorrow's conference would be preliminary and that no official application has been made yet for government aid. He said he would seek to determine which federal agency would be in the best position to give whatever assistance might be agreed upon.

Mayor Kelly has been informed that the extent to which relief labor could be employed would be an important factor in determining aid.

Called Likely PWA Project.

Informed sources say that any substantial assistance approaching the 40 million dollar request would fall into the classification of a PWA project rather than the WPA.

The PWA gives aid chiefly on projects of a capital improvement nature.

Transit experts are discussing the possibility of a government loan for the proposed improvements. Such a loan would be predicated on the assumption that tolls would be charged public carriers—buses or rail vehicles—using the improvements in an amount sufficient to make the loan self-liquidating over a period of years.

THE MASSACRE

Chicago's 1937 Trafic Toll

More than 98% of the city's automobile fatalities are of a nature physically impossible on an elevated highway.

N. MEXICO AUTO CRASH INJURES 2 CHICAGO WOMEN

Mrs. J. F. Martin, 62 years old, 5232 Harrison streets, whose husband is head of a cartage company at 712 South Racine avenue, was critically injured yesterday when the automobile in which she was returning to Chicago from Los Angeles overturned near Tucumcari, N. M. Her daughter, Mrs. Richard B. Martin, 26 years old, of the same address, was less seriously injured.

Arthur Doody, 39 years old, 5336 Madison street, was absolved by a coroner's jury in Hinsdale yesterday in the death of Fred Hogrewe, 38 years old, a farm laborer living on route 1, Hinsdale. Doody's automobile killed Hogrewe in Joliet road near Cass avenue in Downers Grove. Doody testified Hogrewe stepped in front of his machine.

From Jan. 1 to 4 p. m. yesterday motor vehicles killed 281 persons in Cook county, the coroner's office reported. Chicago was the scene of 224 of the deaths, and 5,224 injuries in the same period.

ILLINOIS DRIVERS' LICENSE MEASURE TO BE REDRAFTED

Springfield, Ill., April 7.—[Special.]—The drivers' license bill was sheltered from a rain of proposed amendments today by being referred to the house appropriations committee. The chairman, Representative James P. Boyle [D., Chicago], said that the safety measure will be redrafted before it is returned to floor of the house.

"Any one can see that the bill cannot pass in its present form," said Mr. Boyle. "With sixty-four members, this committee represents all of the varying opinions on a drivers' license, and I believe that amendments can make the bill acceptable to a majority of the assemblymen."

Committee hearings on the drivers' license will be postponed for at least two weeks. Proposed amendments include the following: reduction of the fee; elimination of the appointment of a corps of examiners, and transfer of suspension powers from the administrative officer to the courts.

ASK COUNCIL QUIZ ON TAXIS' PART IN LOOP CONGESTION

A demand for a council investigation of congestion in the loop because of parked and cruising taxicabs was introduced at yesterday's meeting of the city council by Ald. James J. Cusack [5th] and Ald. John F. Healy [6th]. The resolution was referred to the committee on transportation.

Leslie J. Sorenson, city trafic engineer, yesterday issued his survey of trafic conditions in the loop with cabs off the street during the recent strike compared with normal conditions. The report showed that trafic was slowed as much as 41 per cent by cabs on some streets. Sorenson said the only remedy for the cruising and parked cabs would be to require cab companies to provide off the street parking places in the loop area.

The Yellow Cab company submitted to the council a claim for $3,856 damages to its cabs during the recent strike. The company based its claim, which was referred to the finance committee, on the state law holding municipalities liable for damage done during riots.

MR. DIETERICH SHEDS LIGHT.

The recent conduct of Senator Dieterich of Illinois is illuminating. It shows where we are going if the President's Supreme court bill is enacted.

Mr. Dieterich has been playing a leading part in the judiciary committee's hearings on the bill. On Tuesday he distinguished himself by insulting a witness, the historian James Truslow Adams, for daring to oppose the measure as a menace to traditional liberty. Mr. Adams feared we were heading in the direction taken by European dictators whom he has observed at close hand. Mr. Dieterich countered with many personal questions, among them being, "Whose pay roll were you on?"

On the same day Mr. Dieterich insisted on censoring the testimony of a fellow Democrat from Illinois, State Senator James Monroe of Collinsville. Mr. Monroe had ventured to quote Mr. Roosevelt to prove that Presidents are not always devoted to the constitution.

"You must show respect for officials of the government," said Mr. Dieterich. "You must not come here with a tirade."

Mr. Dieterich, unwittingly, has helped to clarify the objectives of the court packers. They want to coerce the citizens and they want to suppress all independence of thought and action. The Supreme court stands in their way. Therefore the Supreme court must be packed with little men who will not obstruct. When the packing has taken place the Truslow Adamses and the Senator Monroes can be treated after the manner Mr. Dieterich plainly desires.

Thus far opinion in this country is still free outside Washington and its committee rooms. Americans can still think as they please and publish their thoughts without serious hindrance. They can do so because their rights are specified in the constitution and the Supreme court is on guard to preserve these rights from assault. Today nobody can be arrested for disagreeing with the politicians in office, and there are, as yet, no concentration camps in which to lock up citizens who dare to hold opinions which Mr. Dieterich does not approve.

If the administration has its way, the last obstacle to suppression will be removed. When the court has been emasculated, opinion will be as easily censored as it is in Mr. Dieterich's committee room. Every petty politician will be free to behave as a petty tyrant; every major politician will be free to behave as a major tyrant. That is the objective of the court packing bill. The people of this country have reason to be ironically grateful to Mr. Dieterich for providing so clear an illustration of what lies ahead if the bill is enacted.

THIS YEAR'S TRAINING CAMPS.

The Military Training Camps association reminds intending applicants to send in their applications without delay, as this year, as in previous years, there will be more applicants than places and the earlier birds will get the worm. It has been a gratifying fact that every year since this splendid institution was established many more youth and young men have applied than could be received under the provisions made by congress. In sixteen years more than sixty thousand have taken the training in the 6th corps area alone, but more than a hundred and fifty thousand have applied in this area, which includes Illinois, Wisconsin, and Michigan.

This year the quota for the area has been set at 4,300, or 2,150 for Illinois, of which 830 will be trained at Fort Sheridan; 1,220 at Jefferson barracks, near St. Louis, and 100 at Camp McCoy, at Sparta, Wis. Col. Keck, army representative, announces that there have been 429 applications filed and that he will receive 500 more. Application blanks may be obtained from the county chairmen of the Military Training Camps association in out of town counties. In Chicago the most convenient place to secure applications and information is at the office of the Military Training Camps association, room 705, 6 North Michigan avenue. The applicant, who must pass a physical examination, must be within the ages of 17 and 24. If accepted he will be provided with all necessaries, including transportation, uniform, food, laundry services, etc. The camps in this area begin July 6 and close on Aug. 4.

There is no need, we think, at this late day to comment on the opportunity these camps offer. They have been held each year for sixteen years and they have sold themselves to our youth, as is proved by the fact that while half a million have attended, virtually twice that number have sought the privilege. It is a great pity any young man who has wished to attend one of these camps has ever been turned away. But that has been the niggardly and shortsighted course of politicians who have shown little devotion to economy in any other direction. The latest congress improved on its predecessors, and provision was modestly increased. But it will fall far short of the demand, and hence this advice to our young readers to emulate the early bird. A month at the training camp offers a unique experience, a vacation under the best conditions for mind and body. But there is no need to sell the camps today. They have sold themselves long ago, and the trick now is to get in. Perhaps some day congress will discover what they mean to our youth and to the country and it will see to it that every young American who is awake to the privileges the camps offer shall be assured it. No better investment of public money could be made.

THE "TRIAL OF TROTZKY."

A committee on a strange errand is about to meet in Mexico City. It is headed by Prof. John Dewey of Columbia, who is accompanied by Suzanne La Follette, Benjamin Stolberg, and other radical writers. The object is to put Leon Trotzky on trial, with a defense lawyer but no prosecutor, and permit him to answer the charges against him given in the testimony of his former associates who were tried before the military justices of the soviet republics and either imprisoned or executed for the terrorism and international intrigue against Russia which they confessed and which they said had been planned by Trotzky and his friends to overthrow Stalin and the present government.

Trotzky has denied the truth of what his associates said and has demanded a public hearing. It will be remembered when recently he tried to use telephone and short wave out of Mexico City to talk to an audience in New York in his defense some one cut the wire a short distance outside the city and his sympathizers could not hear him. The speech has been printed in a pamphlet and is so available.

Friends of the Russian Utopia have been violently divided by their conflicting opinions for and against Trotzky, and the Trotzkyites feel that if he can be cleared and can prove that the hideous charges made against him in the trials were false it will be better for the cause, even if it must thereupon be proved that the dominant soviet government is spectacular for barbarity even among the most historic instances of ferocity and ruthlessness.

Dr. Dewey's eminent position in American scholarship must give even so strange a proceeding as this trial a certain distinction which it would lack if his sympathies for the exiled Red did not make him feel that a further search for the truth was important. Most of the Americans who have been doing wishful thinking regarding the future of Russia have thrown in their hands and acknowledge that the Stalinites have proved their case. That conclusion leaves little but despair, but it seems to the majority of the dismayed radicals to be unescapable.

Persons who might feel little interest in discovering whether the Trotzkyites or the Stalinites were the traitors will nevertheless feel that it is a good thing to have all the light possible thrown upon these dark episodes. The story is not yet finished and it is possible that more than Russia will be involved. The most terrible charge against Trotzky made by the conspirators who said they were inspired by him, and they included some of Stalin's most trusted associates, was that the arch conspirator had invited Germany and Japan to make war on Russia and to take their reward by seizing areas of valuable resources. And it is to be noted that at the time these conspiracies were being put into effect Japan and Germany joined in an alliance against Russia and there were revelations of an intent to make a joint attack. If this had been done Europe probably would have been thrown into the general war which is even now so greatly feared, a fear reflected in some of the activities of our own industries.

Only the other day the name of the Japanese agent, mentioned in the Russian trials as Mr. H., was disclosed as S. Hiroshima, attached to the Japanese Moscow embassy as a transportation expert. He has just been transferred to the Japanese legation at Warsaw. His name was made public after he had gone.

It hardly seems probable that Dr. Dewey's committee can do much more than give Trotzky a chance to make an extended speech. If the intention were to do more than merely to give him the best opportunity to rehabilitate himself, cross-examination might develop some more details. He says he never saw Vladimir Romm, once well known as a correspondent at Washington, who was produced at the trial as the go-between who carried three letters of instructions to Radek, Piatakov, and the other conspirators. If Trotzky could prove that and if he could prove that he saw no one from Russia in December, 1935, when it is charged, and confessed, that he met Piatakov in Oslo and gave him the directions, then the story of the conspiracy would be shaken, but it is difficult to see how Dr. Dewey's committee could produce any such proof.

A counter-revolution which was only another internal Russian horror would be one thing, but it is more than an even chance that if a revolution succeeded it would involve half a dozen other countries because of the part Germany and Japan would be likely to play in it. The form of what Dr. Dewey's committee is trying to do may seem ridiculous, but the matter with which it deals, whether it can deal with it other than fantastically, is of no small importance in this nervous world.

Editorial of the Day

MR. VANDENBERG'S AMENDMENT.

[New York Times.]

The new child labor amendment submitted by Senator Vandenberg ought to command overwhelming congressional support. Its phraseology removes any fears or doubts that reasonable men might have felt regarding the old amendment. Under the new proposal congress would still be granted power to "limit and prohibit" child labor, but the more ambiguous power to "regulate" is removed. The congressional power to limit and prohibit is granted not to all "labor" of children, but merely to "labor for hire." The amendment will apply only to persons under 16, making it more specifically a "child" labor amendment than the present proposal, which is designed to cover all persons under 18. Most important of all, the new amendment is to be submitted to specially elected state conventions instead of to legislatures. In this way the question can be carried directly to the people.

If Mr. Vandenberg is correct in believing that congress, in submitting an amendment to state conventions, has the right to set the time for the calling of such conventions—and many constitutional authorities believe that it has—then he is justified in declaring that his amendment could be "ratified within ninety days" if the full power of the administration were put behind it. It has been suggested that the President might refuse to support a new amendment of this sort on the ground that the long delay in approval of the old child labor amendment has been the chief argument against referring the proposal to enlarge the court directly to the people in the form of a constitutional amendment. But it is inconceivable that the President, of all people, would do anything to prolong the exploitation of children for one day simply in the hope of scoring a political point.

ONE HEARS of an executive of a large corporation [not too popular with his underlings] who met two young men of a rival corporation at a social gathering and, in a friendly spirit, offered both jobs. "I'll give you $50 a month more than you get over there," said he. One of the pair, finishing a highball, replied: "Thanks. Can we wait till we get fired where we are?"

JUST WAIT AND SEE.

Our village owns and supports, more or less, two undertakers [that's what they're still called in Wisconsin]. There is much rivalry between them, and the first question when a death is reported is, "Who got him?" . . . The other day a veteran agriculturist passed on to his reward. One son favored Undertaker Blank, but the rest of the family, who preferred Jones, prevailed. After the funeral the lonesome son was in our office telling his troubles. "Well," he said, "I have to go and explain it the best way I can to Mr. Blank. I can't afford to have him get mad at me." . . . Please, I'd like to know: What can an undertaker do when he gets mad at you? Florence.

ICE MAN.

She wined him and dined him
  And treated him nice—
But still his attention
  Was all for her ice.

She cheered him and jeered him—
  Promoted herself—
But his hand automatically
  Reached for the shelf

Where the ice pick lay gleaming
  And ready for using;
She offered him warmness—
  But ICE was his choosing!

She wines him and dines him
  And STILL treats him nice—
But his only reaction
  Is . . . chiseling her ice.

THE UNFORTUNATE AGE.

It's only fifty years from pioneer days. In the eighties electricity was a novelty and only a few knew the gas light. Coal oil lamps were the vogue and washing chimneys, trimming wicks, and filling the glowworm were housewives' horrors. The pride of the parlor was the hard coal burner. Among the tony people the burner stood on a marble base, while others tried to get away with a base covered with white oilcloth. . . . To hold one's head up socially he had to have a brussels carpet in the parlor. Woolen and rag carpets in the other rooms, all nailed down all around. They had to be taken up every spring, put on a clothesline and beaten. Stovepipes were taken down in spring and cleaned. The soot and ashes were shoveled out of the chimney and a tin cover was placed over it. You don't know how lucky you were to be born in this age, young fellow! J. B. R.

Sniff and Be Convinced.

(Bureau County Record, via F. H.)

"What makes the Swedish girl so beautiful and the Swedish man so big? It's smorgasbord."

You can take this on the authority of Sweden's consul, Dr. Gosta Oldenburg, newly appointed to Chicago. After eating twelve items of the smorgasbord, exclaimed the 6 foot 3 inch Consul Oldenburg: "It's by eating these items of food in the smorgasbord that our Greta Garbo gets and keeps her beauty, and so does every Swedish damsel. And the men get stronger and stronger from it."

WE'RE not sure of the identity of all the 3,800 words that can be used by the 28 month old prodigy in Missouri. Among them, undoubtedly, are okay, goofy, I, don't, like, and spinach.

SOME MINOR POETIC NOTES.

We have commented at times on the excellence of the verse that appears in the Line. There are a remarkable number of versifiers in the middle west, and many of them are good—not every one a Sigmund, an Adelaide Love, a T. E. B. or a Marjorie F. W., but good just the same. They wouldn't, for instance, quite bring themselves to write one like this, which appeared in a Dubuque paper:

My body seems to react to sound—
Words I say, oft' times rebound.
  I'm frightened, although I've never feared
  Of cats at night, or dogs that sneered.
My whole life seems a rock of stone

It is, avers the Little Old Lady of Dubuque, the forwarder, comforting to know that there are no papier maché rocks hanging about the river metropolis and one need not tremble at the sound of sneerings. The observant Jazbo sends along another effusion which saw the blackness of print in an Iowa journal. So:

He was giving a talk one evening
  In a theater called "The Ford,"
When he was shot by a man from the south,
  "May he rest in peace, Dear Lord."

We add a bit from one of our own contribs; well worthy, we should say, to rank with these. Here 'tis:

When the sun sets in the evening
The dark is coming near
Then in a very short time
The stars is shining clear.

After all, the minor poets ought to get a hearing some time.

DIGESTIVE UPSETS MAY NOT MEAN DISEASE.

THE stomach is a pretty fair barometer of the condition of the nervous system. Those who are overtired or nervously upset are usually unable to eat. During the world war it was no uncommon experience to find a group of men, apprehensive and jittery, who would report at sick call with a long list of digestive maladies. The distress was real, but in many cases no actual defects were identifiable.

Physicians who specialize in stomach and intestinal difficulties report that in approximately half of their patients digestive troubles can be traced to functional sources, which means, of course, that no tissue changes have occurred. Nevertheless, these individuals are ill with symptoms that may lead, if uncontroled, to positive disease. Many of them lose weight, become anemic, and complain of excessive weakness.

No one, however, with pain proceeding from the alimentary tract should be dismissed with a wave of the hand. On the contrary, a most thorough and searching examination is in order. This is important because it is desirable to set the patient's mind at rest, as in a high percentage of cases no organic fault will be disclosed. Many will not consult a physician and as a result will harbor a subconscious fear that ulcer, cancer, or some other dread organic lesion is slowly but surely undermining health.

If the examination shows that no lesion exists we are faced with the problem of treatment. In some cases the best remedy is rest. This will bring about recovery in those cases in which mental or physical exhaustion is a dominant factor.

But the advice must be tempered to the patient's circumstances. It would be absurd to tell the sole support of a family that he must take a rest cure. His condition would certainly become aggravated. But he can lie down, perhaps a half hour in the middle of the day, go to bed shortly after the evening meal, and remain quiet all day Sunday. If there has been much loss of weight, sometimes extra meals or a diet high in calories will be useful. Placing a heating pad or a hot water bottle over the upper abdomen is grateful to the patient and soothing and quieting to the nervous system.

Gradually, as one becomes better acquainted with all the conditions, a certain amount of instruction may be given as to nervous control, indoctrinating the desirability of cultivating a calm, even temperament. Occasionally, for a short time, some mild sedative may be helpful.

Habits of eating must be inquired into and discussed. Food that is gulped whole may be digested quite satisfactorily, but the fact that it is swallowed in that form is a clear index of an emotional disturbance, possibly the result of bickering and controversy at mealtime or bolting food to get it over with. Regularity in eating is necessary and the period should be one of rest rather than excitement.

The case is reported of a man aged 42 who had been a hard worker and an intensive driver. After a meal he would belch up sour material, and when the stomach was empty a gnawing discomfort would assert itself. He was a rapid eater and frequently employed the lunch hour for a business conference. Five minutes after leaving the table he could not name a single item on the menu, although the dishes had been swept clean. One need not wonder that the stomach was frightened at the huge avalanche of food thrust upon it suddenly. But the cure was easy. Some attention to diet and the use of an hour in the process of consuming a modest amount of food gave complete relief. A careful X-ray study showed no disease whatsoever, although the stomach was slightly larger than normal.

In this instance the prescription might have been recorded as follows: Eat two-thirds of your normal ration, but take three times as long to do it.

JAUNDICE.

Mrs. L. writes:

1. What are the causes of yellow jaundice?
2. What treatment and diet should a person use?
3. How long does it usually take to get it cleared up?
4. Are there any after effects?

REPLY.

1. The usual cause is some obstruction to the outflow of bile from the liver. Sometimes inflammation of the liver itself is responsible. Poisons such as arsenic, phosphorus, or chloroform may bring on the symptoms.
2. The patient should be placed at rest in bed and the diet restricted to milk, alkalies, and carbohydrates. The dry, itching skin may be relieved by a bath—night and morning—containing potassium carbonate.
3. The symptoms subside within a few days after the jaundice appears, but the depression and discoloration of the skin may persist for one or two weeks.
4. Rarely—unless the liver cells have been injured permanently.

SYPHILIS.

Mrs. M. B. writes:

1. What are the symptoms of syphilis in the different stages?
2. Is the first infection ever attended by high fever?
3. Does the first stage ever develop in less than 21 days from date of infection?

REPLY.

1. First stage: initial sore, called a chancre, followed by glandular enlargement; second stage: multiple lesions all over the body; third stage: tumors; fourth stage: brain lesions resulting in paresis or in locomotor ataxia.
2. No.
3. The incubation period varies from five days to four months, the average being 26 days.

TRENCH MOUTH.

A. R. writes: Can trench mouth be cured? We have a case in the family that has been treated by both physician and dentist and it is still not cured.

REPLY.

Good mouth hygiene, keeping up the resistance, taking care of diseased teeth and tonsils contribute to recovery. Solutions of sodium perborate and hydrogen peroxide are helpful. Sometimes it is necessary to use arsenic [salvarsan] to kill the organism causing trench mouth. This should be used only under the advice of your physician. The drug—in solution—may be applied to the lesions locally or, in severe cases, injected into a vein.

20 Years Ago Today

APRIL 8, 1917.

WASHINGTON, D. C.—To relieve the economic needs of the entente governments a huge loan of dimensions yet undetermined, but not less than 2 billion dollars, will be forthcoming from this country as speedily as congress can pass the necessary legislation. Not a penny of profit, it was authoritatively stated, will be expected or received by this country on the loan.

AMSTERDAM—Emperor William has ordered German Imperial Chancellor von Bethmann-Hollweg to submit to him certain proposals for the reform of the Prussian electoral law to be put into effect after the conclusion of peace. An official telegram from Berlin announcing this order adds that it foreshadows also the reform of the upper chamber of the Prussian diet.

LONDON.—Above the growing crash of cannon on the west front there has developed a terrific battle for the supremacy of the air. During the last three days the loss in planes, both allied and German, far exceeds any previously recorded in the war.

NEW YORK.—A wireless receiving station capable of receiving messages from Germany has been in operation on the roof of the home of Mrs. Hugo Reisinger, who inherited one-seventh of the fortune left by her father, Adolphus Busch, the St. Louis brewer who was a friend of the kaiser and was twice decorated by him.

CHICAGO.—Hinton G. Clabaugh, chief of the Chicago division of the secret service, obtained the arrest as spies of an assistant foreman at the International Harvester company's plant, two men who had taken photographs of important railroad bridges in Chicago, three Hindus employed in the United States Steel works in Gary, Ind., and an employé of Wilson & Co., packers.

NEW YORK.—Lieut. Col. Arthur E. Bielkowsky, a retired German artillery officer and called one of the "master spies" in the employ of the kaiser in America, was arrested by United States secret service agents. He was later paroled in the custody of Justice Henry D. Hotchkiss of the New York state Supreme court.

NORTHPORT, L. I.—James Rhatiga, a 14 year old boy, was shot and killed by a marine guarding a local plant on refusal to obey an order to halt.

HAVANA.—Cuba, not yet out of her teens as a republic, is at war with Germany—the first of the Latin-American countries to range herself alongside the United States, her liberator and protector. The republic of Panama also has committed herself unreservedly to the assistance of the United States in the defense of the canal.

PUBLIC UTILITIES SERVICE.

Chicago, April 3.—[Legal Friend of the People.]—I recently purchased a home which is in a section more or less isolated from the more congested residential district. The property is not serviced with gas and I was informed that installation of same would cost me over $600 due to the fact that there are too few homes on this particular block; notwithstanding the fact that the streets east and west have gas mains. My contention is that the utility being without competition, thus creating a monopoly, is abusing its privilege when refusing me their service without exorbitant charge. I would greatly appreciate your advice as to my chances in court to force giving me this service. H. J. E.

The utilities commission sustains the utilities in making a special charge to cover the cost of reaching outlying properties. If this were not done it would mean that disproportionate cost of running a long gas main or electric light wire to an isolated home would in substance be charged against other customers, which obviously would not be fair. If you desire more specific information as to the rules we suggest that you write to the Illinois commerce commission, Springfield.

THE WHISKY-FED CHILD.

Chicago, April 5.—For over four years President Roosevelt has repeatedly advocated a return to the 1926 price level. He pleaded for higher prices. He encouraged higher prices. He asked for it and got it. Now that his whisky fed child has reached manhood, Papa Roosevelt can no longer control him.

True to his reputation of being consistently inconsistent, Economist Roosevelt now completely reverses himself, and in his latest release to the press states that many durable goods are too high, and that what we need now is not higher prices but lower prices. He points out that copper, now selling at 16 cents a pound, could be mined profitably at 8 cents a pound, but takes no steps to annihilate the profit hogs nor offers any protection to the consumer who has to pay the exorbitant price for copper.

The result will not be altered by his success or failure in developing the Supreme court into a gold faced checkerboard, nor by his advocacy of higher or lower prices on next April 1. When the payoff day arrives Economist Roosevelt and the group of entomologists surrounding him will find that the way back to prosperity is not with higher profits, higher prices, higher taxes and higher wages, but with lower profits, lower prices, lower taxes and fair wages.

JOHN J. MANGAN.

CHECKS AND BALANCES.

Chicago, April 2.—Does it ever occur to the people who write you about the popular will being defeated by the Supreme court to ask themselves the following questions: 1. Why has the President the power to veto an act of congress? 2. Why has the state of Nevada the same representation in the senate as the state of New York? 3. Why permit a Republican senate while the house may be largely Democratic, the one perhaps negativing the other? Of course, the reason is that the framers of the constitution wished to guard us against hasty action in times of sudden popular excitement. In other words, they wished to guard minorities against mob rule.

CHARLES W. PHILLIPS.

IT'S NO LONGER A SECRET.

Chicago, April 3.—Why do so many writers dare a newspaper to print their article? I figure if an editor can't judge whether an article is worth publishing, then nobody can.

There is no paper in Chicago, least of all THE TRIBUNE, that hasn't the courage to print a good letter, whether it's for or against the views of that paper.

EDWARD SAIGER.

TOO MANY DOORS.

Chicago, April 2.—Now that the Rapid Transit system seems to be making improvements on their stations, how about improving the station at 22d street? We have to open six doors before reaching the street. By adding two new stairways for "exit only" this condition could be remedied. A DOORMAN.

THAT REMAINS TO BE SEEN.

Chicago, April 5.—Why did the taxi drivers of Chicago go on strike, and what was gained from 3 weeks of striking? T. L.

CONCERNING STAMPS.

Sycamore, Ill., April 5.—It is truly amazing, the prodigality of our postal department in the vast output of different stamps. The depictions thereon are becoming so many and varied as to assume almost a personal or controversial nature. This necessitates care in the selection of stamps you use, to coincide with the tastes of the recipient. You wouldn't send a Swedish friend one bearing a picture of Patrick Henry discovering the Pacific, or an Irishman one showing Leif the Lucky crossing the Delaware; they would be inapropos.

Neither would you wish to mail a letter to your preacher with an awful stamp on it showing Jesse James murdering his grandma; or an elephant one of P. T. Barnum. You certainly wouldn't send Al Sloan one of John Lewis. These observations could be continued indefinitly, but it is easily seen what complications may arise.

However, a refreshing innovation looms, the juvenile series, utterly inoffensive. Soon we will have stamps of Alice in Wonderland, Huck Finn, Rollo on a farm in winter [2 cents]; Rollo at the same old place in summer [3 cents]; Robinson Crusoe, Jack going places up a beanstalk, etc., etc. Capt. John Smith making a definite proposition to Pocahontas; John Alden up to the same tricks with Priscilla. And, O, yes, the government engravers are now filming or stamping "Twenty Thousand Leagues Under the Sea." This will be a beautiful 10 center, showing Capt. Nemo hacking off the flippers of the horrible octopus as she skidded down the back stairs of the Nautilus followed by all the little octopi.

THE SHOOTING OF JIM FISK.

Aurora, Ill., April 4.—It may interest you to know that there is some one who has not yet "gone where the woodbine twineth" who can recall the shooting of Jim Fisk! I was 6 years old at the time and remember hearing my mother and grandmother discussing it. We were living on West 23d street, New York, then and I think Josephine Mansfield lived near by. Of course I didn't know what it all meant, but I listened to what was said and drank it in. I want to tell you and the author how much I enjoyed the article in the Graphic section.

[MRS.] HETTIE E. MILLER.

EARNEST HOPE.

Chicago, April 5.—In case of sitdown strike hearings by congress I earnestly hope President Roosevelt, Gov. Murphy of Michigan, Gov. Benson of Minnesota, and Secretary Madam Perkins may not be omitted as matter of course witnesses on the extent and character of officialdom's apparent fellowship with lawlessness in this delicate matter. C. B.

HE CAN'T STOP DRINKING.

Chicago, April 5.—I have tried to stop drinking of liquor by my son and have made an honest effort to prevent him from becoming a habitual drunkard, and I am now convinced that there is no cure for drunks and that the clergy and doctors are powerless against this overpowering evil. T. S.

WOMAN SEIZED IN NEW DEATH AT INFIRMARY

Dismantle Bootleg Resort in Oak Forest.

Discovery of the body of another inmate of the Oak Forest infirmary who died from acute alcoholism led to the arrest yesterday of Mrs. Laverne Hellner, who county highway police and infirmary officials say has been peddling bootleg liquor to the inmates for years.

Mrs. Hellner, who is blind and who was formerly an inmate of the institution, was locked up in the county highway police station at Homewood. She has red hair and says she is 38 years old, but looks 50. E. C. Yellowley, director of the federal alcohol tax unit, was notified of the arrest as was the state's attorney's office.

Rip Down Saloon License.

Mrs. Hellner lives in a frame house across the street from the infirmary at 161st street and Cicero avenue in Oak Forest. A wooden sign proclaims it as the House by the Side of the Road.

"This is the end of the House by the Side of the Road," said Lieut. Fred Mulhausen of the highway police as he ripped Mrs. Hellner's saloon license from the wall. "They'll send her to prison on a federal charge of evading the liquor tax laws."

How Mrs. Hellner ever obtained the license is to be the subject of investigation. She did no business, police said, other than with the infirmary inmates, who wore a path to her back door in quest of homemade whisky.

Find Body of Drinker.

Joseph Novak, 67 years old, was the latest inmate to die of alcoholism and exposure as a result of a trip to the House by the Side of the Road. His body was found yesterday in a clump of bushes 200 feet south of the resort by Joe Rosol, another inmate, who was his drinking companion last Sunday.

Near Novak's body were three empty half pint whisky bottles. There was another one, half full, in his pocket.

"Early Sunday morning we sneaked under the infirmary fence and went to the House by the Side of the Road," Rosol told Lieut. Mulhausen. "We rapped on the back door, then left 40 cents in a cigar box nailed up near a sliding panel in the door. We came back later and got two half pints." Rosol did not know when Novak bought the other bottles.

Find Alcohol in Garbage Can.

Searching the Hellner woman's house, Lieut. Mulhausen found ten gallons of alcohol in a garbage can hidden in a clothes closet. Two old crones said to have been employed by Mrs. Hellner to deliver booze to the infirmary fence were not in the house at the time of the police raid.

There are 4,000 inmates in the infirmary. Drinking has been on the increase since some of the inmates began receiving old age pension checks.

Drink Up Their Pensions.

Often when an old man is released from the infirmary and given his first check he is found in a nearby field a few days later, drunk, paralyzed, and penniless.

Attendants frequently find a dozen or more drunken men in the infirmary on Monday mornings, Supt. Venecek said. Bottles are carried out by the bushel basketful.

This condition recently led Clayton F. Smith, president of the county board, to warn all saloon operators in the vicinity that their licenses would be revoked if they were caught selling liquor to inmates.

COURT CURBS POWER OF APPEAL BOARD TO ALTER ASSESSMENTS

Judge Edmund K. Jarecki of the County court ruled yesterday that the board of tax appeals cannot review and change the real estate valuations made by the assessor except during the quadrennial assessment years or when there have been physical changes in the properties.

This ruling meant victory for County Assessor John S. Clark in his dispute with Emmett Whealan and Paul Drymalski, the two members of the appeal board. It affects the 1934 real estate valuations of 3,136 property owners, which the appeal board ordered reduced. Mr. Clark refused, however, to recognize these changes. Had the court held with the board, he said yesterday, the county would have had to refund several million dollars in protested 1934 taxes.

U. S. HEALTH CHIEF URGES BETTER MEANS FOR SYPHILIS WAR

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., April 7.—[Special.]—Nation-wide interest in eradication of syphilis is far ahead of public facilities, United States Surgeon General Thomas Parran reported today before the thirty-fifth conference of state and territorial health officers.

In the last year, he reported, all but eleven states have had some social security funds allotted for venereal disease control. A few states have planned excellent programs, but none as yet has been put into full execution.

"The minimum measures," he declared, "should include the appointment of full time venereal disease control officers, trained in the clinical as well as the public health phases of this problem; the free distribution of anti-syphilitic drugs; a standardization and improvement of the laboratory diagnostic service, and a great improvement in treatment facilities; more efficient case reporting. Such a program necessarily will call for an increased expenditure of public funds."

KING GEORGE IV. HIS ANCESTOR, SAYS CHICAGOAN

Convinced by a study of family history that he is a great-great-grandson of King George IV. of England [1820-'30] and his morganatic wife, Mrs. Maria Anne Fitzherbert, a Chicagoan plans to lay claim in the courts to the $1,250,000 Fitzherbert estate.

Charles Blaine Sr.

He is Charles Blaine Sr., 59 years old, 1003 Rush street, clerk in the county treasurer's office and a veteran in 42d ward politics. He said last night he had engaged Attorney Max Luster to press his claims.

Blaine's mother was Fannie Mary Shea of Liverpool, and he believes his grandmother was Marie Anne Shea, said to be the granddaughter of George IV. and Mrs. Fitzherbert. British historians have held that this couple had no children, but the question was revived recently by William M. O'Leary, a British customs official, who put forth a claim also based on kinship with Maria Anne Shea.

SUITS FOR INSURANCE ON LIFE OF MISSING BROKER ARE SETTLED

An out of court settlement was reported yesterday in three federal court suits to collect a total of $100,000 insurance on the life of Melbert W. Lorch, 33 years old, an onion broker who disappeared in October, 1926. The suits were brought against three insurance companies by Chester A. Willoughby, trustee in bankruptcy for the Lorch firm which was named beneficiary in the three policies. It was reported that the trustee has accepted $46,500 in settlement. The suits, which have been pending for 4 years, were based on the legal presumption that a man who has been missing for seven years is dead. The insurance companies contended that Lorch had been seen in Mexico and Hawaii.

GERMANY TRIES 4 CATHOLIC CHIEFS IN TREASON PLOT

7 Charged with Planning Front with Reds.

BY SIGRID SCHULTZ.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

BERLIN, April 7.—Four Catholic youth leaders and three other men today were placed on trial for high treason in the Berlin People's court. They are charged with attempting to organize a secret united front between Catholic and communist youths.

The chief defendants are Chaplain Jacob Clemens, secretary general of the Catholic Young Men's association, Franz Steber, a leader in the association, Chaplain Josef Rossaint of the Duesseldorf youth group, and Chaplain Karl Kramer of Remscheid.

Seventh Defendant Not Named.

Two defendants were identified as Peter Himmes and Hermann Juelich. The seventh was not named. Himmes and Juelich are accused of acting as agents in connecting Catholic leaders with communists.

Rossaint, chief of the Catholic storm troops of the Catholic Young Men's association, is charged with maintaining relations with communist agitators and giving money and advice to Schwippert, a communist, after he fled to Holland in 1934. The other Catholic youth leaders are accused of concealing anti-Nazi pamphlets and failing to inform police about them as well as tolerating meetings of Catholics with communists.

Clemens was the only one of the Catholics on trial to appear in court in a priest's garb. Six of the defendants have been awaiting trial in prison since early February, 1936. Clemens was released from prison temporarily last summer because of ill health.

Nazi Seized as Swindler.

A Duesseldorf court is preparing to try Herr Esch, a tax director and member of the Nazi party, on a charge of absconding with more than $1,000. He is accused of compelling Duesseldorf citizens to pay additional taxes on their incomes into his own bank account after threatening them with police raids. Esch, who is 31 years old, preyed mostly on doctors and lawyers, authorities said. Herr Boerger, another Nazi, is alleged to have been his accomplice.

An official statement emphasized that Esch and his accomplice came to the Nazi party only after the revolution."

TUXEDO IN COURT

Lee Moseley wearing his rented tuxedo in Safety court when he was fined $5 and $5 costs on charge of reckless driving.

Tails and a white tie? For some cases, perhaps. But when Lee Moseley of 1024 Diversey parkway is in court for speeding he prefers the gayer black tie and rented dinner jacket. That's what he was wearing when he was locked up for driving 55 miles an hour in Clark street, in a rented car, and the rented Tuxedo Tuesday night. So he wore the evening clothes into Safety court yesterday. Judge George B. Weiss fined Moseley, who's 22 years old, $5.

Jesse Hill, colored, 38 years old, of 300 East 33d street, was sentenced to five days in the county jail on a reckless driving charge.

"Have had my Servel Electrolux refrigerator since December 5th, 1934. I find the operating expense less than half of using ice. Am greatly pleased; wish I had purchased it years ago; would have saved plenty. Its silence is a thing I appreciate highly."

MR. ROBERT H. REID
BUILDER—10 So. La Salle Street

"I have been buying Servel Electrolux refrigerators for more than six years. As a builder, I have watched their performance closely. They are trouble-proof. Their operating cost is approximately half that of any other refrigerator. They are silent."

MRS. T. NIAGUL
HOME OWNER—3316 West Cullom Street

"We had our Servel Electrolux installed in our home in August, 1933. The operating expense does not run over $1.00 per month and we have never had any expense for service or service parts. Perfection in refrigeration describes the Servel Electrolux."

MR. GUY CUBLEY
BUILDER—4527 No. Lincoln Street

"After testing every type, I am convinced that gas refrigeration is best. I have been concentrating on Servel Electrolux for the past three years. They have given low operating cost, complete satisfaction. My tenants like the silent, dependable refrigeration."

MRS. T. A. KLEIN
HOUSEWIFE—4953 Crystal Street

"I purchased my Servel Electrolux July, 1934. Find it very economical to operate; have never had any service expense. After comparing my Servel Electrolux with other automatic refrigerators after 3 years' use, I say Servel Electrolux is far superior to all other makes."

MR. WILLIAM R. JAMES
HOME OWNER—1721 Foster Avenue

"We find the operating expense of our Servel Electrolux to be less than $1.00 a month. We have had no expense for upkeep in three years of service. We consider the Servel Electrolux refrigerator the finest on the market. No trouble to keep it at the temperature desired."

YOU couldn't ask for a better guarantee of the lasting satisfaction and economy of a Servel Electrolux than these voluntary statements of Chicago home owners, builders and apartment dwellers.

They've proved that this remarkable refrigerator is silent . . . stays silent. And they've proved, too, that it brings you more years of perfect refrigeration . . . assures continued savings on operating cost, food bills and upkeep throughout its long life.

The reason for this amazing performance is the different, simpler operation of a Servel Electrolux. It has no moving parts in its entire freezing system! A tiny gas flame circulates the refrigerant which produces constant cold and cubes of ice, without friction, noise or wear.

WAY CLEARED TO OPEN U.S.-BRITISH ATLANTIC AIR LINE

Terminal Agreement with Canada Completed.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., April 7.—[Special.]—The deadlock in negotiations between the United States and Great Britain in connection with proposed joint operation of trans-Atlantic air service was broken today.

Assistant Secretary of Commerce J. Monroe Johnson announced the last obstacle in the way of beginning the service was removed today with the successful culmination of negotiations with Canada.

The obstacle in the path of the proposed air service was whether New York or Montreal should be the terminal for the proposed airway. Canadian authorities held out for Montreal and the department of commerce insisted upon New York as the terminal.

Two Canadian Routes.

By the agreement two routes will be available through Canada. One route will be by way of Shediac, N. B., and the other through Montreal. The hop-off point for eastward flights over the Atlantic on both routes will be Bottwood, N. F., which will also be landfall on the westward flights.

Agreements have already been signed with Great Britain and Ireland for landing points in Ireland and England.

The joint operation is to be conducted by Pan American Airways and Imperial Airways. Flying craft will make a total of four trips a week. British and American planes will each make a round trip a week.

Flying Ships Ready.

The Imperial Airways' huge flying boat Cavalier, tested and equipped, has been awaiting culmination of the negotiations. The Pan American Airways has had one of its clipper ships standing by.

Meanwhile the Glen L. Martin company of Baltimore is conducting negotiations to institute another trans-Atlantic service independent of the joint British-American service. The company has designed a 40 passenger clipper ship which would make the crossing in less than 19 hours.

Foresees Conviction

FIND ABSENTEE DEFENDANT IN AN APARTMENT

CRIMINAL COURT.

Charles G. Allen, larceny, sentenced to 1 year in the bridewell by Judge Benjamin Epstein.

Wellington Weir, larceny, sentenced to 1 to 10 years in the penitentiary; Robert Lombardo, larceny of an automobile, sentenced to 1 to 20 years in the penitentiary by Judge Rudolph Desort.

Norman Weis, who vanished from Judge Rudolph Desort's Criminal court room Tuesday as the judge was preparing to sentence him for burglary, was recaptured yesterday in an apartment at 6334 Ingleside avenue.

With Weis were his wife, Elsie, and their son Joseph, 10 years old. They had rented the apartment a few hours after Weis' disappearance. An anonymous informant told police where Weis could be found.

He was hurried before Judge Desort, where he insisted he had merely left court to arrange his business in anticipation of a conviction. The judge ordered him locked up until he can begin serving his one year to life term, imposed after he fled the court for taking $160 worth of clothes from the home of John L. Hogsted at 5144 Nelson street.

Weis was asked about a slingshot found in his car. Weis said it was his son's, but police say burglars use slingshots to break front windows to find out if intended victims are at home in the daytime.

State Loses New Move to Force Shapiros Into Court

The state's latest strategy in the Shapiro case fell through yesterday. It was a move to compel Harold Shapiro's parents to prosecute him for having them robbed last Dec. 28 in their apartment at 7100 South Shore drive. Judge Robert Jerome Dunne refused in Criminal court to raise Shapiro's bond from $7,500 to $200,000. John F. Boyle, assistant state's attorney, had asked the increase in the belief that it would force the parents, Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Shapiro, to come to the rescue of their son, who is 21 years old.

Teaches Husband a Lesson and Makes Him Pay for It

When her husband stayed out late, Mrs. Hazel E. Littler, 22 North Austin boulevard, testified yesterday in the Superior court, she decided to teach him a lesson by staying out later than he did. But this made him angry and he left her. Mrs. Littler was awarded a divorce and $2,000 by Judge John J. Lupe, plus $100 a month alimony until she remarries, and a $500 fee for her attorney, Harry X. Cole. The husband, Charles, who is a railroad purchasing agent living at the Stevens hotel, agreed to keep their son, Charles Jr., in a military school.

Day By Day Story of the Experimental Farms

By Frank Ridgway

Tag Purebred Lambs.

April 7, 1937.

PRELIMINARY to official registration of the purebred Southdown lambs that are now being dropped by the Canadian ewes at the Tribune's Wheaton experimental farm the flockmaster is tagging and registering the aristocrats immediately after they are born. A metal numbered tag is fastened in the right ear of each lamb and the number is recorded along with the mother ewe's official number in a book kept at the farm.

By following this system the flockmaster simplifies his work of registering the lambs with the American Southdown Breeders' association.

The tails of both the purebred and grade lambs are clipped off between the fourth and tenth day after they are dropped. Special clippers are used so that the wool is cut off even with the end of the stub.

There was a total of 253 lambs at the Wheaton farm when the last count was made. Twenty-one of the purebred ewes have saved 32 lambs, or an average of slightly more than 1½ lambs for each ewe. In the grade flock 157 ewes have saved 221 lambs, or slightly less than 1½ lambs for each ewe.

Nurse Crops for Pasture.

Fall sown wheat and rye will be used as nurse crops for spring sown pasture and hay crops this season on the Wheaton farm. In a 14 acre field of rye seeded last fall alfalfa seed was sown a few days ago at the rate of 20 pounds to the acre.

A mixture of seed also was sown in a 14½ acre field of fall sown wheat. The mixture was made up of timothy, 7 pounds; red clover, 5 pounds, and alsike clover, 3 pounds. It was sown at the rate of 15 pounds to the acre.

Fruit Trees Sprayed.

Fruit trees were sprayed last week at the Wheaton farm to protect them against scale insects that suck juices out of the bark of the trees. The men went through the orchard with a power spray machine and coated all of the branches and trunks of the apple, pear and cherry trees with oil.

Evergreen trees at the Wheaton farm have just received their annual spring shearing. Last week the gardeners sheared all cedar, spruce, pine and arborvitae trees on the farm. They clipped three or four inches of the tips off the branches. This light shearing causes several branches to form where the tip is cut off, making the tree grow more compactly, according to the head gardener.

Experience at the farm indicates that the safest and best time to shear evergreens is just before growth starts in the spring.

BRITISH DEMAND DOMINIONS 'KICK IN' FOR DEFENSE

London Seeks More Cash; Squabble Looms.

BY DAVID DARRAH.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

LONDON, April 7.—Squabbles over money matters threaten to enliven the imperial conference among the United Kingdom and the British dominions which will be opened by the newly crowned monarch, King George VI. of Great Britain, just after his coronation May 12. At that conference a huge scheme of defraying the costs of imperial defense is going to be shoved across the table to prime ministers of the dominions.

The British believe the dominions have been getting more benefits from England's navy and air forces stationed at various spots about the globe than they have been paying for in the past.

The imperial defense chiefs, in fact, are annoyed by the failure of the dominions to contribute more to imperial defense expenditure. They have pointed out that the need for dominion help has grown with the five year rearmament plan on which Great Britain has embarked and which calls for an expenditure on defense of about 1 billion 500 million dollars a year. Recently, in the house of commons, Prime Minister Stanley Baldwin stated that the government would leave up to the dominions the amount of their contributions.

To Hand Dominions a Bill.

But from recent disclosures it appears that Neville Chamberlain, chancellor of the exchequer and considered certain to be the next prime minister when Baldwin retires just after the coronation, will hand the dominion prime ministers of Canada, the Union of South Africa, New Zealand and Australia — the Irish Free State will not attend the imperial conference—a bill for a regular contribution to defense costs.

It has been said Chamberlain will confront them point-blank with the necessity of coming across with $50,000,000 a year toward the costs of defense. The sum may be greater.

The statesmen of Great Britain and the dominions do not see eye to eye on many details of defense and many tussles are expected. Dominion leaders are likely to demand that if they must pay for general defense schemes they must get a proportionate share of army and navy commissions and also have more to say to influence the determination of foreign policy.

Wants Soldiers in War.

Aside from money and the bigger share of the defense expense to be borne by the dominions, the questions of men, armaments, and food will present a tug of war between the mother country and the dominions. Chamberlain, it has been stated, will likely press dominion statesmen for concrete ideas on how many men they would put at the disposal of a British expeditionary force in the event of war. The answers are expected to be: "We will use our men to defend our own countries, but we will not send any to participate in a European war."

British statesmen will also press the dominions to increase their own navies and air forces so that in the event of war they could defend their own coasts and harbors and help protect ships carrying food to Britain and thereby indirectly relieve the strain on the British navy. To this the dominions are expected to agree.

Controversies also are expected to arise between Britain and the dominions over food supplies, the guaranteeing of which, in time of war, is this country's most acute problem.

The British expect the dominions' answer to the mother country's request to guarantee the food supplies in time of war will be that bigger peace time orders must be given to the dominion farmers. But the dilemma for Britain is that this cannot be done without reducing quotas of meat, wheat, bacon, butter, and other commodities now given to Argentina, the Netherlands, Denmark, and other nations. And, if it is done, these countries would buy less coal, iron, steel, railway material and textiles from England. Thus another struggle looms.

Besides all this, the position of Canada in coming to the imperial conference also aroused interest.

The British know that recent discussions at Ottawa have revealed that the Canadians want to remain neutral in any future war.

But chance remarks of British ministers in recent debates in parliament suggests that they consider that Canada holds the key position as a secondary supply base in any future hostilities. It is noted that substantial orders of war material recently have been placed by Canadian firms and that a number of important representatives of Canadian manufacturers now are in London in connection with the armament program.

See U. S. Neutrality Snag.

And right there is where Uncle Sam's neutrality program may strike a snag in the future. According to the Manchester Guardian: "In the United States there is keen interest in the matter for the close interlocking of Canadian and American finance and raw materials takes the simplicity out of the question of the United States' neutrality. Recent orders are for steel products and Canadian furnaces depend mainly on American coal and American ore, so American mines will help Britain over her steel shortage."

FLYING CAVALIER'S A FATHER; LEAVES WAR FRONT FOR A DAY

SALAMANCA, Spain, April 7.—(AP)—Juan Ignacio Pombo, who flew the South Atlantic in 1934 to find his childhood sweetheart in Mexico, temporarily dropped the rôle of Spanish rebel pilot today to play the proud father in a reunion with wife and son.

Pombo and Maria Elena Rivero were married in Madrid Feb. 11, 1936. He rushed to his wife's bedside from the Madrid front when the baby was born at Avila March 10. But he had to go back to piloting a bombing plane before the child was baptized and named Juan Ignacio.

'Missing' Lindberghs Turn Up at Airport in Munich

MUNICH, Germany, April 7.—(AP)—Col. and Mrs. Charles A. Lindbergh landed at Oberwiesenfeld airdrome at 8 o'clock last night. The Lindberghs, unreported since they took off from Zagreb, Jugo-Slavia, yesterday morning, made no forced landing and had no engine trouble, it was indicated. They are expected to resume their flight to London tomorrow.

NORMAN THOMAS RIPS ENGLAND ON POLICY ON SPAIN

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

LONDON, April 7.—Norman Thomas, American Socialist leader, landed in England today and immediately delivered an attack on British foreign policy. He charged the British foreign office with using Portugal as a pawn in a game of duplicity in Spain, the chief aim of which is to protect British capital there.

"British capitalists, the largest foreign owners of mining stock in Spain, backed Gen. Franco [Fascist rebel leader] very effectively with money and influence," he said. "The British nonintervention policy has at all times and in every way worked to the advantage of the rebels."

Thomas, asked if he did not think it was unusual to speak so frankly about the foreign policy of a friendly country, answered, "I am not, and never have been, a diplomat." He is the guest here of Sir Stafford Cripps, leader of the Socialist league, a left wing faction of the British Labor party.

Missouri House Rejects Child Labor Amendment

Jefferson City, Mo., April 7.—(AP)—The house of representatives refused to ratify the proposed federal child labor amendment today. The vote was 51 for to 74 against. It was the fourth time the Missouri legislature had rejected the amendment.

FAMILY OF 10 EVICTED FROM HOME AFTER 7 YEAR COURT BATTLE

John Regan, his wife, Beatrice, and their eight children, the youngest 8 years old, were evicted yesterday from their home at 6556 North Richmond street, on a foreclosure order growing out of seven years of litigation with Mrs. Regan's brother, Thomas J. Grady, former wealthy real estate dealer now in bankruptcy.

The eviction order, obtained by E. J. Paulin, a real estate dealer at 10 South La Salle street, in the Superior court of Judge Walter T. Stanton last week, was contested by the Regans, who filed a bill to impeach the foreclosure. Earlier litigation involved a suit filed by Regan charging that Grady defrauded him in a real estate partnership. This suit was dismissed. Another episode in the two families' dispute concerned a divorce suit brought by Grady against his wife, Eileen, in 1930. Mrs. Regan testified against her brother at the trial of this suit.

MURDER VERDICT AT INQUEST.

A verdict of murder by persons unknown was returned yesterday by the coroner's jury that investigated the death on March 29 of Anton Fallmerayer, 60 years old 6436 Northwest highway, of injuries incurred in an attack in the basement of his home.

THROUGH THE LOOKING GLASS

Professional attention is the best guardian of the wide, beautiful smile that reveals pearly teeth. But there's a new little home helper on the market—a brush which makes gum massage as simple as scrubbing.

[Columbia Photo.]

All the old recipes of what makes news—man biting dog, the first robin, a singing mouse, murders, fires or abdications—go by the board in this column today. What makes news here isn't even a new beauty preparation. It is, of all things, a tooth brush!

We have a hunch that since the great day almost a century and a half ago when an oral hygiene enthusiast worked out the first clumsy combination of handle and bristles there hasn't been a toothbrush development as important as that which makes news today.

You all know how dentists plead with you to massage your gums as well as to brush your teeth. This new brush makes both almost automatic. With this the "rotary motion" is just an instinctive gesture of handle manipulation. Teeth are scrubbed and gums massaged without thinking twice about it. Any temptation to brush straight across is instantly strangled. We think it's the answer to the dentist's prayer and to the John and Jane Smiths' too.

You should be glad to know that the brush itself has plenty of sound research behind it. The makers asked thousands of dentists to take part in a tooth brush clinic, then built a brush that conformed with the majority of professional preferences in every respect — size, spacing of bristles, length of bristles, stiffness of bristles, and shape in general. And of the finished product we, for one, can scream the catch line from "The Follies!" They've really got something there.

Bristle tufts are three across, six in length, hard, medium or soft. The brush cleans like everything; twist the handle and the gums are massaged.

All this scientific perfection doesn't mean that this new brush is expensive. A couple of quarters and it's yours!

Never Believe Wrinkles Are "Inevitable"

BY ANTOINETTE DONNELLY.

[Copyright: 1937: By The Chicago Tribune-N. Y. News Syndicate, Inc.]

All this chatter suggesting we be philosophical about the first wrinkles because they are bound to appear sooner or later, may have been all right when women were contented to stay at home, but in this day and age when women are up and doing all the time, it doesn't hold. The idea today is to postpone their appearance indefinitly, and it's surprising how successful your efforts will be, if they become a part of your daily beauty routine.

With mirror in hand, scrutinize your face. Keep in mind there are certain expression lines you want to keep there because they are character lines. Without them, the face would be a blank. Lines have a way of registering one's outlook on life, of telling whether yours is a cheerful disposition, with the ability to take things as they come, or whether or not you are a worrier who etches needless lines into what might be a serene countenance, and without rime or reason.

Lines that suggest an ability to laugh even though things are not as you would have them, such as the upturned mouth corners, are not lines that suggest you should get busy and erase them. They are by way of being an asset.

Be certain to get the proper amount of rest and sleep. It helps you to relax.

If lines are due to a too dry skin, the deficiency in oil may be counteracted by the daily application of a nourishing cream. It's not enough to spread the cream onto the face. It must be worked into the skin with massage to be effective. And the massage answers a double purpose. It arouses circulation in the tissues so the skin will be nourished from within as well as softened in the outer surface. Facial movements always should be upward to guard against any tendency toward drooping.

BY MARY MEADE.

[Copyright: 1937: By The Chicago Tribune.]

"Your spinach roots are growing turnips!" wrote my family the summer I'd gone off on a camping trip, leaving them to tend my first garden. I hadn't counted on that. I'd planted two full rows of spinach, and I'd been cooking it for the family off and on for several weeks, too. This intended jibe at my gardening ability ricocheted back to the jibers, for if I had not recognized turnip tops when I cooked them, neither had they recognized turnip tops when they ate them!

We liked spinach. We didn't like turnips much. But we had to do something about them. For, like Mr. Finney's turnip which grew behind the barn, these two rows of turnips also "grew and they grew." They grew bigger and fatter and their tops grew too tough to eat, so we had to eat the turnips themselves. Which didn't prove to be an ordeal at all!

One of the simplest and best ways to serve cooked turnips is to cut them into balls with a melon ball cutter, boil them until tender, and serve them with salt, pepper, and plenty of butter. Another delicious turnip dish may be made by dicing the vegetable and scalloping it in a dish with cheese and cracker crumbs. Large turnips may be hollowed out to make cases for other vegetables, such as peas.

Fresh green peas are expensive if you buy enough to serve more than several persons in the usual way, but if you pack them into turnip cups they stretch a great deal farther.

Green Peas in Turnip Cups

[Serves Four]

4 medium turnips
1 pound peas, shelled [1 cup after shelling]
1 tablespoon parsley
Butter or cream sauce
Salt, pepper

Peel the turnips and cook them in boiling, salted water. Cook the peas in boiling, salted water until tender. Hollow the turnips and fill them with the peas, which have been buttered or creamed. Add any seasoning necessary, place the filled turnips in a shallow pan in which there is a small amount of water, and set them in a 350 degree oven for a few minutes until the tops are slightly browned.

Glazed Young Turnips

Cook young turnips in boiling, salted water until tender. Drain and brown them in melted butter. Season with salt, paprika, and sugar, and drain off the butter. Dissolve a bouillon cube in a small amount of water and pour it over the turnips. Simmer until nearly dry and sprinkle a little chopped parsley over the turnips before serving.

Applesauce Turnips

[Serves Four]

2 cups mashed turnips
⅔ cup unsweetened applesauce
2 tablespoons butter
Salt, pepper

Combine ingredients, pile in a buttered baking dish, and place in a moderate [350 degrees] oven until thoroughly hot. Cooked, sieved apples may be used instead of the canned applesauce.

Dirndl Frock for Girls

GIRL'S DRESS.

Although the dirndl mode has taken the adult fashion world by storm, the style is particularly adaptable to juvenile frocks, too. The model illustrated today is an example of this. All the marks of grownup styling are apparent: The fitted bodice, full shirred skirt and generously puffed sleeves. The collar has a new note. It is squared smartly in the front and preserves those lines even in the back. Rickrack braid does a great deal for collar, sleeves and bodice closing, and it is a time saver for mothers who sew this frock. A pretty ribbon or soft lether belt finishes the waistline. In the case of the frock for the very little girl, the collar may be omitted, and the neckline edged instead with the braid. The toddler's dress may have the sash tied in the back.

Style No. 3145 is designed for sizes 6, 8, 10, 12, and 14 years. Size 8 requires 1⅞ yards of 39 inch material, with ¼ yard of 39 inch contrasting for the belt and bow, and ⅝ yard of 39 inch contrasting for collar and 1⅛ yards of braid.

Pep Is Shown in Writing of a Lion Tamer

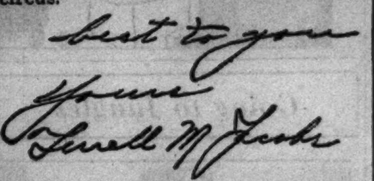
BY MURIEL STAFFORD.

[Copyright: 1937: By Muriel Stafford.]

How does a lion tamer write? I've wondered about that for years but the handwriting of a real honest-to-goodness lion tamer never fell into my hands until today. This is the handwriting of Terrell M. Jacobs, lion tamer for the Hagenbeck-Wallace circus.



best to you
Yours
Terrell M Jacobs

Of course, as any graphologist would expect, there is extreme vitality in this writing. Not the kind of vitality that a prize fighter has, for most prize fighters write heavily. This is the kind that should be called "pep" and if you've ever seen a tamer at work you'll understand how handy such a quality would be.

The upward slant of the handwriting and the full lower loops in the letters "y" and "j" reveal the "pep" mentioned. The upward slant of the lines reflects not only health but plenty of courage as well.

These things are to be expected, but it never occurred to me that a lion tamer must be a kindly, sensitive fellow to hold his job. Notice the rather light pressure and the very forward slant of the words. He's so sympathetic and responsive that you could almost call him a sentimentalist. Word endings show kindliness and consideration.

From the way those tamers crack their whips you would think they were trying to scare the lions and tigers. You know how the lions advance with a terrifying roar and seem to be frightened back. They aren't frightened; they just appreciate the way they are treated and recognize their friend. Why eat him up when he's so nice, decide the kingly lions.

Shoo Fly.

Patterns of this design are 5 cents, stamps or coin. Address Nancy Cabot, Chicago Tribune, or call at one of the Tribune Public Service offices, 1 South Dearborn street or Tribune Tower.

BY NANCY CABOT.

There is hardly a person living who knows the least bit about quilts, who doesn't recognize the old "Shoo Fly" pattern. It was the original nine patch from which so many well known patterns have evolved. Originally these pieced blocks were set together in an alternate arrangement with plain white blocks. A modern arrangement of this old pattern is created by setting the pieced and plain blocks together in a diagonal arrangement, finishing the edge of the quilt with plain half and quarter blocks, and binding with a one-half inch bias finish.

Culbertson's "Gold Book of Bidding and Play"

Herewith is presented another portion of Mr. Culbertson's latest work on contract, the "Gold Book of Bidding and Play," which is being reproduced in this column in daily installments.

SHOWING PREFERENCE.

[Copyright: 1937: By Ely Culbertson.]

When the opener has bid two suits the responder must show which he prefers [unless he is strong enough to bid a suit of his own, or to bid no trump]. His choice will be made as follows:

1. With equal length in each of the opener's suits [such as 3 and 3], he usually should prefer the first bid suit, even though the second is stronger in high cards.

2. With greater length in one suit, he should prefer that suit, even though he has higher cards in the other. [He will prefer the suit in which he holds 6 5 4 to the suit in which he holds A J].

Exception: When the opener has reversed he shows a four card length in his second suit. The responder should not raise this suit without at least four trumps. He should return to the first bid suit, no matter how weak his hand, if he has three cards in each suit. He may pass, if his hand is very weak, holding two cards of partner's first suit and three cards of the second. Preference may be shown by [a] passing the second bid suit, or [b] returning to the first bid suit at the lowest possible level. These are both minimum responses.

The bidding:

| North | East | South | West |
|---|---|---|---|
| 1 club | Pass | 1 heart | Pass |
| 1 spade | Pass | 3 spades | Pass |
| 4 hearts | Pass | Pass | Pass |

North's first bid was correct under the preparedness principles. Over South's response of one heart North correctly showed his spade suit, but when South confirmed this suit by means of a jump North should not have looked for greener fields. He knew that South knew the spade suit to be only four long, since it was shown secondarily, and South, therefore, would not offer such strong support on less than four trumps. That being true, why should North seek a better contract than spades? If North had felt that his hand was not strong enough to play for ten tricks and had decided to investigate no trump possibilities by answering three spades with three no trump, he could not be criticized, but the fact that he engaged for ten tricks with his four heart bid robs him of any alibi whatsoever. When the four heart bid got back to South the latter could read it in only one of two possible ways: First, that it was a slam try, or second, that North's spade bid had been psychic. So South correctly decided to pass.

At the four heart contract South soon lost control of the hand. It was not to his discredit that he went down three tricks. With spades as trump North would have had no difficulty and either would have made game or gone down one, depending on how he guessed the heart queen.

TODAY'S QUESTION.

Question: Should I raise partner's opening bid of one heart to two with the following:

♠974 ♥J642 ♦KJ10 ♣863

Answer: Yes.

Question: Neither side was vulnerable. West, my partner, opened the bidding with three no trump. North overcalled with four diamonds. I held ♠987652 ♥none ♦none ♣J1087643. What should I have done?

Answer: A four spade bid is the least of many evils with this terrific freak. A slam may depend only on how much of partner's advertised strength is in your suits, but a slam try by you, with no high cards, would be just a shot in the dark.

Two Weddings of Winter Are Made Known

Bridegrooms Prominent Chicagoans.

BY JUDITH CASS.

WEDDING and engagement announcements are a social column's most interesting news. The two marriages that we are announcing this morning are not news in the sense that they just have taken place, but they are news because this is the first time either has been announced publicly.

Probably the two couples do not know each other; the reason we are associating them is because both are marriages of people of mature age, they took place about the same time and no formal announcement was made of either at the time.

News of the weddings will not come as a surprise to the relatives and intimate friends of either couple but many casual friends and acquaintances will be surprised to hear that Morris M. Townley and Robert Ralsston Fauntleroy each has taken a bride this winter.

Mr. Townley, Lake Forest resident and well known Chicago attorney who retired the first of the year, was married in New Mexico about two months ago to Miss Catherine Newton of Chicago.

Mr. Fauntleroy's marriage to Mrs. Nell Carson Lubeck of Detroit took place about the same time in Tryon, N. C., at the home of her mother, Mrs. J. Frank Kelly.

Fourth Marriage For Mr. Townley.

This is Mr. Townley's fourth matrimonial venture. His second wife, Mrs. Ephra Townley, visited in Chicago last summer and his third wife, the former Muriel Mertens of Highland Park, now is Mrs. Charles Raynard of Tucson, Ariz. The second Mrs. Morris Townley has lived in Paris since her divorce there in May, 1923, with occasional visits to her old home. Miss Mertens and Mr. Townley were married in December, 1923, and divorced in Tucson in August, 1935. The Raynard-Townley wedding took place shortly after that.

Mr. Townley and his bride are making their home in Rancho Santa Fe, which is between Los Angeles and San Diego.

Mr. Fauntleroy, head of an iron and steel corporation and one of the Fox River valley's best known residents, and his bride are at home in the charming house on Batavia road, Geneva, where he has lived for some years. The former Mrs. Eric Lubeck is his third wife; his first, Mrs. Catharine Gaylord Fauntleroy, lives in Houston, Tex., and his second, Mrs. Elizabeth Cheatham Baker Fauntleroy, has lived in New York for several years.

The present Mrs. Fauntleroy was Miss Nell Oakley Carson of Chicago and Geneva before her marriage over a quarter of a century ago to Mr. Lubeck of Detroit. They resided in Geneva for a few years after their marriage so it is like coming home to Mrs. Fauntleroy return to the little town west of Chicago, and she is being welcomed warmly by her old friends and Mr. Fauntleroy's brother and sister, Gorton Fauntleroy and Mrs. Herbert P. Zimmerman whose homes also are in Batavia road. Another brother, Eugene Fauntleroy, lives in Lake Forest.

Mr. and Mrs. Fauntleroy each have grandchildren for his son, Gaylord Fauntleroy, who lives in Houston, has three children and Mrs. Fauntleroy has two married daughters, both of whom live in Detroit, and have children of their own.

Another Marriage Is Made Known.

Another marriage which cannot be said to be news, but which cannot be known to many in social circles for directories still list the bride as Mrs. Richard O. Miller [Violet Bingham], took place in May, 1935. Mrs. Miller was the bride and Wendell Hopkins was the bridegroom. Both are former Chicagoans. Mr. and Mrs. Hopkins now divide their time between 12 East 97th street, New York, and their farm in Vermont.

It was a surprise in a 1937 direc-

Field Chorus Gives Another Good Concert

BY EDWARD BARRY.

The Marshall Field & Co. choral society, comprising more than 150 men and women employés, gave its spring concert at the Auditorium theater last night. Edgar Nelson conducted and a portion of the Chicago Symphony orchestra provided the accompaniments.

Three guest artists assisted—Rosa Tentoni, soprano; Rose Bampton, mezzo-soprano, and Joseph Bentonelli, tenor. The fourth soloist, R. H. Harper, baritone, is a member of the choral society.

These impressive forces delighted a large audience with a program that began with standard choral music, introduced several operatic excerpts and some lighter things of folklike character, and concluded with a performance of the A. Goring Thomas cantata, "The Swan and the Skylark."

The precision of Mr. Nelson's conducting and of this choral society's singing are old stories as far as Chicago is concerned. Something new to the majority of the audience was Rose Bampton in her mezzo-soprano incarnation. Once famous as a contralto, she has succeeded in extending her range without sacrificing the dusky attractiveness of the deeper voice.

To those of us who know the light, well focused voice of Joseph Bentonelli from his many appearances in opera, it was startling last evening to find the tenor making such hard going of A. Goring Thomas' anemic music.

Keats, in a moment when he was not fully himself, had written words for the legendary death song of a swan. The composer fastened on this unappetizing idea and set the swan's trite observations to music. Unfortunate Mr. Bentonelli had to sing these passages and, for some reason or other, he found it hard to keep the usually patrician line of his phrasing and prevent his tones from spreading.

In Orchestra hall last night the Chicago Lutheran Festival chorus and the Carthage college a cappella choir shared a program that delved for several of its items into the magnificent musical treasury of the church. This means that a generous amount of Bach was included. The concert was sponsored by the Chicago Inner Mission society and the Pastoral association of the United Lutheran church.

The festival chorus, drawn from the choirs of many Chicago churches, turns out to be a sturdy body of close to 200 voices. Its work is straightforward, its tone colorings simple, as befits the nobility of the music which must form the staple of its répertoire. David Nyvall directed.

The Carthage choir, from the Illinois college and town of the same name, was disappointing because of the failure of the men's voices to blend into the whole and permit a smooth, tonally beautiful performance of polyphonic music. The women, too, could be criticized for the somewhat artificial quality of their effects.

These caustic observations refer to the choir's Bach singing. The Russian vesper hymn which opened the program requires less simplicity and directness than the Bach and its performance was very beautiful.

Washington to Open Cherry Blossom Fete at Sunrise Today

Washington, D. C., April 7.—(AP)—The cherry blossom craze which subs for spring fever in the capital broke out today in advance of tomorrow's cherry blossom festival.

Signs along all highways pointed to the blossom bordered tidal basin in the shadow of Washington monument, where Miss Sakiko Saito, daughter of the Japanese ambassador, will be crowned tomorrow evening.

Bars featured cherry blossom cocktails. Department stores advertised cherry blossom sales. Fountains offered cherry blossom sundaes. Cherry blossom dinners and dances were the vogue.

Bona fide Japanese cherry trees coöperated heartily by bursting into pink blooms. Dancers in bare feet rehersed symbolic interpretations of Japanese legends for the sunrise program at the basin opening of the festival tomorrow.

Bonnet Dinner Distinguished Social Event

Envoy, La Salle Mission Guests in City.

BY INDIA MOFFETT.

Being first a woman and then a social editor, I must find fault with the dinner given last night by the France-America society in honor of the French Ambassador Georges Bonnet and the Cavelier de La Salle mission because there were only men at the speakers' table.

Why, when there were such lovely women as Mme. Bonnet, Mrs. Orville Taylor, whose husband as president of the society presided, Mme. René Weiller, whose husband is the French consul; and various others, should there have been only men at the head table?

It was un-par-don-able, as one of the French guests said, for the other guests to have nothing but men in black suits, white vests and white ties, and inches of decorations to look at, when there were so many lovely women in the ballroom who might have been at the speakers' table.

But it was a distinguished party, just the same, the dinner given in the crystal ballroom of the Blackstone hotel for the fifteen French men and women and the same number of French-Canadians who were here to observe the 250th anniversary of the death of La Salle on the banks of the Mississippi and to honor the colonization of North America by France.

M. Weiller, Robert Hall McCormick, vice president of the France-America Society of Chicago; the Rev. Olivier Maurault, rector of the University of Montreal, who delivered the invocation; Gen. Charles G. Dawes, Gen. Charles D. Herron, Gov. Horner, Ambassador Bonnet, M. André Chevrillon, president of the French delegation of the mission; Mayor Kelly, Rear Admiral Ellis, M. Raymond-Laurent, president of the municipal council of Paris; the Marquis de Crequi-Montfort de Courtivron, and Ira Nelson Morris were seated at the table with Mr. Taylor.

Mr. Taylor first introduced Mayor Kelly, who delighted his audience by telling a story apropos Mr. Taylor's introduction about the Irish woman who upon hearing the clergyman's eulogistic remarks about her dead husband said to her son, "See if there's another corpse in the church."

M. Chevrillon, who first visited Chicago 44 years ago was the next speaker and then the Marquis de Crequi-Montfort spoke. Edouard Fabre-Surveyer, president of the Canadiana delegation, was not present, so M. Raymond-Laurent spoke in his place.

Gov. Horner and M. Bonnet concluded the program. Among those who attended the dinner were Postmaster Ernest Kruetgen and Mrs. Kruetgen, Mr. and Mrs. Michael L. Igoe, Robert H. McCormick III. and his fiancée, Miss Helen Bersbach, Mrs. L. Hamilton McCormick, Mr. and Mrs. William A. Yager, Miss Anna Fitzu and her sister, Mrs. Ernest R. Graham, Vincent Bendix, Frank T. Dillingham of Honolulu, who is visiting his daughter, Mrs. Dana Dawes; Mrs. Townsend McKeever, Miss Gertrude McCarthy, Robert Fernald, Mr and Mrs. Charles S. Parrot—Slanguage—Old Lady—Letter.

THE talking parrot on the bill at the Chicago theater this week brings to mind the equally talented bird that is the pet of a distinguished Chicago gentleman. The Chicagoan's parrot sings "Poor Butterfly," taking the high notes at the end of the phrase with incredible bravura; calls "Kitty, kitty, kitty" in a gay falsetto, says many words and phrases, and barks like a dog. He displayed the latter talent to great advantage on a recent evening when, perched on his owner's shoulder, they went to call on a man in the same apartment building. The other man's Gordon setter barked rudely at them and the parrot completely disconcerted the dog by barking right back at him. His owner's probity is not to be questioned—he is Mr. Charles Barney Goodspeed—and his identity adds weight to an otherwise incredible tale. Mr. Goodspeed, arriving home after a visit to the dentist's, commented within the parrot's hearing that the dentist had hurt him considerably. At this the bird began to cackle with laughter.

"What's the matter with you?" demanded Mr. Goodspeed.

The parrot, fixing its bright eyes on him, answered shrilly, "I haven't got any teeth."

THE second section of Sir William Craigie's Dictionary of American English the University of Chicago Press is publishing will be out shortly. The first section runs through the a's and the b's to "baggage." The dictionary will be published in some twenty sections. After each word the date on which it first appeared in print is in parenthesis, followed by the definition. Some of the "b" slang words in the new dictionary of American English:

Big gun [1834].
Blatherskite [1791].
Blister [1854], an annoying person.
Blue light [1856], stool pigeon.
Blizzard [1829], sharp blow.
Balmy [1850].
Blow [1827].
Bender [1846], a drinking spree.

LITTLE old lady. You must have seen her. Twice a day she goes through the loop—frail, tumbled white hair under a poor excuse for a hat, attired in old purple rags secured with safety pins and rope. She might be about 80 years old. She wears dilapidated rubbers for shoes. The weather apparently has little effect upon her, for she wears the same rags winter and summer, and has for some five years.

It has been observed that when she reaches a tavern on State street near Lake street she steps off the sidewalk into the street and walks around it as if it were contamination to approach it too closely. North State street storekeepers and shoppers have been speculating as to her identity during the five years she has been observed going her rounds.

LETTER received by adjusting bureau of a State street department store:

"Gentlemen:

"Inclosed find check for $3.0 to settle balance shown on your books as due you. Of this sum $1.45, plus 13 cents postage, is for one copy of O. Henry. That's okay. I ordered the O. Henry. I got the O. Henry. I now pay for the O. Henry.

"I ordered one cigaret case in December.

"You sent two.

"I returned one.

"You sent it back to me.

"I wrote you saying I'd ordered only one.

"You wrote me saying I could send it back.

"I sent it back.

"You returned it saying that on account of the initials you couldn't accept it. . . . I'm tired of paying postage on the doggone thing . . . so here's your money.

"But that isn't the last straw. My wife ordered an egg poacher. You sent a cookie dough squirter. We have a cookie dough squirter. We don't have an egg poacher. We don't want a cookie dough squirter. We do want an egg poacher. I hesitate to return the cookie dough squirter lest it start on a series of travels similar to those of the cigaret case.

"Now, personally I like to buy from your store, but if there is any more of this monkey business I'll trade somewhere else. After all, even under the New Deal a customer likes to get what he ordered — no more, no less, no different."

Good Morning!

KIND: Soviet propaganda.

ACTING and DIRECTION: Intelligent.

PHOTOGRAPHY: There are excellent scenic effects. As regards individuals the camera work seems rather flat—reminiscent of that in films of an earlier day.

STORY: Of a Jewish family who immigrate to Birobidjan, on the shores of Amur, where they join a soviet collective farm project. Their experiences form the narrative's pith. The picture has some romance, some humor and a soupcon of tragedy. There are characteristic celebrations and folk songs.

AUDIENCE APPEAL: From the general interest point of view, this is one of the best feature films the Russians have put out.

The Julian theater is showing an all Swedish comedy called "Froken Blir Piga" [Girl Goes Domestic]. It is built for Swedish people only, in that it has no English subtitles. The piece tells the story of the adventures encountered by a Stockholm girl who, under an assumed name, becomes housekeeper at a small rural manor house.

The cast is headed by Marianne Lofgren and Ernst Eklund.

Philadelphia Lawyer Figures Other Bridge Aces; Named Champ

New York, April 7.—(AP)—B. J. Becker, a Philadelphia lawyer who moved to New York only two weeks ago, tonight won the American Bridge league's national masters' tournament in a blanket finish that saw only three match points span the first three places.

With 614 points Becker compansated for a heart breaking loss in the same tournament three years ago when a revision in the official scoring cost him the title by a half point after he had been accepting congratulations of his fellow aces for a half hour.

As the team of four event started tonight, Becker was still not accepting congratulations, despite assurances that the score had been triple checked.

The point and a half by which he beat out George Unger, also of New York, seemed too slim for complete comfort, but wide enough for elation. Unger's 612½ looked good for the title for some time as the scorers went through their arduous task of compiling totals for 36 aces from America and Canada.

Smart Clothes Add New Joys to Gardening

You'll Be Feminine While You Till Soil.

BY RHEA SEEGER.

Influences from the flower show! Hunger for new garden tools, for a couple of acres of garden, seed packets by the dozen, or literature by the ton when you can't have the rest of the things.

One good way to appease this nostalgia is to buy garden gadgets, or better yet, good reasonable garden clothes.

You can spend your money for nice red wheelbarrows, not so much to push dirt around with but as the decorative way of having Sunday morning breakfast out of doors the first chance you may get.

You can invest in glistening white garden furniture, awnings, and potted plants to cherish on the window sill, but you'll probably buy, if you are a good descendant of Eve, all the grand garden clothes.

Smocks, overalls, garden shirts, floppy brimmed hats, modernized versions of the old fashioned sun bonnets, gloves, kneeling pads, and some grand new slacks, shirts, and smocks in dyed unbleached muslin are among the selections. This muslin stuff is soft, yet sturdy, comes in a nice rustic semi-crinkled texture and the colors are something to get excited about. The mixing tricks bloom in garden clothes as well as on the boulevard. Wear slacks of one color, shirts of a contrast, and even a third shade for the smock. Deep pockets, and plenty of them, are patched to both smocks and shirts.

Delightfully faded blue denim makes some more winning slacks, shirts, and smocks, but the coverall dresses, brand new this year, will take anybody's money. These Miss Muffet dresses are of bright red and white dotted cotton, or in a faded blue with white dots. Demure deep yoke front and back, shirred-to-the-yoke bodices, and short puffed sleeves accent the circular cut full skirt. Neck, cuffs, tie sash and skirt hem are edged with white rickrack braid. They open and tie at the back and are worn with shorts, slacks, or another dress.

Zippers in bright color go up the front of some knockout garden frocks of dyed muslin. These have short sleeves and a slim straight streamline, with only the zippers for decoration. Crownless hats in sunbonnet form are edged with chintz or the dotted cotton of the dresses.

You will go feminine this year when you garden if you're wise to the decorative allure of these fetching, moderately priced garden frocks.

And don't forget to buy yourself a raffia garden doll. As you plan you denude the poor little thing, taking a strand of raffia from her long shirt to identify the probable flowers from your collection of seeds.

ADVERTISE IN THE CHICAGO TRIBUNE

TRUTH TO TELL

By Alice Grant Rosman

[Copyright: 1937: By Alice Grant Rosman.]

SYNOPSIS.

Malcolm and Susan Dubenny's parents died in a flu epidemic during the war. Susan was taken by her mother's parents, the Somervilles. Mrs. Somerville refused the boy in hatred of his father who had eloped with her daughter. Malcolm went to live with his Aunt Lorna and Uncle Hugh Lowell, his father's half-brother. When 15, Malcolm, who had not seen his little sister for nine years, went on a secret mission to Crofter's End, the Somerville estate. In the woods of the estate the children met. Susan denied she had a brother. Malcolm left, deeply hurt. Mr. Somerville's sister, Alison Loftus, returns to England after a long absence and visits Crofter's End. She antagonizes Mrs. Somerville by her concern about the fate of the boy, Malcolm, and her visit is cut short. Mrs. Somerville fires a faithful servant, Ella Winch, without notice for falling in love. Sue flies to her defense. Mr. Somerville makes up the injustice and sends Ella to his sister, and promises Sue to send her to boarding school.

INSTALMENT XXII.

CHARLOTTE'S FOLLY.

And then, having given up any idea of ever coming across news of Malcolm Dubenny, Irene Lord heard his name.

She was staying with friends in the country and a young nephew of the house had come to them for half term from his school some miles away.

Out in the garden on Sunday morning with the children and half a dozen dogs, she heard the small boy holding forth to his cousins:

"And then Dubenny said . . ."

Irene pounced upon him.

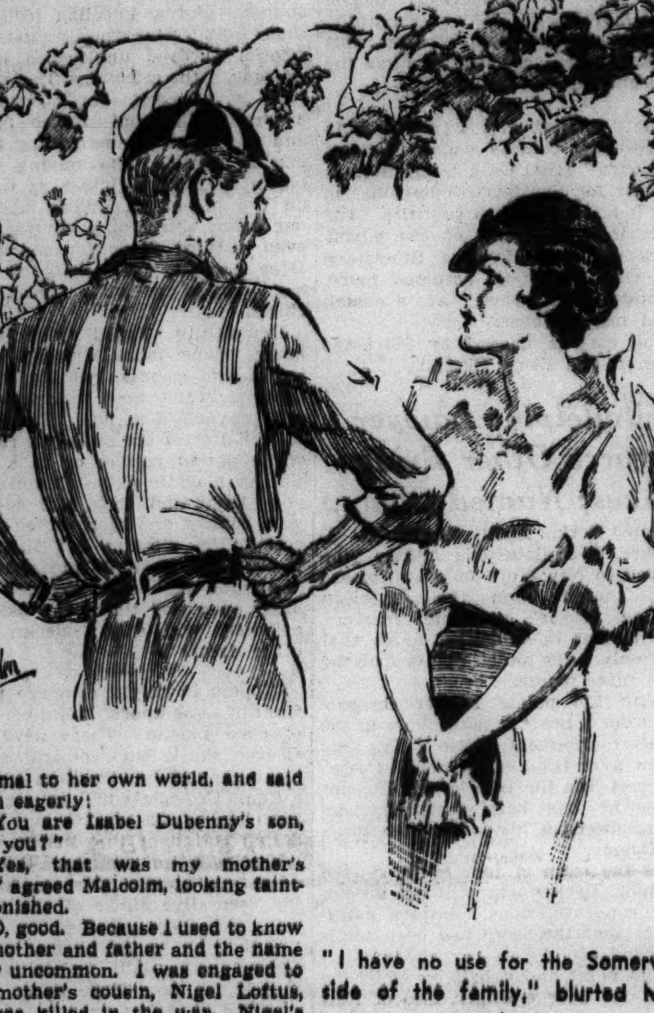
"Is Dubenny at your school? Is his name Malcolm Dubenny, Jack?"

Jack didn't know. Dubenny was head of Fletcher's house and an awfully big pot, he said.

This impressive statement was naturally fuel to Mrs. Lord's fire. How pleased Mrs. Loftus would be if she could produce her lost nephew and in such a satisfactory guise. She enlisted the interest of her host and hostess, who promised to drive her over to a cricket match at the school.

The visit was made, the Dubenny proved to be none other than Malcolm, and the headmaster affably summoned him for presentation to Mrs. Lord, while he was waiting to bat.

She found herself facing a tall, fair, sunburned young man, reassuringly normal to her own world, and said to him eagerly:



"I have no use for the Somerville side of the family," blurted Malcolm.

"You are Isabel Dubenny's son, aren't you?"

"Yes, that was my mother's name," agreed Malcolm, looking faintly astonished.

"O, good. Because I used to know your mother and father and the name is very uncommon. I was engaged to your mother's cousin, Nigel Loftus, who was killed in the war. Nigel's mother has been anxious to know what became of you, Mr. Dubenny, and will like to hear I've seen you. Are you ever in London, because perhaps you would care to come along and meet her in the holidays. She is your great-aunt, of course."

"I'm afraid I never heard of her," said Malcolm, evasively.

"I daresay not. She has been abroad for years and therefore didn't know your whereabouts, but she's charming and I'm sure you'd like her. Couldn't we arrange a date to suit you now?"

"If you don't mind. . . . Well, the fact is," blurted Malcolm, "I have no use for the Somerville side of the family."

"O dear!" Irene stared at him in dismay, then she laughed, provoking a reluctant smile from the boy. "I do seem to have put my foot into it. I am disappointed, but I suppose if you feel like that, there's nothing more to be said, is there?"

"No. . . . It's jolly kind of you, all the same."

"'Kind,'" wailed Irene, recounting the story to Mrs. Loftus later. "I could have shaken him, for really he was rather a dear. I hope I haven't made matters worse by rushing in. At least you know where he is now. Couldn't you go down to the school and beard the lion in his den?"

"More likely a young cub," put in the Admiral, "overcome by his own importance. After all, this bears out what we know. His guardians are hostile and he takes his tone quite properly from them. And he is clearly in need of no help from us, Alison."

She agreed, yet on later reflection she saw that however much he might have been instructed in the fancied crimes of the Somervilles by his father's people, Malcolm was growing to an age to judge these matters for himself. She therefore wrote a brief note and sent it to him at the school:

"Dear Malcolm:

"I am sorry to hear you dislike the Somervilles, but if you should change your mind on this point, or there is anything one of them can do for you, perhaps you will come and see

"Your affectionate great-aunt, ALISON LOFTUS."

Malcolm did not answer this letter, but sent it to Hugh Lowell with an account of his meeting with Mrs. Lord and the scornful comment:

"Perhaps they would like to change my name, too. That tale about wanting to know my whereabouts is pretty thin—trying to get at me behind your back, I suppose—after the insulting correspondence you had from the family long ago. May I see it some time, by the way? . . ."

Lorna was convinced that his mother's relatives, finding him presentable, now wanted to claim his acquaintance.

Hugh, however, wrote to Malcolm:

"It would be courteous to acknowledge your great-aunt's letter, however briefly. After all, if Mrs. Loftus is well disposed to you, hasn't it occurred to you that she may be the means of putting you in touch with your sister by-and-by? I believe even in Corsica vendettas are going out of fashion, but even if you don't care to be up to date, can't you realize that hatred is a compliment to the enemy, anti-social and a gross self-indulgence? Yes, you can see the correspondence if you insist, you damned young fool."

Malcolm made no direct reply to this letter, and when he came home from camp in excellent spirits brought with him a tentative suggestion that he should join Tim for a couple of weeks tramping along the Rhine. The financier Tim had worked out the cost to an amazingly low figure and the Lowells agreed to the expedition at once.

The night before he left Malcolm remarked casually to his uncle:

"O, by the way, I wrote to that Mrs. Loftus—only a line though."

As for the Somerville correspondence, he never referred to it again.

The line which "that Mrs. Loftus" received amused her greatly.

"Dear Madam:

"Thank you very much. Yours truly,
MALCOLM DUBENNY."

It was dated from an address in Kew on printed stationery in impeccable taste, and she supposed the matter had been canvassed at home and the young man ordered to be courteous.

Her mind went back to Crofter's End and the little girl who still, she supposed, knew nothing of her brother's existence or her own name, wondering what the outcome of Charlotte's folly was to be.

Ella Winch had now been a week with Admiral and Mrs. Loftus. She and Michael enjoyed making a fuss over the girl and giving her a little pleasure. Donald Rich had already lunched at the flat and it had been arranged that while he put the house in order against their marriage Ella should remain where she was.

The trousseau was already under way and Ella's trunk, sent up by Jonathan for collection from the railway station so that no one should be any wiser, was gradually filling with articles which Mrs. Loftus found she had no place for but which might be useful in the new home.

Bullying as Wrong in Child as in Grownup

BY GLADYS HUNTINGTON BEVANS

The mother who has a sensitive child and sees it being teased can't help feeling a sympathetic pang. Children seem so helpless and miserable in the face of teasing.

Yesterday we were talking about the child who is teased by a grown person, the harm it does, and how important it is that it be stopped.

One of the commonest kinds of teasing is that done by an older child to a younger.

"There's Joe," said a mother looking out of the window when the doorbell rang. Her sigh she kept to herself, but she and the nurse exchanged glances when her child—10 year old Joe's small cousin—scurried around and hid all his favorite toys, while his spirits drooped visibly. They knew the afternoon probably would end in tears, or else an outburst of anger with: "Don't you come to my house any more! I don't like you!"

* * *

Some children have a lot of the tease in them, a touch of the sadistic, some persons believe. In any case they can't as a rule get away with it with a child their own age, so they pick on one much smaller. Usually they outgrow this. Nevertheless, it is not only the mother whose child is being teased who should be on the alert. The child who does too much teasing should be watched. He may develop into a bully, and the cause of that should be looked into. Especially if a child is ridiculing a physical peculiarity in another should his mother take matters in hand.

Generally speaking, a little teasing has to be expected and a child, if he is not too young, can be taught to take it. He can be made to see that if he flies into a rage, or cries, or runs to his mother he is doing just what the one who is teasing him finds funny. If he can get the slant that it is a kind of game in which he can play a part too, and ignore his teaser, he probably will learn some sort of wholesome defense.

And ordinarily, children's differences are best settled among themselves. But when teasing is an habitual thing, some grown person who has watched proceedings should step in and stop it. Long-continued teasing is destructive.

Teasing occurs a great deal among children from 8 to 12. We have a fully written booklet about this age, called "Living with Our In-Betweens, the Children from 8 to 12." It will be sent on receipt of a 3-cent stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request.

Two Weddings of Winter Are Made Known

Bridegrooms Prominent Chicagoans.

tory to see the marriage of Miss Beatrice Katz and John Young Fairbank, one of Mrs. Dexter Fairbank's sons, listed as having taken place on Sept. 12, 1934, for we have no record of it. Miss Elsie Herriman of Morocco, Ind., was married to young Mr. Fairbank in January, 1930, after which they went to Florida to live. Mr. Fairbank and his present wife live at 500 Diversey parkway.

N. Landon Hoyt and his bride, formerly Miss Marianne Van Guest of St. Louis, are in New York after a wedding trip through England but whether they will come to Winnetka or go to the bridegroom's home in Green Cove Springs, Fla., his sons, William M. and N. Landon Jr., do not know. The Hoyt-Van Guest wedding took place on Feb. 13 in St. Louis.

Winter Vacationists Return to Homes.

From the south and west winter vacationers are returning to Chicago. Potter Palmer and his daughter, Miss Pauline Palmer, and the junior Mr. and Mrs. Potter Palmer returned last Sunday from their Sarasota, Fla., home. The senior Mrs. Palmer will arrive next Sunday, after bidding farewell to her neighbors, the Honoré Palmers and the Stanley Fields, who have not yet set a date for their arrival in Chicago.

Mrs. John F. L. Curtis is expected soon, perhaps next week, from California. Mrs. W. Irving Osborne and Mrs. Curtis have been spending the winter in Pasadena.

Mrs. Frederic W. Upham went out to California to spend six weeks, but is staying longer, for she is not expected at her Astor street apartment until April 20. The Charles D. Wimans are expected at their Banks street house perhaps next week from a holiday in Florida that has been extended from week to week.

Mrs. Chester F. Sargent will arrive on Saturday or Sunday from Arizona, where earlier this winter her two daughters, Barbara Ann and Peggy, stayed with her. Miss Barbara Ann has returned to Winnetka, and her sister is back at Smith college.

Ayres Boals Back From Mexican Trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Ayres Boal returned yesterday after two months in Mexico. Victor Elting is in Mexico now, but has not told either of his sons, Victor Jr. or Winston, who live here, when he will be coming home. The junior Mrs. Victor Elting's parents, the W. Edwin Stanleys, have not sent word when to expect them and Miss Barbara Stanley at home from a jaunt to European shores.

Mrs. Cabot Brown was to have arrived yesterday from California to visit her sisters, Mrs. Graham Aldis and Mrs. Luther Hammond Jr., but her trip east was delayed again, this time by the illness of one of her children.

Bodmans Will Sail For Italy on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold C. Bodman and her mother, Mrs. Nicholas de Teresa, are leaving today and will sail Saturday on the Rex for Italy. They will be at their villa near Florence until the middle of July, when they will go to Bavaria for six weeks. They are planning to return to Chicago in November.

Mrs. Arthur A. Small is leaving today to visit her sister, Mrs. Robert R. McCormick, in Aiken, S. C.

At a musical at home yesterday afternoon in Wilmette Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Stuart Campbell announced the engagement of their daughter, Dorothy, to William L. Raub Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. William L. Raub of St. Augustine, Fla.

Miss Campbell is a graduate of Northwestern university, and is a member of the Evanston Junior league. Mr. Raub, who is engaged in business here, is a graduate of Knox college and of the Harvard engineering and business schools.

Two Weddings Will Take Place Today.

Two weddings of interest to Highland Parkers will take place today, one of them in that suburb, and the other in Southport, Conn. The Southport bride is Miss Marjorie Van Schaick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur P. Van Schaick, formerly of Highland Park. She is being married at Trinity church to the Rev. Sewall Emerson, son of Dr. and Mrs. Kendall Emerson of New York City, with a reception following at home. Miss Mary Morris Van Schaick of Chicago will be among her cousin's bridesmaids.

The other bride is Miss Dania Mavor, daughter of the Morton Mavors, whose wedding to Robert R. Mitchell will take place at noon at home, followed by a luncheon. Dr. Louis Sherman of the Highland Park Presbyterian church will read the ceremony at which only the families will be present.

The bride will wear an ankle length gown of tea rose silk with a turban to match, and a corsage of orchids. Her only attendant, Miss Mary Mavor, will be dressed similarly in a harmonizing color. James Mitchell will be his brother's best man. Mr. Mitchell and his bride will make their home in Milwaukee.

Arthur Guiterman will speak on "Humor in Poetry" at 11:30 o'clock this morning at the Woman's Athletic club. Luncheon will be served.

News of the Radio Stations

BY LARRY WOLTERS.

Slip around quietly and cautiously to your neighborhood fire station tonight and you may catch the brawny firemen at work at their spelling books. The husky lads are participating this week in elimination spelldowns, the top 15 to engage the champion spellers of the New York fire department in a contest to be broadcast over WENR-NBC at 3:30 p. m. Saturday.

Kay Kyser's orchestra is to start a new W-G-N and coast to coast Mutual network series in the interests of a motor car maker on Sunday, April 25, from 9 to 9:30 p. m. and Pat Barnes is to open a sponsored Sunday evening broadcast on W-G-N-MBS entitled "Just Between Us." It will be aired at 11:15 p. m. starting May 2.

Paul Whiteman, arriving here yesterday to open an engagement at the Drake and over W-G-N-MBS tomorrow night, was crowned Chicago king of music by order of Mayor Kelly in connection with the celebration of Charter Jubilee.

New York reports say that Show Boat is dropping its present program setup, and probably its name, and moving to Hollywood next fall. Lanny Ross is expected to join another sponsor. Jane Froman and Ford Frick are the guests on Show Boat tonight.

Nelson Eddy is to make his only guest appearance of the season on the Ford Sunday evening hour April 18. On April 26 he will come to Chicago for a concert. . . . Henry Hull [of "Tobacco Road" fame] is to appear in "The Harp," a play by Arch Oboler, Chicago playwright, on the Vallee Varieties tonight. . . . The new "It Can Be Done" show started off brightly enough Tuesday evening with a "life begins at 60" feature. Dr. F. E. Austin told a success story that started at the three score age mark, and Frankie Masters turns out tuneful music.

Ethlyne Claire, a Hollywood Wampas star of a few years back, is here visiting her brother, Malcolm Claire, who broadcasts children's stories for NBC. . . . William Miller, W-G-N and NBC tenor, is to sing with the Chicago Symphony orchestra at Cornell [Ia.] college's music festival on May 8. A week later he will appear at the north shore music festival. . . . Norm Ruvell, formerly with Paul Whiteman and lately on W-G-N's Melodies from the Sky program, is to sing and introduce the show numbers at the Chez Paree starting tomorrow evening.

Little Anne Llewellyn, 5 years old, is to give her version of Lincoln's Gettysburg address in the "Lawyer Lincoln" broadcast over WLS at 8 tonight. . . . Ethel Merman, star of the musical show, "Red, Hot and Blue," which opens in Chicago next Tuesday, is to be James Melton's guest on the Saturday Night Party broadcast this week-end.

Alumni of Ohio Colleges to Meet Next Saturday

Alumni of Ohio colleges living in the Chicago district are invited to attend the first all Ohio alumni luncheon, to be held in the Hotel Sherman Saturday. Edwin W. Schmunk is chairman of the committee in charge. Rufus C. Dawes will introduce the speakers, who will include John W. Bricker, former attorney general of Ohio.

FELON'S SNORE FOOLS NO ONE; ESCAPE FOILED

Takes Plumbing Apart, but Police Catch On.

Vigilance of Lake county deputy sherifs early yesterday frustrated an attempt by Alfred Maurice Hopland, Minnesota ex-convict, to escape from the county jail at Waukegan.

Hopland was trapped last Friday by a radio blockade of twenty-five police cars centered around the Wisconsin-Illinois border as he fled after attempting to rob a Kenosha filling station. Plans for such a blockade to effect the capture of criminals was arranged last February by Chief Deputy Sherif Tom Kennedy of Lake county. Hopland was its first victim.

About 4 a. m. yesterday Harold Scheskie, night jailer, heard noises in a tier of cells where Hopland was kept alone. He found Hopland apparently sleeping, but called a squad car. Deputies Frank Valenta and Frank Kaslausky, from the outside, saw Hopland moving near a washroom. Then they went to his cell. Hopland was snoring, but they found him fully clothed and discovered he had disconnected the washroom plumbing. With a six foot pipe and other equipment he had tried to force the bars of the washroom window.

"If I couldn't get out," Hopland confessed, "I was going to use the pipe on the jailer. I've never killed a man, but I would now. Life isn't worth living if I have to go back to the pen."

CUBS DEFEAT SOX, 10-2; EVEN SPRING SERIES

SIX MEMBERS OF RYDER CUP TEAM NAMED

Other 4 to Be Picked Under New Plan.

New York, April 7.—[Special.]—President George Jacobus of the Professional Golfers' association today named six of the ten members of the United States Ryder cup team which will meet the British at Southport, England, June 29 and 30.

Tony Manero.

Definitly allotted posts on the American squad, in addition to nonplaying Capt. Walter Hagen, are Gene Sarazen, veteran of all five previous cup clashes; Denny Shute of Boston, P. G. A. champion; Tony Manero, U. S. open champion; Horton Smith of Chicago, Henry Picard of Hershey, Pa., and Johnny Revolta of Chicago.

New Selection Plan.

A new method will be employed in picking the four remaining team members. A group of at least twelve candidates will be named after the sectional qualifying rounds for the P. G. A. championship.

The four players of this group who compile the lowest averages during the 36 hole qualifying round for the P. G. A. at Pittsburgh, May 24 to 30, and the 72 holes of the National Open at Oakland Hills, Birmingham, Mich., June 10 to 12, then will fill the vacancies.

The committee provided for one contingency. Should any P. G. A. member not included in the six already named or the twelve to be singled out later win the professional or the open championship, he automatically would make the team.

Of the six named, only Smith and Picard have won neither an American nor a British national title. Both, however, have been consistent money winners. Picard has won $4,236.25 and Smith $4,017.83 since Jan. 1. The biggest money winner, Harry Cooper, is ineligible for the team since he is not a native American.

Manero a "Freshman."

Manero, surprise winner of the open at Baltusrol last June, will be a Ryder cup freshman. Picard and Revolta made their bows at Ridgewood two years ago, winning in foursomes and singles. Shute played in 1931 and 1933, Smith in 1929, 1933 and 1935.

Most prominent among the winter's top flight campaigners in the race for the four openings are Sam Snead, long hitting youngster who, in his first major campaign, is fourth in the cash winning list; Ralph Guldahl, winner of the Radix cup for low average score of 71.63 during 1936; Ed Dudley, Paul Runyan, Byron Nelson, recent winner of the Augusta National, and Jimmy Hines.

The Americans will be shooting for their first victory on British soil. They lead in the series, 3 to 2, but precedent favors the home side.

SNEAD LEADS WITH 67

Charleston, S. C., April 7.—(AP)—Rookie Sam Snead of West Virginia gave the veterans something to shoot at today in the opening round of the $5,000 Tournament of Gardens.

Sam Snead.

Just a single stroke back of this pair were Johnny Revolta of Chicago, with 36—33, and Ben Loving of Richmond, Va., an unheralded professional who made the winter circuit for the first time this season. Loving put together 35—34.

HIKE! HIKE! THE MARCH IS ON!

Two hundred and fifty candidates have started training at Notre Dame for next fall's football campaign, which Coach Elmer Layden views with more than usual pre-season optimism. Out of this group will come the young men who will tackle nine opponents, including some of the strongest in the country. It's hike! hike! at Notre Dame these days and Notre Dame hopes the march is on. [Associated Press Photo.]

U. S. GOVERNMENT PROBES BASEBALL MONOPOLY CLAIM

Washington, D. C., April 7.—[Special.]—The request by Representative Raymond J. Cannon [D., Wis.] for an investigation to determine whether major league baseball violates the anti-trust statutes has been referred to the anti-trust division of the department of justice, Attorney General Homer Cummings said today.

As he made this announcement he was asked if the department of justice had any inherent prejudice against baseball teams, "because they have only nine members," but he passed this off with a pleasantry about "substitutes" always being available to a baseball club.

The inquiry by Representative Cannon, the attorney general said, merely sought to ascertain if the laws were being broken. Mr. Cummings said the question was a difficult one and would require study. His aids seemed to think that this was the first time that the point had officially come up to the department of justice, but there was a suggestion that many years ago there was litigation in the courts over the former Federal league.

Davidson to Have New Assistants at West Point

West Point, N. Y., April 7.—(AP)—Though Coach Garrison H. [Gar] Davidson again will be in charge of Army football for 1937, Army orders have necessitated several changes among his assistants.

Lieut. Moe Daly, line coach for four years, will shift to the back field. He replaces Capt. Bill Wood, assigned to the command and general staf school at Fort Leavenworth, Kas. Lieut. C. Letzelter moves up from plebe back field coach to become Daly's assistant in place of Capt. Bill Reeder, now stationed in Georgia.

Angelucci, McKinnis Win Amateur Fights

Rubi Throws Curtis in Rainbo Fronton Windup

DIZZY IS SORRY NOW; WANTS NO MORE FIGHTS

Daytona Beach, Fla., April 7.—(AP)—Dizzy Dean was "sorry" tonight, he said, "about what happened last week" in a Tampa hotel lobby, referring to the fight with two baseball scribes.

"It's the first time I ever had any trouble with a sports writer," Dean declared, "and you can take it from Ol' Diz, it'll be the last time.

"I believe in the ol' saying about the 'pen bein' mightier than the sword,'—yesser—an' I want you boys to be my friends."

Dean engaged in a brief fight with Jack Miley, New York sports writer, and Irving Kupcinet of Chicago last Friday, after complaining of stories written by Miley. Other Cardinal players broke it up.

ALABAMA BEATS NORTHWESTERN IN BASEBALL, 9-3

Tuscaloosa, Ala., April 7.—[Special.]—Northwestern university's touring baseball team lost to Alabama today, 9 to 3. Hugh Bedient, Alabama pitcher, yielded only seven hits and struck out ten.

Jack Kaufman started pitching for Northwestern, but proved ineffective, walking seven and giving up five hits. His successor, Bobby Roth, performed in better fashion, halting the Alabamans' march and cutting off their hit total at seven.

Alabama ....................201 213 00*—9 7
Northwestern ...............200 001 000—3 7

DETROIT RETURNS HOME CONFIDENT OF CUP VICTORY

Wings to Resume Series with Rangers Tonight.

Detroit, Mich., April 7.—(AP)—The injury-ridden Detroit Red Wings, one game down to New York's Rangers in the five game Stanley cup series, came home today with a feeling that "We'll pull out of the hole."

To retain the cup the league champions must stop the inspired rush of the Rangers and win three games before the New Yorkers get two more victories.

Tension Is Off.

"The tension is gone," Marty Barry, Detroit center, told Manager Jack Adams tonight. "All the other fellows feel the same way."

The Red Wings, who overcame a series of injuries to win the league title, don't think Dave Kerr, Ranger goalie who has held the opposition to two goals in 313 minutes of playoff hocky, can continue to hold off the Detroit attack, which was the league's most effective offense during the regular season.

Goalie Is Uncertain.

Who will be in the nets for Detroit when the series is resumed tomorrow night remained a question. If Norm Smith is not fully recovered, Earl Robertson, who played two periods at New York Tuesday, will tend goal. The Wing players have confidence in Robertson and believe they can win with him.

The Detroit strategy for the remainder of the cup series was gone over by Adams tonight in conference with the three captains who have led the Red Wings this season—Ebbie Goodfellow and Doug Young, defense men, and Larry Aurie, high scoring forward. Young and Aurie are out of action with broken legs.

RANGERS CONFIDENT

New York, April 7.—[Special.]—Hoping to make it three straight over the Detroit Red Wings and bring the Stanley cup to New York for the first time since 1933, the Rangers left tonight in a confident mood.

The teams opened their series here last night, with the Rangers winning, 5 to 1, over the present holders of the title. Because Madison Square Garden is now occupied by the circus, the teams must complete the games in Detroit.

This circumstance will make no difference to his team, Manager Lester Patrick said. All ice looks the same to it since the National Hocky league playoffs began, and they have scored five straight victories. Only twice before in the history of the game has such a feat been accomplished, by the Boston Bruins in 1929 and the Red Wings in 1936.

Mrs. Hubbell Sees Son Carl Fan 4 Indians

Shawnee, Okla., April 7.—(AP)—Mrs. C. O. Hubbell watched her famous son, Carl of the New York Giants, pitch in a professional baseball game for the first time today.

"It's the first time I've seen Carl pitch since he was in high school," said Mrs. Hubbell, blushing as photographers leveled their cameras.

Carl's father, an ardent fan, admitted he had been more fortunate. He has seen Carl hurl for the Giants on two previous occasions.

PARMELEE GOES ROUTE; MAKES 4 HITS, YIELDS SIX

Lyons Bears Brunt of Beating.

BY EDWARD BURNS.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

El Paso, Tex., April 7.—The Cubs, their ears continuing to burn from Manager Charley Grimm's tirades since they blew a 9 to 2 lead and lost to the White Sox way back in Tucson Monday, this afternoon gave their erstwhile conquerors from Chicago's south side a 10 to 2 whipping to even the spring series at four games each.

Even after they had bumped the Sox 9 to 2 in Bisbee yesterday, Grimm continued to tell a large percentage of his lads they still were in the doghouse. So the boys, including the prodded and unprodded, continued in a brutal mood.

Their revengeful spirit rose to the greatest heights in the fourth, in which they bruised Ted Lyons for six runs and six hits, all business of the inning being negotiated after two were out. They were not so severe with John Whitehead, whom they attacked for only two runs, one of which was unearned.

Parmelee Gets Four Hits.

They made 17 hits to lift their total for the last three games against the Sox to 50, which blossomed into 28 runs, a happy contrast over the 10 runs and 29 hits they made in the first five games of the series. Leroy Parmelee, one of the principal targets of Manager Grimm's ire, pitched all the way. He was a good pitcher and an elegant hitter, as he made progress in his emergence from the aforesaid doghouse. He held the Sox to six hits, none of which came after the fifth. He socked two doubles, two singles, and laid down a perfect sacrifice.

After the Cubs had been retired in order in the first inning, the Sox proved almost as futile, although Walker knocked a single. Radcliff lined to Galan after a three and two count, then Walker singled to right. Rosenthal fanned and Walker was doubled trying to reach second.

Hartnett nicked Lyons for a single to left after Collins and Stainback easily had been victimized in the second inning. Then Hack bounced to Hayes.

Sox Steal Lead.

Bonura opened the Sox second with a single off Jurges' glove, took second on a wild pitch, and stopped at third on Appling's sharp single to right. A double steal put Bonura across the plate with the first run of the game, Appling reaching second standing up. Hayes flied to Galan, Mesner grounded out to Herman and Jurges threw out Schlueter.

The Cubs went ahead in the third inning despite the blighting effects of a double play. Jurges and Parmelee singled and Galan beat out a bunt to fill the bases. Herman hit into a double play, Hayes to Appling to Bonura, Jurges scoring the tying run and Parmelee stopping at third. Cavarretta crashed a single off Lyons' glove, Parmelee scoring.

The Sox got two men on in their third, but did not get past second base. Radcliff walked with one down and Walker beat out a high bouncer to Collins. Rosenthal flied to Galan and Bonura forced Walker, Jurges unassisted.

The Big Blow Up.

The Cubs got wholesale production under way in the fourth. After Collins and Stainback had supplied two easy outs, O'Dea batted for Hartnett and singled to right. Ken stopped at third on Hack's double to right, then scored with Hack on Jurges' second hit, a single to center. Parmelee's second hit was a double to center on which Jurges stopped at third. Galan walked, filling the bases, then Herman singled to left, scoring Jurges and Parmelee. Cavarretta took his third swing at a wild pitch by Lyons, Galan scoring, Herman stopping at

ARTILLERY TRIO ROUTED, 20-13, IN EAST-WEST POLO

New York's Late Drive Brings Victory.

New York, April 7.—(AP)—The New York Athletic club polo team laid down a barrage of goals in the third and fourth chukkers tonight to whip the 124th Field Artillery team of Chicago, 20 to 13, in the first game of the senior East-West championships at Squadron A armory.

Clarence [Buddy] Combs, star of the recent intercollegiate tournament, scored ten goals, six of them in the third chukker, when the winged foot trio counted five goals in the first 2 minutes and 45 seconds.

Chicago Trio Demoralized.

The New York team, with Art Borden and Billy Nicholls aiding Combs, dominated the contests. Chicago was given an eight goal handicap, but the easterners outscored the artillery in the first two periods and then went on to batter through a demoralized Chicago trio in the last two chukkers.

Nicholls scored ten times and Borden four, while each member of the Chicago trio—Lieut. Stevens Hammond, Daniel Peacock, and William D. Fergus—scored two goals.

Titles in each of the three divisions will be decided on a best two out of three game basis. The second games in each class will be played Saturday night, and third games, if necessary, next Tuesday.

The Ridgewood Polo club of Ridgewood, N. J., scored a 7 to 2 victory over the Cleveland Riding club in the first game of the junior championship series. Billy Zimmerman, playing No. 1, led the attack of the well-mounted Ridgewood team, which had Dr. Earle B. Hopper at back and his son, Buddy Hopper, at No. 2. Zimmerman scored five goals.

Robert Arthur Scores.

Robert Arthur scored once in the first chukker for Cleveland, which had a two goal handicap, but the westerners were shut out from that point on, while Ridgewood scored heavily in the final chukkers.

Despite a bad fall in the third period, Lieut. William A. Weaver led the first Cleveland Cavalry team to an 11½ to 5½ victory over the Ramapo Valley Polo club of New York in the opening game of the Sherman Memorial [low goal] series.

Spotted a two goal handicap, the Cleveland trio outscored the easterners in every chukker but the third, with Weaver driving home seven goals, four of them coming in the final chukker after the fall which bruised his arm and leg.

SMELT RUN UNDER THE ICE

Smelt runs in Michigan usually occur after the ice has left the streams, but this year, it seems, the smelt couldn't wait and the run was on in full force when fisherman chopped holes in the ice on the Ford river near Escanaba, Mich., and dropped nets. [Acme Photo.]

Cubs Play Browns Today; Sox on Way to Longview, Tex.

BY IRVING VAUGHAN.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

El Paso, Tex., April 7.—The White Sox and Cubs parted company tonight but not for long. The Cubs headed for San Antonio where they'll take up a series with Rogers Hornsby's Browns tomorrow. The Sox started for Longview, Tex., where they meet the Pirates on Friday in the opener of a seven game series. The Sox and Cubs will resume between themselves on April 16 at Chicago.

The high wind which has been blowing the Sox and Cubs eastward since they played in Yuma was going better than ever today. So much real estate was flying around in space that officials debated for an hour before deciding to go through with the scheduled program.

Bill Lee, one of the pitchers Manager Grimm had in mind yesterday when he spoke to his entire squad about indolence, was observed running back and forth across the outfield before the game. Grimm was greatly pleased over this display of energy.

The Sox will have a day off tomorrow but it will be spent aboard a train. They're scheduled to reach Longview at 6:45 p. m.

Lee will start for the Cubs tomorrow and his orders will be to stick in there for nine innings, unless the opposing Browns become too unruly for Manager Grimm's peace of mind.

Frank Demaree, the one Cub outfielder who can live up to the name, was out of action. He pulled a leg muscle trying to put on a little extra pressure during a sprint to first base in yesterday's game at Bisbee, Ariz.

Manager Grimm noticed today that some of his boys weren't speaking to him. He suspects their feelings were hurt as the result of the harsh words he used when informing them yesterday that he expects them to work for their living. Charley is still pretty mad himself and doesn't intend to pass out soothing syrup.

Grimm issued a new complaint about the Cub scouts today. He said they should have brought in Larry Rosenthal last summer, claiming that the money was available but that the scouts refused to sanction a purchase. Rosenthal was subsequently purchased by the Sox.

The picture play of the game was a Mike Kreevich production. In the seventh he raced in and reached down to his shoe laces for a glove handed catch of a low drive by Galan. Jurges, who was on second, was so certain it was going to be a hit that he started for the plate. He was doubled without trouble.

second, and Cavarretta reaching first. Collins, up the second time in the inning, caromed a single off Lyons' shins, Herman scoring and Cavarretta reaching third. Then Stainback forced Collins.

Appling walked and Hayes singled in the Sox fourth. Then Jurges threw out Mesner and Schlueter lined into a double play.

Hack singled with one out in the fifth, Whitehead's first inning, but was out when he tried to reach second on a short passed ball. Jurges walked and took second on Parmelee's third hit, a single to left. Galan flied to Rosenthal.

One More for Sox.

The Sox got their second run home in the fifth. After Herman had made a nice stop to spear Whitehead, Radcliff and Walker walked. Rosenthal forced Walker, but Bonura singled to left, scoring Radcliff.

The Cubs did their first counting off Whitehead in the sixth. Herman was safe on Appling's fumble and took third as Luke drew a second error for throwing the ball away. Cavarretta walked and Collins singled to right, scoring Herman. Cavarretta took third on Stainback's fly to Kreevich and scored on O'Dea's fly to Walker.

Navy Nine Beats Harvard for First Victory of Season

Annapolis, Md., April 7.—[Special.]—The Navy won its first baseball game of the season this afternoon, defeating Harvard, 12 to 10, in a loosely played but exciting game which struggled through seven and a half innings and was called because of darkness after having gone more than two hours and a half.

TROUT, PIKE IN MUSKEGON RIVER AWAIT ANGLERS

If Protests Avail, They'll Be Below Newaygo.

BY BOB BECKER.

Thousands of wall-eyed pike and big rainbow trout swimming in the Muskegon river in Michigan probably would be quite flattered if they knew that sportsmen near that stream were arguing about whether these finny prizes are to take a ride over a dam or stay where they are.

In former years the state department of conservation has lifted thousands of pike and rainbows over the dam at Newaygo during the spring run. The fish come upstream until they reach this dam and cannot travel farther without a lift.

Many fish were given this lift over the dam. Men stationed on the river netted them and away they'd go to find a new home above the dam. The water above Newaygo has been stocked for years with both large pike and trout. Some of the fish taken from the river also went to nearby lakes.

Protest Brought Action.

Now the department of conservation is hearing protests against taking fish from below the dam. Muskegon county sportsmen say that it is unfair to lift the pike and trout over the dam because this procedure hurts the fishing below it.

Last year a similar protest brought about a schedule of netting that limited the number of fish taken from the lower river. Now it looks as if the department of conservation again were going to hear from fishermen on giving the big trout and pike a ride over the dam. Naturally all the fishermen who like to fish the Muskegon river above Newaygo want the pike and trout transplanted to that part of the stream.

We floated down that part of the Muskegon last spring in company with Ed Dreier of Grand Rapids. We were looking for a big rainbow. But the day we happened to pick for the trip was more suitable for chubs, red horse, or tarpon than it was for rainbows.

Season Opens April 24.

With the Michigan trout fishing season scheduled to open April 24, which is well ahead of seasons in other nearby states, Michigan should see a heavy concentration of rod and reel enthusiasts the last Saturday of this month. [The Michigan limit on trout is 15, and the minimum length of a legal trout is seven inches.] Although some Michigan trout fishermen think April 24 is a little early for fishing, that day is the scheduled opening day and doubtless thousands of anglers will be out trying to fool the big ones.

One of the best counties in the state for trout is Lake. This county has such streams as the Little Manistee, the famous Pere Marquette, Baldwin, Little South and others. Highway No. 37 is the north and south route through the county and the town of Baldwin, in Lake county, is not far from fishing camps on the Pere Marquette.

DERBY BETTING LISTS 3 HORSES EQUAL CHOICES

Quote Pompoon, Brooklyn, Reaping Reward at 8-1.

BY FRENCH LANE.

The Kentucky Derby developed into the widest open betting race in many years yesterday when commissioners in Chicago announced that three colts now are held as equal first choices.

These leaders in popular backing are Jerome Loucheim's Pompoon, Col. Edward R. Bradley's Brooklyn, and Mrs. Ethel V. Mars' Milky Way Farm stable's Reaping Reward.

Frank Stone, who is handling most of the future book bets that are made in Chicago, was the first of the commissioners to announce odds of 8 to 1 against each of these three colts. The other commissioners soon fell in line with the same odds.

Reaping Reward Well Backed.

The stoutest backing during the last few days went to Reaping Reward. The report was out that Mrs. Mars personally was backing this colt to win although such a report could not be verified.

To her friends in Chicago Mrs. Mars has revealed that she will not attempt to say which is her leading Derby candidate until after the Texas Derby is run on April 17. The four leading eligibles in her stable are Reaping Reward, Case Ace, Military, and Murph.

There has been some backing for longshots during the last few days, enough to batter the price of 200 to 1 against Come To Taw down to 100 to 1. Nad, originally held at 1,000 to 1, has been dropped to 400 to 1.

Sceneshifter Now at 20-1.

The odds against Sceneshifter, trained by Earl Sande, also continue to go down. He was originally quoted at 80 to 1 but the best price against him in Chicago yesterday was 20 to 1 although one St. Louis commissioner still had him quoted at 25 to 1. Sceneshifter already is at the Derby scene at Churchill Downs and his early training has been of the highest order, the railbirds agree.

Court Scandal, winner of the Flamingo stakes in Florida, mustered some backing also and the odds against him went from 40 to 1 down to 25 to 1.

Benjam Wins by a Neck in Bowie Sprint

Baltimore, Md., April 7.—[Special.]—The fourth victory of the meeting for the Detroit owned Bomar stable was scored under a hot sun and over a rough track here today when Benjam won the eleventh Kindergarten stakes. Benjam is a Jean Val Jean colt which was campaigned in Florida with only medium success.

Against him today was the Manhasset stable entry of Smoke Signal and Last Lay, which went to the post at odds-on, and a Maryland filly named Bunny Baby. There were others, but it was among those named above that the wagering revolved.

Wins by a Head.

Benjam's price was $8.80. He was ridden by Willie Saunders. His time was :49 1-5 for the four furlongs.

The Kindergarten victor is one of the youngest horses at the track, but he had to share honors with Flagstone, one of the oldest horses in training, which came back to competition today after an absence since 1935.

Old Timer Wins.

Flagstone is 9, and won the sixth race to give Owner A. C. Compton and Trainer H. G. Bedwell a double on the day. Their earlier winner was Playnot, in the third. Flagstone returned $10.90 for $2 and finished the mile and 70 yards in 1:49 2-5.

FALCARO FAILS TO BREAK 200 IN A. B. C. ATTEMPT

New York, April 7.—(AP)—Joe Falcaro, former national match game champion, turned in a three game score of 539 in tonight's session of the American Bowling congress.

The veteran New Yorker failed to break 200 as he rolled games of 165—182—192 for his Hotel George Washington team, which totaled 2,825 in its futile efforts to draw up among the leaders in the team division.

The night's early session continued the trend of the afternoon bowling, which found few changes among the leaders in any division. Best score of the session was turned in by the March Mill Works team of Norristown, Pa., which rolled 2,913, far off the 3,045 pace set by the Pastime A. C. of Syracuse.

Jimmy Alburn and Johnny Smith of Erie, Pa., went into fourth place in the doubles division during the afternoon. They posted a 1,288 total on games of 447, 400, 441.

Alburn did most of the heavy work for the Erie pair, bowling 245—211—215, while his partner contributed 202—189—226. Before they took their turn, the highest doubles score of the day was a 1,236 turned in by Eddie Orgas and Al Fracaro of Waukesha, Wis.

Chicago Sport Committee to Discuss Plans Today

Members of the athletic sports committee of the Chicago Recreation commission will meet today for luncheon at the Chicago Athletic association, 12 South Michigan avenue, to discuss cooperation in special sports programs for this summer, and especially in connection with Youth week, which will be observed April 20 to 27.

Stock Splitup.

A reader asks how a stock splitup affects a company and its stockholders. The operation can be illustrated by means of a pie!

Suppose a restaurant sells pie at 10 cents a piece. Each pie is divided into four pieces, so the whole pie is worth 40 cents. Now, as a means of increasing sales, the restaurant decides to cut the pie into eight pieces and sell each slice for 5 cents. The whole pie is still worth 40 cents, but more people can afford to buy pie if it is 5 cents instead of 10 cents a piece.

If stockholders' equity in a corporation is worth $1,000 and there are 100 shares authorized, each share represents assets worth $10. If the stock is "split two-for-one," there will be 200 shares, but the total value of the shares still will be $1,000. Each share now will be worth $5.

In addition to increasing the number of shares in the case of a split-up, the par value of each share is usually decreased per share so that the total amount outstanding remains unchanged, or the stock may be changed to no par value. In the recent Borg-Warner two-for-one split, authorized common was increased from 1,500,000 shares of $10 par to 3,000,000 shares of $5 par. Stated value of the stock remained unchanged at $15,000,000.

One of the reasons for stock splitups is to lower the per unit price of each share and thereby create a wider market. As in the case of the pie, more persons can afford to buy stock if it is cheap than if it is expensive.

Tomorrow: Stock deliveries.

STEEL OPERATING RATE UNCHANGED AT 91 PER CENT

Production Rises 1 Poin at Chicago.

Steel ingot production this wee was estimated yesterday at 91 pe cent of capacity, unchanged from las week, by the magazine Iron Age Except for such checks as may resul from necessity for repairs and ra material shortages, the present rat is likely to be maintained or possibl increased, the magazine said. Opening of Carnegie-Illinois Steel corporation's No. 2 open-harth plant at Gar within a week or two will raise th Chicago district rate, which advance a point this week to 84½ per cent.

"The steel industry and its customers do not appear to be greatl disturbed over President Roosevelt' attack on steel prices," the journa said, "except as to its unfairness i view of the fact that present price have been brought about largely b the policies of the administration especially the 40 hour week provision of the Walsh-Healy act."

Railroad Buying Spurts.

The magazine estimated that no more than 5 per cent of present stee production is for government sponsored projects. Railroad buying ha spurted again, and heavy purchase by other industries continue.

If the steel were available, larg amounts could be sold abroad a prices higher than domestic quotations, Iron Age said. One New Yor company has orders for 76,000 ton of pig iron for export which it i seeking to place.

Estimates of the increase in stee production costs as a result of th new wage agreement between sof coal operators and the mine worker vary from 15 cents to 25 cents a ton Connellsville foundry coke has rise 50 cents a ton and furnace coke i expected to be advanced. By-produc foundry coke has been increased 7 cents a ton in all important markets

Scrap prices declined 50 cents a ton at Pittsburgh, but the Philadelphia price rose the same amount leaving the Iron Age scrap composit unchanged at $21.92.

POWER OUTPUT LOWER

Production of electricity in th United States last week totaled 2,146,959,000 kilowatt hours, a decline o 2.41 per cent from the 2,200,143,00 kilowatt hours generated in the preceding week, but a gain of 15 pe cent over the corresponding week i 1936, the Edison Electric institute reported yesterday.

This was the first important week to week loss this year and a contra seasonal downturn. Production a yea ago was 1,867,093,000 kilowatt hours against 1,862,387,000 in the preceding week.

Electric output of the four companies serving the Chicago district for the week ended April 3 was 128,782,000 kilowatt hours, a decline o 3.33 per cent from the preceding week, when a total of 132,895,000 kilowatt hours were generated, but a gain of 12.2 per cent over the corresponding week last year.

COMMODITIES SLUMP; TRADERS DUMP HOLDINGS

Metals Hard Hit; Copper Falls Limit.

World commodity prices declined sharply yesterday as traders dumped holdings on rumors that the American and British governments might take action to check the rising trend of prices in staples. Reports of slackening demand for war materials also had an adverse effect.

The domestic price of lead was cut a full cent to 6 cents a pound, zinc was trimmed ½ cent to 7 cents and rumors were circulated that domestic copper had sold as low as 15 cents a pound although the official price remained at 16 cents.

Copper Drops Limit.

Copper futures in New York opened a cent a pound lower, the limit for a single trading day, and closing quotations were .93 to 1 cent below the close Tuesday. Export copper dipped as low as 14.80 cents and electrolytic copper fell to 14.67 cents bid and 15.11 cents asked, compared with a selling price of 15.875 cents Tuesday. Domestic scrap copper again was reduced ½ cent a pound to an equivalent base price for refined copper of 14.75 cents a pound.

Selling in commodity markets, particularly in copper, was so heavy that considerable confusion developed. At one time both buyers and sellers in the export copper market in New York completely withdrew until an appraisal of prices that conformed to world levels could be made.

Lead and Zinc Lower.

Lead futures in New York closed 50 cents lower with April and July contracts at 5.96 cents a pound asked. Zinc futures dipped .50 cent and tin futures eased 1.65 cents.

Rubber closed 1.18 to 1.33 cent a pound lower with trading at the exceptionally heavy volume of 1,222 lots of 22,400 pounds each. May contracts were quoted at 24.35 cents a pound at the close. Hides, a leader with rubber in the recent bull market in commodities, declined .26 to .29 cent. Trading was heavy at 166 lots of 40,000 pounds each.

Selling by far eastern sources brought a drop in the London price of bar silver, which was followed by a mark-down in foreign mined metal in New York of ¾ cent an ounce to 46 cents. Te decline followed two successive boosts. Silver futures in Montreal, however, rose .40 to .50 cent an ounce.

Cotton Falls Sharply.

Cotton slumped $1.50 to $2 a bale under foreign and domestic liquidation. Estimates that farmers will plant at least 10.6 per cent more acres in cotton this year than last added to the general pessimism which prevailed in New York, Chicago and New Orleans.

Both Rio and Santos coffee contracts broke sharply in late trading. Rio closed .49 to .61 cent a pound lower with May at 6.55 cents. Sugar. cocoa, silk and wool tops dipped in heavy selling.

Ups and Downs of the Stock Market During the Last Thirty Years

Gold Price Cut Is Denied by Morgenthau

BY ARTHUR SEARS HENNING.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., April 7.—Secretary of the Treasury Morgenthau denied today that there has been any action to reduce the price of $35 an ounce now being paid for gold, or that any such action is contemplated. Rumors of such a move caused the selling wave on the stock and commodity markets today.

Secretary Morgenthau.

While denying that there is any foundation for the rumors, Morgenthau was careful, however, to say that he was not amending by implication his policy of proceeding "on a twenty-four hour basis." That is, circumstances may cause the treasury to take steps at any time that were not contemplated twenty-four hours before.

Door Is Not Closed.

So the treasury does not close the door to the action apprehension of which sent traders on the stock and commodity exchanges into a dither.

The President himself stated that no change in the price paid for gold is contemplated. He possesses a dictator's power, however, to change the price of gold without a moment's notice and to do other things that would profoundly affect stock and commodity prices and other features of the country's economy. Merely a passing presidential remark last week that steel and copper prices are too high sent prices tumbling.

The price paid by the treasury for gold was fixed at $35 an ounce on Jan. 31, 1934, in connection with the 40 per cent devaluation of the dollar. It was the opinion of many economists at the time that the dollar was undervalued at 59 cents.

Gold Flood Is Indicator.

The ensuing flood of gold that poured into this country from abroad was cited as demonstrating the undervaluation of the dollar. The accretions of gold due mainly to the devaluation of the dollar and partly to the flight of capital from Europe served to swell bank deposits and thereby to accelerate the credit inflation on which the federal reserve board is trying to put the brakes.

The marked rise in the prices of commodities, particularly raw materials and capital goods, in the last few weeks has been viewed by the more responsible officials of the administration with deep concern. It caused Marriner S. Eccles, chairman of the federal reserve board, to issue a warning that the trend of prices is in the direction of a runaway inflation which can be averted only by a "prompt balancing" of the budget. It caused the President to try to stop the upward swing of steel, copper, and other durable goods prices by switching government spending from public works using durable goods to relief projects using consumer goods.

Time for Revaluation?

Many orthodox economists have held all along that if devaluation of the dollar was resorted to for the purpose of halting deflation it is now time to begin the revaluation of the dollar for the purpose of stemming the tide of inflation that has set in as the accompaniment of recovery.

They have urged a reduction in the price paid for gold to increase the value of the currency dollar without formally changing its gold content.

APRIL AUTO OUTPUT SET AT 550,000 UNITS; HIGHEST SINCE 1929

Detroit, Mich., April 7.—[Special.]—Automobile production in April probably will reach 550,000 units, compared with 527,726 units last year, and will be the best month since 1929, according to estimates made here today as employés in Chrysler plants resumed work. Production estimates in the second quarter run between 1,700,000 and 1,800,000 units, compared with approximately 1,275,000 units built in the first quarter and 1,477,652 in the second quarter of 1936.

The Automobile Manufacturers' association announced factory sales by members of the organization amounted to 350,078 cars in March, compared with 247,901 in February and 327,040 in March, 1936, and was the highest March volume for the association since 1929. First quarter sales totaled 863,802, compared with 824,077 in the same 1936 period, a gain of 5 per cent. The association covers all major producers but Ford.

Retail sales of Buick cars in March totaled 20,951 units, 38.6 per cent above the 15,107 units sold in March last year, W. F. Hufstader, sales manager, said yesterday. Sales of Lincoln-Zephyr motor cars in March were the highest for any month on record, totaling 3,026 units, up 120 per cent from March, 1936.

NEW ILLINOIS INSURANCE CODE NEARING VOTE

Springfield, Ill., April 7.—[Special.]—The proposed new insurance code for Illinois, which is a codification and revision of existing laws, was advanced by the Illinois senate late today to the passage stage after a flood of amendments had been warded off by Senator Thomas E. Keane [D., Chicago], chairman of the senate insurance committee.

The hardest fight was waged over an amendment that would have exempted London Lloyds from requirements on reserves to be held in this state that apply to American insurance companies. It was defeated by a vote of 29 to 14.

The defeat of the amendment leaves the code on London Lloyds as it was when John S. Lord, attorney in Chicago for Lloyds, sent to Gov. Horner a copy of a cablegram received from R. Walker Roy Lance, chairman of Lloyds, saying that Lloyds would have to quit doing business in Illinois unless the code should be amended.

Mandel Stockholders Vote to Increase Directorate

Stockholders of Mandel Brothers, Inc., at the annual meeting yesterday voted to increase the number of directors from eleven to thirteen. Election of directors to fill the new positions and the vacancy created by the recent death of Frank S. Mandel was deferred until July 7. Other directors and officers were reëlected.

Tighter Money Rates Seen in Interest Boost

Further symptoms of stronger money rates were seen yesterday in financial circles as New York and Boston banks advanced interest rates from 1¼ to 1½ per cent on secured loans maturing in four to six months. Rates in Chicago, which never have dropped to the 1¼ per cent level, remain at 1½ per cent.

ForeignMoney Drops Sharply onGoldReport

Rumors that the United States is preparing to reduce its price of $35 an ounce for gold—subsequently denied by Secretary of the Treasury Morgenthau—yesterday threw the foreign exchange markets into confusion and resulted in a sharp break in principal foreign currencies.

The disturbance was most pronounced in London, where the British pound dropped nearly a cent to $4.90⅛. In New York the pound lost a full cent to $4.89 7-16 and the French franc fell .01⅝ cent to 4.59 cents.

Profit on Shipments to U. S.

Although the price of gold advanced moderately in the London market, it did not rise rapidly enough to offset the sharp decline in the pound. The result was to make gold available in the market there at a price which offered a profit to those who purchased for resale to the American treasury. As the pound fell it was possible to purchase the metal in London at $34.74 an ounce. Despite costs of transferring the metal to this country, where it can be sold for $35, the market offered profit possibilities.

A total of $2,660,000 was reported by the Federal Reserve bank of New York to have been engaged in London yesterday for shipment to this country.

Believe Larger Amount Bought.

It was believed, however, that a considerably larger amount had been actually purchased, but did not show up immediately in the figures issued by the reserve bank.

The reason that the rumor of the cut in the gold price gained such wide credence was believed to lie in the policy which American banks have followed recently in buying the metal abroad. A number of the big American banks are understood to have refrained from buying gold for their own account in London because the profit to be made by shipping to this country was so small as not to justify the risk involved in case the price was suddenly reduced.

ALBERTA DROPS SCRIP VENTURE; DEBT CUT ASKED

EDMONTON, Alberta, April 7.—(AP)—Ministers of Alberta's social credit government today took two actions affecting finance in the province. Provincial Treasurer Solon Low announced the abandonment of the government's stamped scrip venture—the prosperity certificate plan—launched in August, 1936.

Minister of Municipal Affairs Lucien Maynard introduced a bill in the legislature providing a 50 per cent reduction in principal on private debts contracted before July 1, 1932. The bill is designed as a substitute for the reduction and settlement of debts act, cornerstone of the debt legislation of Premier William Aberhart's government, which was declared unconstitutional Feb. 19.

STOCKS BREAK ON RUMORS OF GOLD PRICE CUT

Slump 1 to 6 Points in Heavy Selling.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

New York, April 7.—Weakness in commodity prices coupled with rumors that the price of gold was to be reduced resulted in heavy liquidation on the stock exchange today, prices slumping 1 to about 6 points. Virtually all groups were hit, but coppers, steels, motors, farm implements, chemicals, and oils were the biggest losers. Utilities and rails lost least. Turnover was 2,295,090 shares.

Market observers attributed the selling mainly to reports that the United States government contemplated stopping gold imports and reducing the price. Despite official denial, the rumor persisted, and liquidation continued throughout the session.

Dip as Much as 7 Points.

Opening weak, stocks went into a sharp decline and fell as much as 7 points before any steadying influence made itself felt. Affected by the belief that the price of copper would be cut further, copper and other base metal prices broke severely. Anaconda, Cerro, American Smelting, National Lead, Magma Copper, Kennecott, and International Nickel were among the heaviest losers. Phelps-Dodge scraped new low ground.

Equally hard hit were steel shares, despite Iron Age's report that the steel industry is holding its high production pace. U. S. Steel, Bethlehem, American Rolling Mills, Crucible, Gulf States Steel, and Otis were among the leaders in the decline. Working against the trend, and one of the few equities to show a plus sign, was Inland Steel, which closed 1⅛ points up.

Losses in the oils ranged to a point or more, although after the initial break the group showed a better tone.

Motor Shares Break.

Although the financial community believed setlement of the Chrysler strike should have been a favorable influence on prices, motor shares were swept along in the general down trend. Chrysler dropped more than 5 points and General Motors slid off 1¾ to a new low.

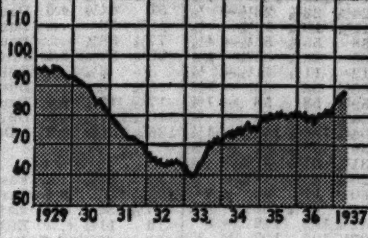
Among farm equipments Case, off 3; Deere, off 4½, and International Harvester, off 3½, were depressed on prospects of lower farm prices. In sympathy with them mail order issues also declined, both Montgomery Ward and Sears-Roebuck dropping more than 3 points.

Gold Rumors Show Nation Has Bad Case of Jitters

BY HOWARD WOOD.

Yesterday's sudden slump in stock and commodity prices on the heels of the apparently false rumor that the government was planning to lower the price of gold clearly demonstrated how jittery people have become over the uncertainties of the administration's monetary program.

Following closely the federal reserve board's announcement that the reserve banks would be forced to rescue government credit by buying government bonds yesterday's gold rumor found the public so stirred by doubts and fears that it was ready to seize upon almost any wild tale. So varied and so contradictory have been the administration's statements and actions with regard to money, prices, and credit that many individuals have concluded anything is possible.



This chart shows how wholesale commodity prices fell from 1929 to early 1933 and how they have risen since then. The sharpest rise occurred immediately after the abandonment of the gold standard in April, 1933, but the trend has continued upward since the present price of $35 an ounce for gold was established in January, 1934. This index was compiled by the United States bureau of labor statistics. Prices in the year 1926 are taken as 100 per cent.

Cut Would Halt Inflation.

The purpose of a reduction by the treasury in the price of gold would be to halt the inflatory uptrend of prices which has been under way ever since early in 1933 when the government abandoned the gold standard and began raising the price of gold. As gold becomes more valuable money grows less valuable. Money buys less, which is another way of saying that prices go up. If, on the other hand, gold should become less valuable, money would become more valuable. Less money would be required to buy a given amount of goods or a given number of shares of stock, which is another way of saying prices would decline. These processes do not work entirely according to schedule, but, in general, variations in the price of gold do affect prices of goods and commodities over a period of time.

Overlook Risk Involved.

What the frenzied traders in commodity and stock markets yesterday seemed temporarily to forget was the fact that a substantial reduction in the price of gold by the government would be so serious a step toward deflation that no administration which has built its reputation on rising prices and rising wages would dare risk the political consequences of such a step.

Despite the federal reserve board's repeated warnings of the possibility of the present boomlet's getting out of control and President Roosevelt's own statement at a press conference last week that prices of some raw materials are rising too rapidly, most financial experts agree that the administration would not dare take the risk of reversing the price uptrend by lowering the price of gold.

Reserve Board Reverses Stand.

The reserve board itself only last Sunday had to reverse its own extremely cautious and modest attempt to steady the market situation. The board had been trying to reduce to safe proportions the amount of idle cash held by commercial banks throughout the country. It had been doing this by requiring the banks to deposit many hundreds of millions of dollars of their idle funds with the reserve system as additional "legal" reserves.

Even this small experiment in checking inflation, however, interfered with the treasury's vast borrowing operations by unsettling the market for government bonds. As a result the reserve board this week had to permit the commercial banks to begin piling up additional cash by dumping government bonds into the reserve banks.

Against New Deal Policy.

If the reserve board couldn't get away with a timid attempt to reduce idle bank cash it would not seem logical that the administration would dare take the much more potent deflationary step of lowering the price of gold, a move which would probably force commodity and stock prices down severely and reduce individual and corporate profits just at a time when the government is extremely interested in maintaining profits in order to keep tax receipts at high levels.

At least such was the reasoning yesterday among financial men who were far enough away from the market not to be thrown into spasms of fear by the sharp drop in stocks and commodities.

FAIR REPORTS EARNINGS ARE BEST SINCE 1930

Many Others Have Gains This Year.

D. F. Kelly.

The Fair yesterday reported that 1936 was its most profitable year since 1930. In the fiscal year ended Jan. 31 net earnings were $333,297, against $102,782 in the preceding year.

The statement, signed by S. S. Kresge, chairman, and D. F. Kelly, president, showed that profits before taxes were $401,940 for the year, as compared with $116,281 a year earlier. Net profit for the period was figured after allowance for $62,192 normal income tax and $6,450 for surtax on undistributed profits.

Reports Marked Gains.

"Recently there has been a marked improvement in business in the downtown district," the report said. "The increase in sales in our main store amounted to more than $1,000,000, notwithstanding the fact that sales made to relief agencies were approximately three-quarters of a million dollars less in 1936 than in 1935.

"In Oak Park, where we own and have been operating a store since 1929, there has been, in the last five years, so notable an improvement in our business that increased sales justified the purchase of a building next to ours [substantially a duplicate of our store] enabling us to almost double the size of our premises.

Outlook Favorable.

Stocks, Bonds

New York Bonds.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

New York, April 7.—Bond prices declined moderately in light trading today while the break in values was occurring in the stock and commodity markets. Government bonds showed losses ranging from 1-32 to 28-32 of a point with the average between ⅛ and ¼ point.

The belief in financial quarters that the federal goverment is planning to take measures designed to check the speculative rise in stocks and commodities and offer support for bonds was believed to have some influence on today's trading. The indefinite character of the reports circulating in the financial district, however, left traders in something of a fog.

The report from Washington, D. C., that purchases of governments by the federal reserve open market committee amounted to $12,000,000 on the first two days of the week did not bolster trading confidence to any extent.

High grade corporate bonds showed comparatively small losses but the trend was almost uniformly toward lower levels. Second grade bonds and convertible issues were harder hit.

Chicago Stocks.

Chicago stocks declined yesterday as trading volume increased. Of 141 issues traded there, 97 declines, 36 unchanged, and only 8 advances. Commonwealth Edison lost 4 points to 117. Middle West common was the most active issue, declining ⅝ to 10 on a turnover of 8,700 shares.

The governing committee of the Chicago Stock exchange yesterday approved applications of a number of companies to list stock. Among the new listings were 97,454 shares of no par common of the Chicago Towel company, 100,000 shares of $1 par common of the Indiana Steel Products company, Chicago; 94,036 shares of $10 par of the Le Roi company, West Allis, Wis.; 369,897 shares of class B, $1 par, stock of the Nineteen Hundred corporation, St. Joseph, Mich.

The committee also approved substitute listing of 278,000 shares of common stock of the Sangamo Electric company, Springfield, Ill.; and listing of additional shares of the Berghoff Brewing company, Binks Manufacturing company, and the Pennsylvania railroad.

Bank Stocks.

Chicago bank stocks moved downward yesterday. Continental Illinois was quoted $4 to $5 lower by various dealers, and First National $1 to $3 lower. Chicago Title and Trust dipped $1 and City National was quoted variously $2 lower to $5 higher.

Commodities

Grain.

Liquidation which developed in grain markets early yesterday sent wheat and corn down about 2 cents a bushel. However, a last hour rally under the leadership of May corn erased a large part of the losses. May corn soared 3⅝ cents from the low point to close at the highest level of the day with a net gain of 2⅝ cents. Other deliveries of corn finished a major fraction higher.

Wheat closed a small fraction of a cent a bushe' lower. Oats were ⅛ cent higher to ⅛ cent lower, while rye was off as much as 1⅝ cents and soy beans lost 2½ to 3 cents a bushel.

The strength in May corn was attributed to short covering and speculative buying.

Winnipeg futures closed as much as 1⅜ cent lower. Liverpool declined 3 to 3⅝ cents. There was further business in soft wheat from the American Pacific coast and intimations of sales of new crop hard winters at the gulf.

A membership on the Chicago Board of Trade was sold yesterday for $5,500 net to buyer, an advance of $50 over the last transaction.

Members of the Chicago Board of Trade yesterday defeated by a vote of 320 to 114 an amendment to the exchange rules which would have eliminated the necessity of quoting both "old" and "new style" grain contracts. The present rule which is continued in effect provides for delivery of grain against futures contracts conforming to the federal standards in effect at the time the contracts are made.

Live Stock.

The hog market yesterday was bolstered by a good local demand for fresh pork, but weakness predominated in most other live stock. Top light pork loins rose another 50 cents per 100 pounds to $23, the highest for the year and $2.50 above last week's close.

The increased demand for fresh pork and small tonnage available stimulated buying of hogs at steady rates yesterday. Both the day's top price and average held steady at $10.30 and $10, respectively, although there were instances of 5 to 10 cent losses in lighter weight hogs and packing sows.

The spread between the eastern and western wholesale price for pork continued to widen, some points in the east reporting additional declines of 50 cents under pressure of heavy importations at New York. Pork prices in Chicago were relatively the highest in the country.

Further decline in steers carried Chicago prices below some markets in the west. Best steers available sold at $16. Prime Angus steers soared to $16.40 in Omaha, a new eighteen year April peak. All classes of steers and yearlings were weak to 25 cents lower here, and clearance was poor. Most other cattle were steady.

Cotton.

Heavy foreign selling of cotton futures led by houses which were the largest buyers during the month of March, and disquieting rumors regarding the American gold price started general commission house selling yesterday which carried all before it. At the low point prices were off nearly $2 a bale and at no time did the market show a pronounced tendency to rally.

Closing trades on futures in Chicago were at net losses of .31 to .35 cent while other American markets lost .28 to .37 cent a pound, the latter equal to $1.85 a bale.

Consumption of American cotton in March was privately estimated at 790,000 bales, a new all-time record for any month.

Spot cotton closed .30 cent lower with New Orleans, 14.30 cents; New York, 14.65 cents, and Galveston and Houston at 14.20 cents a pound. Prices in cents per pound follow:

Butter and Eggs.

Volume of business in butter, egg, and potato futures on the Chicago Mercantile exchange during the first three months of the present year were the largest since 1930, by Lloyd S. Tenny, business manager of the exchange, announced yesterday. Transactions in the three commodities totaled 15,908 cars, an increase of more than 45% as compared with the corresponding period in 1936 and a gain of nearly 30% as compared with 1935. Sales of potato futures established a new all time record with over 1,100,000 bags of 100 pounds changing hands. During the same period in 1936 trading aggregated 487,950 bags.

Butter futures closed ¼ to ⅝c lower yesterday with November at 36c a pound. Sales were 49 cars. Egg futures were ⅛ to ½c lower with October closing at 25½c a dozen on sales of 117 cars. Potatoes declined 4 to 6c, May closing at $2.18 per 100 pounds. Sales were 8 cars.

The first transaction in frozen eggs was made yesterday with the sale of one car at $11.55 per 100 pounds on whites for May delivery. Frozen whole eggs were offered at $18.40 and received a bid of $17.40 per 100 pounds. Range of prices on futures follow:

Lard.

Liquidation developed in lard futures yesterday with the May delivery declining nearly ¼c a pound at the extreme to a new low level since early in November. Weakness in grain and cottonseed oil had some effect on sentiment, and there was further selling attributed to cash interests. Closing trades were at net losses of 15c to 17½c. Clear bellies [salt pork] closed 2½c to 7½c lower. Cash lard was quoted at $12.12½c; loose, $11.47½c; leaf, $11.50, and clear bellies at $16 per 100 pounds. Prices per 100 pounds follow:

SALES OF WARD SET HIGH RECORD DURING MARCH

Large Gains Reported by Chain Concerns.

March sales of Montgomery Ward & Co. totaled $34,931,168, the largest in the history of the company for the month, the big Chicago mail order and chain store concern reported yesterday. Other large chain companies, including the Kroger Grocery and Baking company, also reported substantial increases in March sales over March, 1936.

Ward's sales increased $10,086,572 or 40.6 per cent, over the $24,844,596 reported for March, 1936. For February and March, the first two months of the company's fiscal year, sales amounted to $57,091,733, compared with $42,699,205 in 1936, an increase of $14,392,528, or 33.71 per cent.

Three Factors Responsible.

The company said the large increase in March business was the result of three important factors: 1. March, 1937, had one more business day than March, 1936. 2. Easter came two weeks earlier this year and, therefore, a large volume of Easter business was handled in March while last year a considerable part of the Easter business was handled in April. 3. Weather conditions were more favorable for business in all parts of the country this year.

Sales of Kroger Grocery and Baking company for the four weeks ended March 27 totaled $19,995,928, an increase of 11.3 per cent over March, 1936. Sales for the 12 weeks ended March 27 were $58,260,095, a gain of 11.3 per cent over last year. The company had 4,176 stores in operation this year against 4,274 in March, 1936.

J. C. Penney company reported March sales of $19,822,685, against $16,282,558 last year, an upturn of 21.7 per cent. Sales for the first three months of the year were $49,993,320, a gain of 13.7 per cent over the same period in 1936.

WALLACE LOOKS FOR REDUCTIONS IN FOOD PRICES

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., April 7.—[Special.]—Secretary of Agriculture Henry A. Wallace today said the American family's market basket will be heavier with food and the family pocketbook heavier with money if normal weather prevails this spring and summer.

The secretary said present indications are that there will be no repetition of the 1934 and 1936 drouths this year, although he was cautious in venturing this prediction. A year ago he predicted that there would be no repetition of the 1934 drouth, only to find himself in the midst of a widespread crop searing a few months later.

Weather reports to date show, the secretary said, that the western farm areas are not so dry as they were in early 1934 and 1936.

Mr. Wallace said that he doesn't think 1937 will be a drouth year because weather conditions appear to be more favorable than they have been. He added hastily, "Nobody knows about the weather, however."

If the weather should prove good, he continued, the average market basket will cost less. Even at present prices, he said, the cost of food is below what it was in 1928 and 1929. The food prices are 19 per cent below the pre-depression peak. Wages average 11 per cent below the 1928-'29 level.

"The average worker will now buy about 10 per cent more food than he could in 1929," Wallace said. "If weather should continue favorable he will be able to buy even more this fall."

TWO BOATS OPEN LAKE MICHIGAN SHIPPING SEASON

Captain Radiophones on Ice Situation.

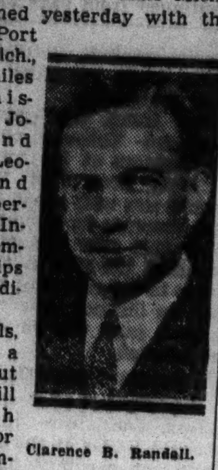
General navigation on Lake Michigan was opened yesterday with the arrival at Port Inland, Mich., about 20 miles east of Manistique, of the Joseph Block and the N. F. Leopold, ore and stone boats operated by the Inland Steel company. The ships sailed from Indiana Harbor.



Clarence B. Randall.

The two vessels, each having a capacity of about 10,000 tons, will be loaded with limestone for use in the company's blast furnaces and open herths in the plant at Indiana Harbor.

Reports by Radio-Phone.

"We are having a regular summer passage," Capt. Howard Kizer of the N. F. Leopold radio-phoned to Clarence B. Randall, vice president in charge of production and transportation of Inland Steel, yesterday morning as the Leopold was steaming along two hours out of his destination.

"I can see one field of ice floating near Boulder reef," Kizer told Randall, who was seated in his office in the First National Bank building. "I should judge it's about forty acres in extent. I have seen nothing since we left to cause any hazard to navigation."

The telephone conversation was carried on by long distance telephone over land wires between Chicago and Lorain, O. At Lorain the conversation was transmitted to and from the ship by short wave radio.

Much Ice in Green Bay.

Capt. Kizer said there is a great deal of ice in Green bay and to the east in the vicinity of the Straits of Mackinac. This was the second earliest trip made by Inland Steel ships to Port Inland. The earliest trip was made on April 2 several years ago.

Announcement was made at the division coastguard headquarters here that the task of breaking through the ice jam at the Straits of Mackinac will be made by the car ferry Chief Wawatam. It will replace the coast guard cutter, Escanaba, which previously had been assigned to the task. The Escanaba is proceeding to the port of Escanaba to break ice to enable ships to carry ore to the Chicago steel district.

Two tugs are scheduled to start this morning from Sault Ste. Marie, to break the ice in the upper St. Mary's river.

Clarke 'Retires' as Head of Subsidiary.

Harley L. Clarke.

Latest developments in the tangled affairs of the Utilities Power and Light corporation, $400,000,000 Chicago utility holding company, were the approval yesterday by Federal Judge William H. Holly of a request for $15,000 to finance an investigation of the company, and an announcement that Harley L. Clarke has "retired" as chairman of the board of the Indianapolis Power and Light company, one of the most important of the company's subsidiaries.

Judge Holly recently appointed James L. Houghteling, investment banker, to investigate the affairs of the corporation for the control of which Floyd B. Odlum, president of the Atlas corporation, New York investment trust, and Clarke are engaged in a court battle. When Odlum got control of Utilities Power and Light, Clarke was ousted as president. Since then charges and countercharges have been made by the warring groups.

Dissolves Security Injunction.

Judge Holly also yesterday dissolved a temporary restraining order which enjoined the Chase National bank of New York from accelerating the maturity of $46,000,000 of debentures because of a default in the payment of interest.

Clarke's "retirement" from the chairmanship of the board of the Indianapolis Power and Light company took place at the annual meeting of the company on Tuesday. He retired as chairman of the board of the Laclede Gas Light company, St. Louis, another major subsidiary, on April 2.

Board Membership Increased.

Fred Bates Johnson, counsel of the board of Indianapolis Power and personal attorney for Clarke, also retired from the board of the Indianapolis company. The membership of the board was increased from eight to eleven. New members elected were Peter C. Reilly and Wallase O. Lee of Indianapolis, and R. R. Monroe, Morris E. Feiwell, and A. L. Jackson of Chicago. The Chicagoans are members of the board of Utilities Power and Light, and Monroe in addition is executive vice president of the holding company.

H. T. Pritchard, president of Indianapolis Power, was elected chairman of the board, and other officers were reëlected. Indianapolis Power has been valued between $60,000,000 and $70,000,000.

INVESTORS' GUIDE

[Copyright: 1937: By The Chicago Tribune.]

Bendix Aviation Corporation.

Investors' Guide: Please tell me about Bendix and its stock.—K. C.

Answer: Bendix Aviation corporation was formed in 1929 as a holding company which controls about 20 domestic subsidiaries and foreign affiliates engaged in manufacture of a variety of products essential to the automotive, aircraft, and marine industries.

Turning out a large part of the starting drives, brakes, carburetors and clutches used by the automobile makers, Bendix has been primarily an auto accessory manufacturer. Expansion of the aviation divisions of the business, in tune with the marked pickup in plane and aeronautical equipment manufacturing and more aggressive development of outboard motors and other marine equipment is tending to make the company less dependent on the automobile industry.

A large return is expected eventually from foreign investments and royalties. Most of the company's standard products have world-wide distribution.

Unceasing research activity has played an important part in improving products and developing new lines. Expenditures on this form of insuring future profits have averaged more than $1,000,000 annually in the last five years.

Net income declined slightly to $3,025,000, or $1.44 a share, in 1936, compared with $3,163,000, or $1.51 a share, in 1935. All divisions of the company enjoyed increased volume of business, but increased costs of labor and materials cut down profit margins.

Although strikes in the automobile industry affected production in the first quarter of 1937, net income is expected to be little different than that of 41 cents per share in the first three months of 1936.

Advancing the introduction of new models to November was a factor in the sharp improvement in 1935 from net income of $1,903,000, or 51 cents a share, in 1934. Net income was $1,243,000, or 59 cents a share, in 1933; $1,555,000, or 74 cents a share, in 1931, and $1,184,000, or 57 cents a share, in 1930. A loss of $1,501,000 was sustained in 1932.

Sole outstanding capitalization consists of 2,097,663 shares of $5 par common stock. Dividend payments totaled $1.50 a share in 1936, and 25 cents a share was paid on March 12, 1937. Dividends were resumed in December, 1935, with payment of 25 cents, the first since April, 1932.

The stock is medium grade.

SUGAR.

NEW YORK, April 7.—(AP)—SUGAR—Raw was unchanged today, but the tone was easier with further offerings at last paid prices of 3.45c per pound. Sales were confirmed of 5,000 bags of Cubas and 45,000 Philippines for April arrivals at this level.

Futures were weak for No. 4 contracts under heavy commission house liquidation and hedge selling aided by weakness at London and rumors of a possible reduction in the gold price. The No. 3 contracts, after advancing early, also reacted. Final prices on No. 3 contracts were 1 to 3 points net lower on active positions of present crop deliveries and unchanged to 1 point lower on new crop, with sales of 13,500 tons. No. 4 closed 4½ to 5½ points net lower on sales of 40,350 tons.

FAIR REPORTS EARNINGS ARE BEST SINCE 1930

Others Disclose Gains for This Year.

interim earnings, statements and estimates made yesterday by several other companies.

Paul Hahn, vice president of the American Tobacco company, told stockholders at the annual meeting in New York that 1937 earnings should run well ahead of last year's. The increase in cigaret prices made early this year was about sufficient to offset the rise in the cost of tobacco to the company, he said. Hahn said he did not believe the proposed federal sales tax on cigarets would be enacted.

Revere Copper Has Big Gain.

Stockholders of Revere Copper and Brass, Inc., were informed by C. Donald Dallas at the annual meeting that net earnings during the first two months of 1937 were at the annual rate of $8.04 a share on the common stock after providing for preferred dividends. The company earned 80 cents a common share in 1936. March business, Dallas said, continued at a high level.

First quarter net earnings of $201,742, equal to $1.26 a share, were reported by Noblitt-Sparks Industries, Inc., automobile accessory firm. Net earnings were $107,899 in the first quarter of 1936.

J. B. Hill, president of the Louisville and Nashville railroad, reported that operating revenues of the road in 1936 increased 20.3 per cent and net income increased 133 per cent over 1935. The road's increase in tonnage resulted from heavier demand for agricultural and forest products and for coke, ore, gravel, stone and sand, he said.

The road's 1936 gross operating revenue was $91,050,150, an increase of $15,360,832. Net income was $9,628,472, an increase of $5,499,529.

Macy Earnings Higher.

R. H. Macy & Co. reported 1936 net profit of $4,604,907, equal to $3.06 a share of common stock, against $2,753,901, or $1.83 a share, in 1935. Total sales of the New York Macy department store and affiliated stores were $130,441,310 last year, against $117,841,155 in 1935. Sales of the Macey unit alone amounted to $87,239,606 against $78,759,625.

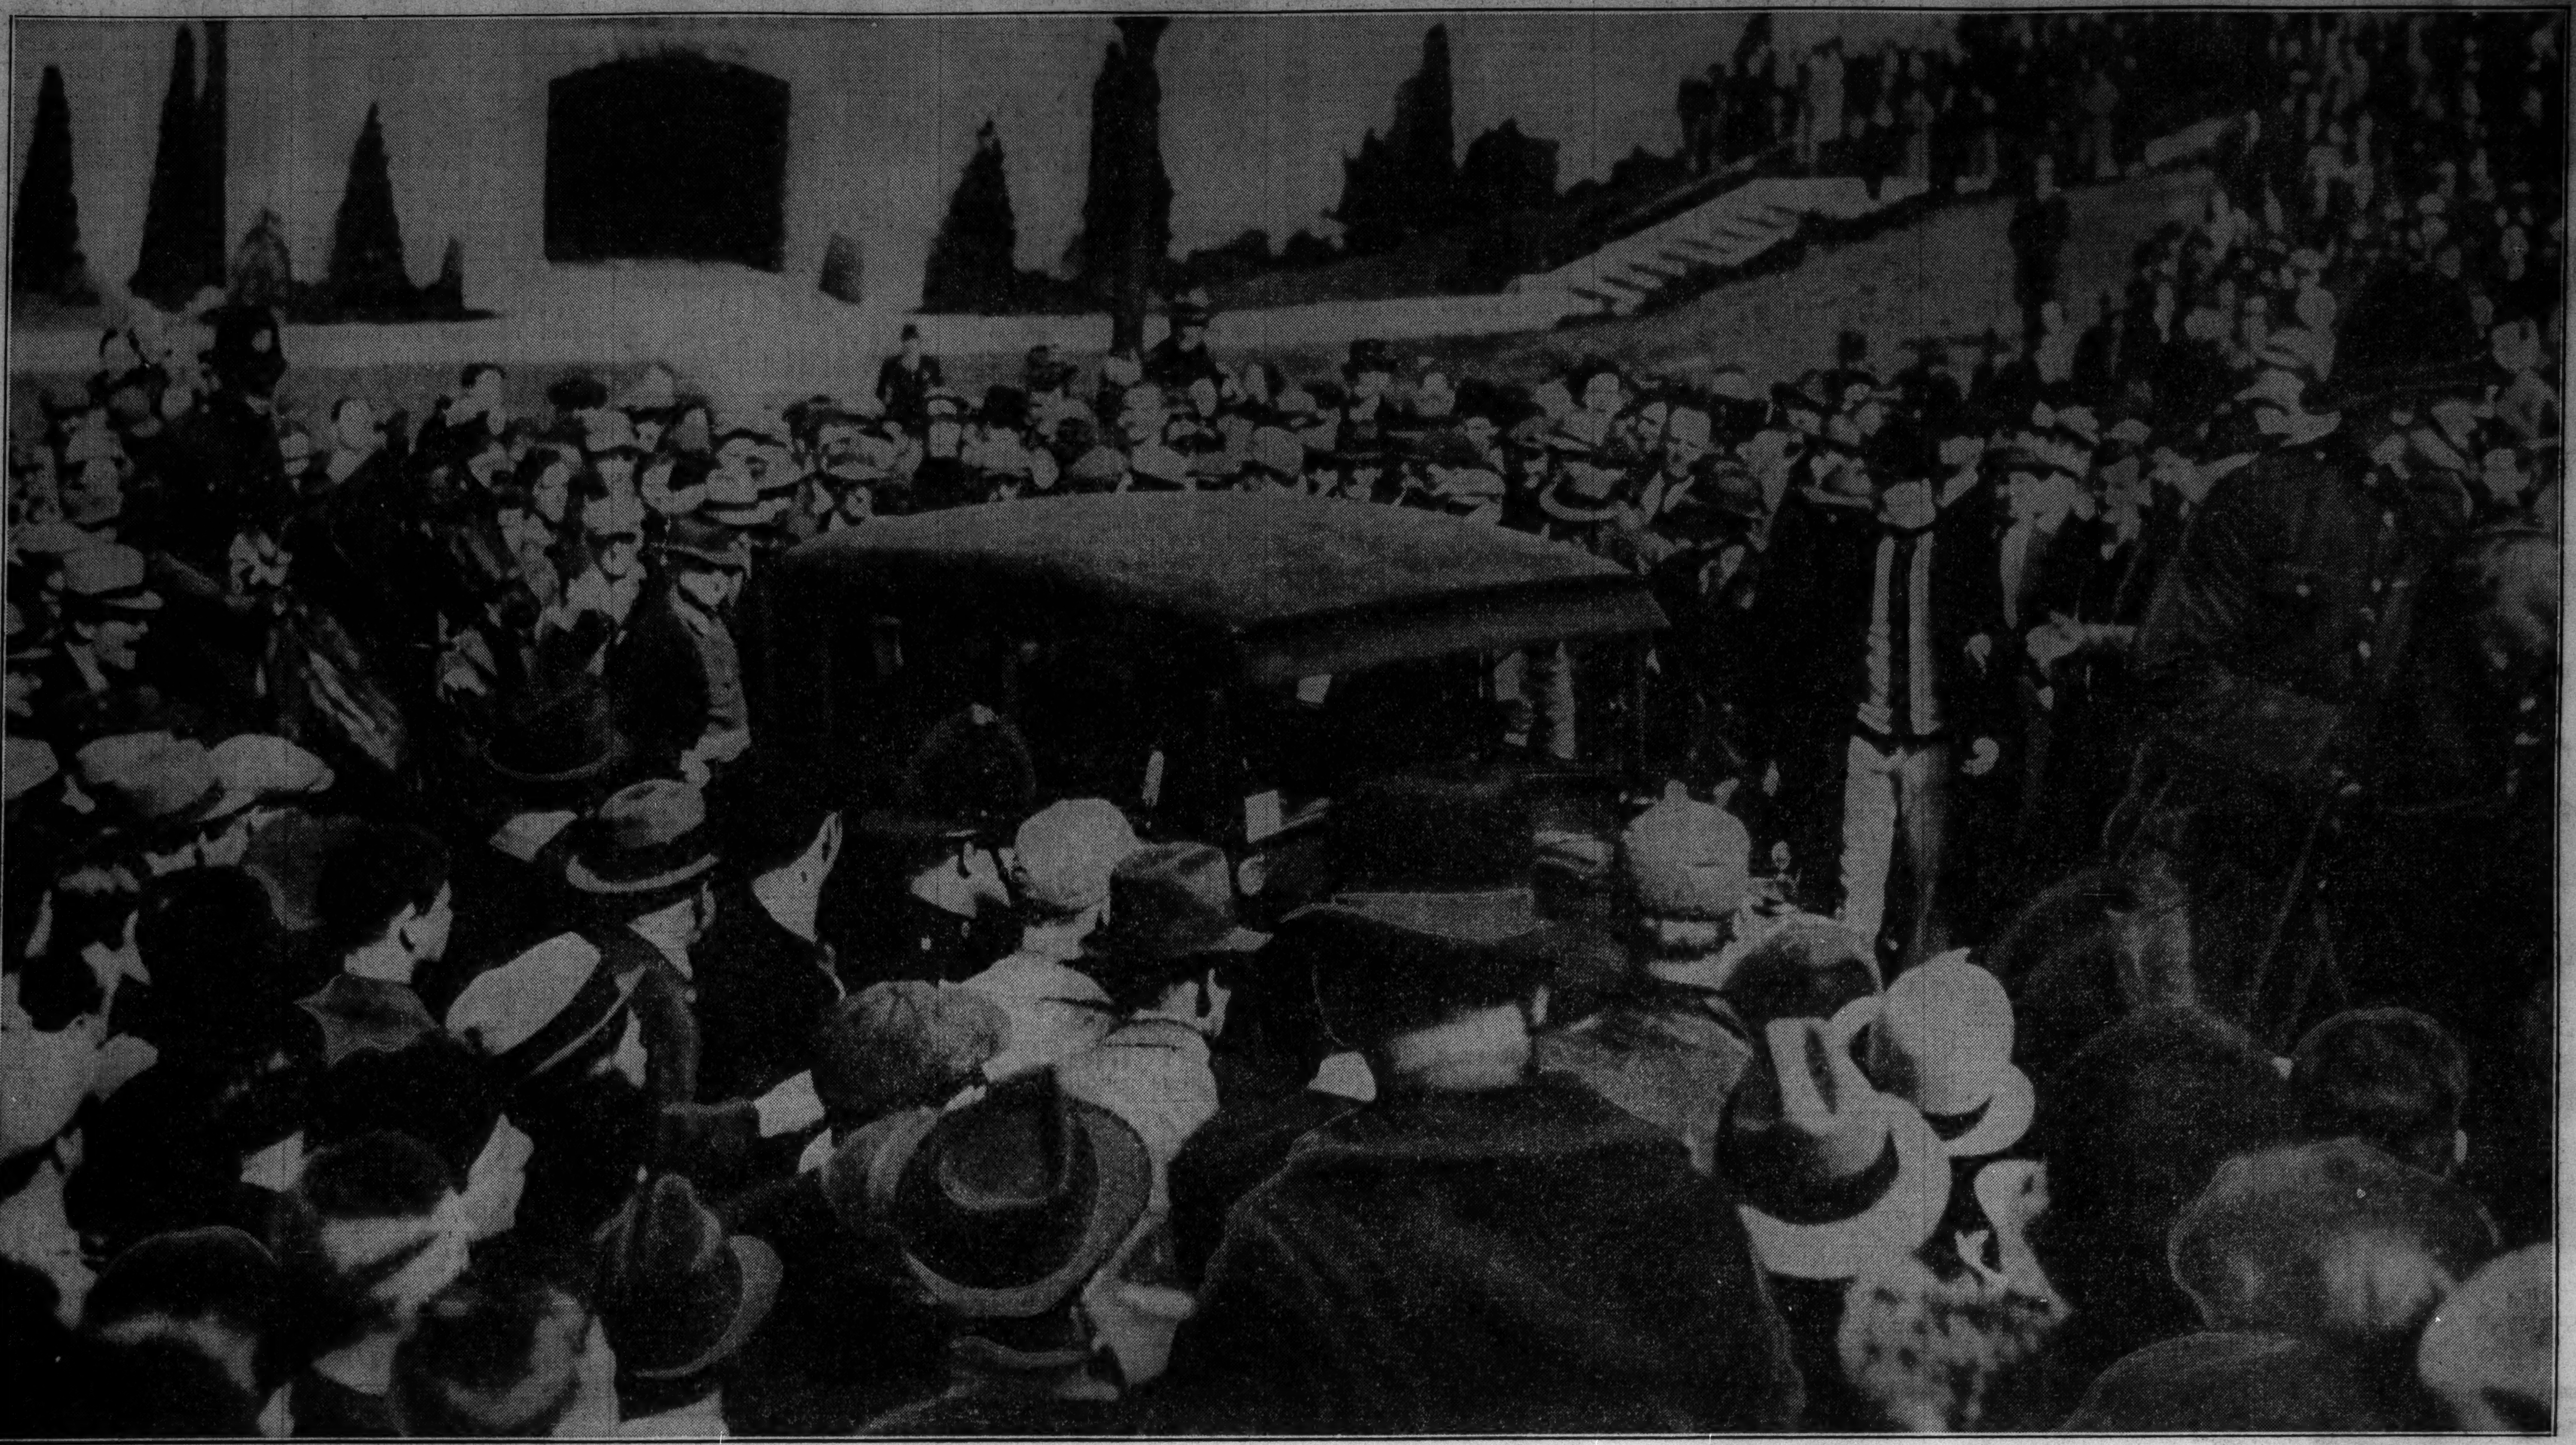
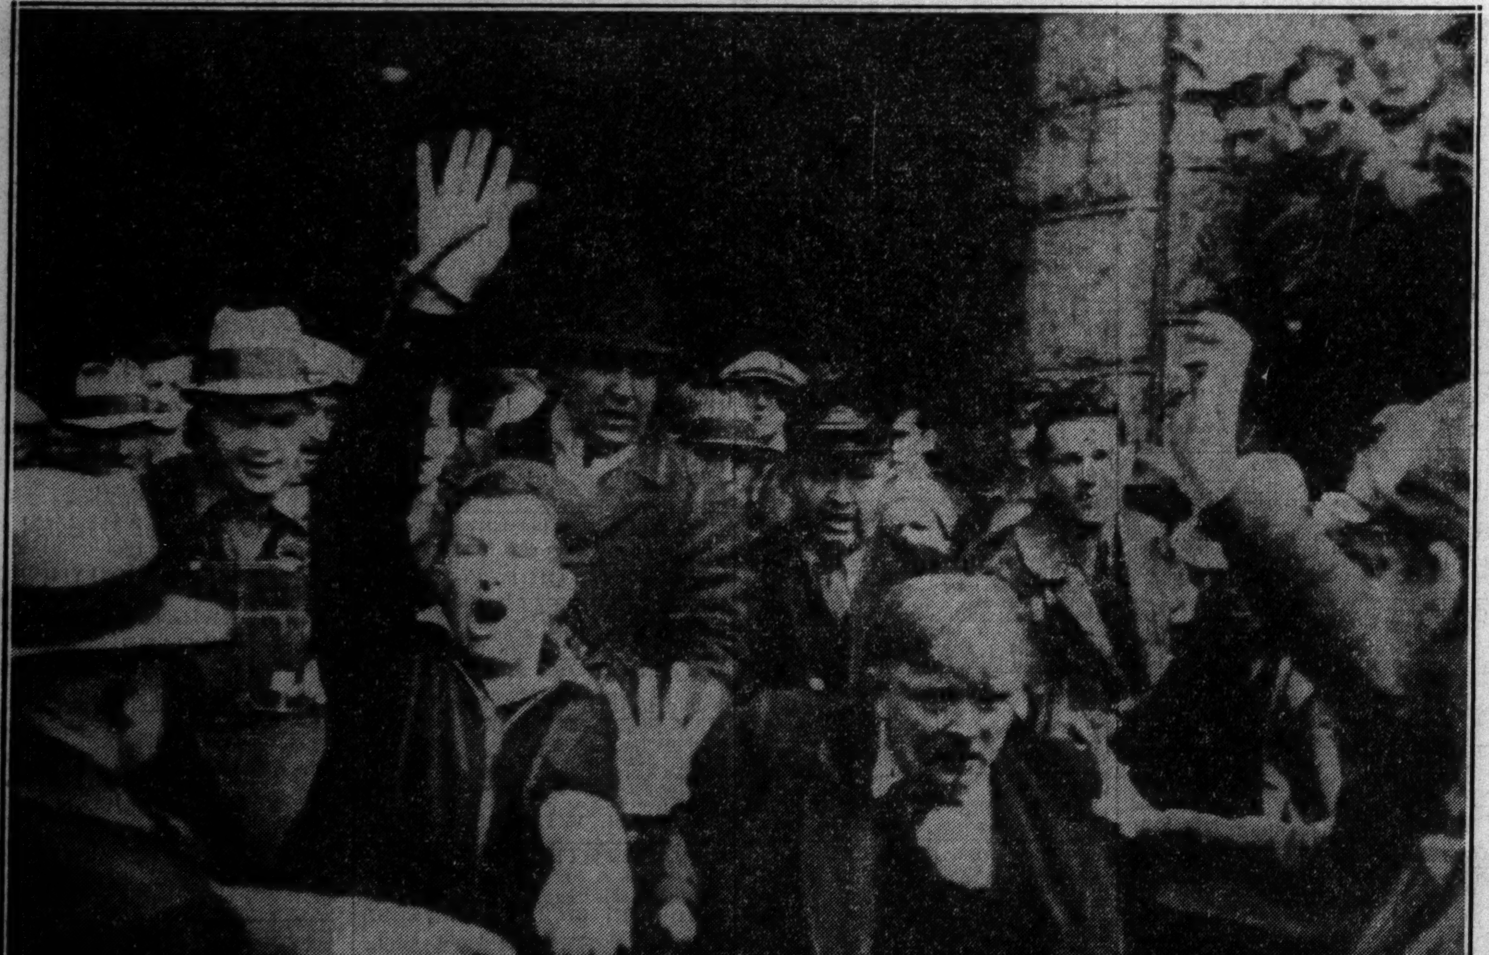
Farmers and Loyal Employes Drive Strikers from Hershey Plant in Pitched Battle—Fifty Are Injured



[Associated Press Wirephoto.]

More than 500 strikers were evicted from the Hershey Chocolate corporation plant in Hershey, Pa., yesterday by crowd of several thousand farmers and loyal employes. This picture, sent by wirephoto, shows Pennsylvania state troopers arriving in time to keep the angry crowd from upsetting car in which strike leaders were about to flee. The farmers were aroused by the strike, which started last Friday and paralyzed their market for 800,000 pounds of milk daily. They set a deadline for the strikers to evacuate, which was ignored, and then went into action with clubs, iron bars, and sticks.



[Associated Press Wirephoto.]

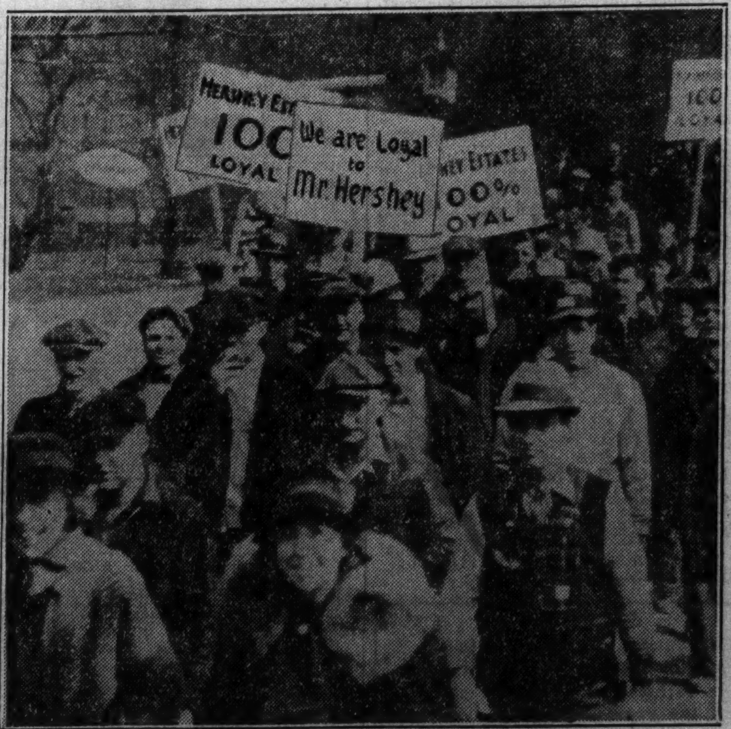
[Associated Press Wirephoto.]

Helmeted Pennsylvania troopers arriving on the scene of battle yesterday to restore order after an hour's fighting. The farmers and loyal workers who stormed the plant had assembled earlier in the day at the town sports arena for a parade. At 1 p. m., the deadline, they battered down the doors.



[Associated Press Wirephoto.]

Some of the members of the attacking force as they paraded prior to their assault on the strikers. They carried banners telling of loyalty to company.

[Associated Press Wirephoto.]
